Masonic Home News

WEEKLY LETTER WRITTEN EXPRESSLY FOR THIS PAPER BY A GUEST AT THE HOMES

Easter, the day which vies with Christmas in the joyous character of its celebration by Christians throughout the world, was celebrated, according to custom, by the community of the Masonic Homes, in such notable manner as to bring pleasure and happiness to the hearts of all the 272 guests, both young and old, and to make it a day of happy memories. Never in its history has Grand Lodge Hall presented such a gorgeous Easter floral display.

The same may be said of Guest Houses Nos. 1 and 2, the homes of the boys and girls, Narcissus, commonly called daffodils and jonquils, by the thousands, hyacinth, eight varieties of color, from deepest blue to faintest pink, and royal magnolias, all the product of our gardens and the lakeside beds, in which are now to be seen the shooting sprouts of forty varieties of Iris.

The beauty of the floral decoration of the Assembly Room was greatly enhanced by a cluster of twelve magnificent Easter lilies which were received with Easter greetings from Brother Walter Willard, P. M. of Robert A. Lamberton Lodge, No. 487, of Philadelphia.

In Grand Lodge Hall, the guests were received at breakfast, with an address of greeting by Superintendent, Brother N. Franklin Heckler, and beside the plate of each guest, was found chocolate and Easter eggs.

The dinner at noon was a classic Easter dinner, and was all that Spring chicken with its numerous accompaniments and the finished art of cooking could make it. Religious services appropriate to the day were held in the afternoon under the auspices and by the courtesy of Perseverance Lodge No. 21, of Harrisburg, a lodge which has placed the Homes under many obligations by their many acts of kindness.

The services were unusually interesting and inspiring—both in sermon and song. The eloquent sermon was delivered by Rev. George E. Hawes, D. D., Pastor of the Market Square Presbyterian Church of Harrisburg. In graphic terms and with intensive interest, he told that marvelous story of the empty tomb, the cumulative proofs of the risen Christ and its fulfillment of the prophecies of old. The event which marked the first Easter day, the joyful celebration of which has annually continued through all these centuries to our present day by Christians throughout the world.

The singing features were rendered by the boys and girls choir of the Homes, and by Mr. Gwynlyn Watkins, a member of the choir of Dr. Hawes' Church. The children had diligently prepared their Easter music, and in sweet harmony, their young voices rang out in two beautiful anthems, "Shine O Sun," and "All Hail."

The story of Easter at the home of the girls, might be repeated in describing that at the home of the boys, where, in addition to an address by Superintendent Heckler, the boys were aroused to enthusiasm and resolve, in agriculture and gardening, by a sterling, practical talk by Mr. Samuel H. Imboden, the farm manager of the Homes, with a view of having their assistance in the farm and garden work.

At 9 o'clock all the boys and girls, accompanied by the Superintendent, were conducted in a body, to the Sunday school room of the Lutheran Church of Elizabethtown, where these 36 juvenile enthusiasts united with those assembled in making the celebration the success it was.

CRYING FOR HELP Lots of It in Mount Joy But Daily Growing Less

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed. Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood. When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys. Read what Doan's have done for Mount Joy people. Mrs. Irvin Gelstweit, W. Main St., Mount Joy, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family as far back as I can remember. My back used to pain and ache so that I had to have it rubbed. My kidneys were too frequent in action and broke my rest at night. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I can say that without a doubt, this medicine is the best that I know of. It gave me permanent results and I haven't had occasion to use it in a long time."

Elizabethtown College Notes (Too late for last week) On Friday, April 21 an Arbor Day Program was rendered by the Seniors, in Music Hall, at 3 P. M. On Friday evening, a public session of the Homerian Literary Society was held in Music Hall at 8 o'clock.
