Postmaster's Term Expires Next Sunday

Miss Emma Pennell Will be Retained as Clerk by Our New Postmaster, Mr. Freed

You are all aware that Mr. J. Fred Fenstermacher's term as postmaster here expires on Sunday, May 28 and while the new appointee Mr. J. Willis Freed has not as yet been confirmed, the confirmation is looked for daily and there is every indication that the postoffice will change heads about June 1st or 15th.

By an interview with postmaster-to-be Freed yesterday, he informed us that Miss Emma Pennell, who has been such an efficient clerk during the terms of her father and Mr. Fenstermacher, will be retained. Aside from this he knows nothing further of the official force at this time.

Our retiring postmaster, Mr. Fenstermacher, will round out his third term of a total of twelve years in that office. He has been a very good official and always conducted the office in a satisfactory manner, ever striving to give the patrons his best. By an interview as to his future, Mr. Fenstermacher told us today that just at present he has nothing to say. We however understand that it is intimated that he may resume his duties with Mr. Clarence Schock or may return to his first love—a clerical position or possibly part ownership in one of the leading dry goods stores in this place, which is now on the market.

Miss Mame Fenstermacher, who has been an obliging and accommodating clerk at the post office the past twelve years, will retire when Mr. Freed assumes charge.

A Fine Lot of Stock

J. B. Keller & Bro. will hold their next public sale on Friday, May 26, at their stock yards opposite the Farmers Inn, A. H. Stumpf proprietor. They will offer 60 head of cows consisting of Holsteins, Durhams, Guernseys, Brindles and a few fancy Jerseys; also a few heifers fresh and close springers, a lot of good stock bulls and a few extra good homestead shoats. Sale will commence at 1:15 and the shoats will be sold first. Don't forget the date, Friday, May 26, at Mt. Joy, Pa.

First of the Season

The first festival to be held in the park here this season will be on Saturday evening, May 27 and will be under the auspices of the Citizens band of this place. Chicken corn soup, sandwiches, ice cream and cake, bananas, soft drinks, etc. will be served. The band will furnish the music. As the proceeds will be used for purchasing new uniforms, everybody should lend a helping hand.

Donegal Man Honored

S. S. Kraybill, of East Donegal, was elected a trustee of the Mennonite Children's Home Association at the seventh annual meeting at Millersville. He was afterwards elected secretary of the board of trustees.

Doing Business Again

The trolley line between Millersville and Piqua was opened for traffic Saturday after a suspension since last Fall. On Sunday cars were run every half hour and the line was well patronized.

These Are Good Ones

Mr. Ed. Ream is back from Ohio and Indiana where he purchased one of the best express loads of horses and colts that will be shipped here in months. They were mostly bought direct from those good stock farms in Dark county, Ohio and are all ready for work. Among the lot are three road horses with speed to burn so don't fail to come to this sale at Mount Joy on Saturday, May 27.

A Big Issue

One of the largest issues of the Bulletin circulated for a long time, was the one of last week. Our complete account of the conference at Cross Roads was directly responsible for this great demand. Nearly two hundred copies were sold at the church in two days. A number of new subscribers were also added to our list.

"Good Old Town of Maytown"

With the surplus of the funds saved for their old home week celebration of a few years ago, a committee of Maytown citizens has purchased roof ladders, fire hooks and axes, rope and buckets for the village fire company that is to be organized. Steps are being taken toward building an engine house and buying an engine.

Is Quite Ill

Mr. John F. Baker, who lives with Mr. Amos Shearer, near Hershey's meeting house, took ill quite suddenly and is suffering from an attack of pleurisy. He is seventy-eight years old and a brother of Mr. E. F. Baker of this place.

The Kiddies Are Happy

The primary grades of our public schools will close today and the kiddies will now enjoy their summer's vacation.

MAY CONSOLIDATE LINES

Owners of Mt. Joy District Consider Selling To Bell

A movement is on foot in the upper end of the county for the consolidation of all of the rural telephone lines with the Bell Company. At a meeting of the committees appointed by the various telephone lines connecting with the Bell Company's exchanges at Elizabethtown and Mount Joy, held at the Joint Schoolhouse, near Florin, on Thursday evening a permanent organization was effected. S. S. Kraybill, of East Donegal, was elected president, Elmer Strickler, recording secretary and Howard Moore, corresponding secretary.

The following demands were made:

1. That a more satisfactory contract be established eliminating the clause that no rural station was to be less than two miles from the exchange.
2. Since to Mt. Joy exchange, Landisville exchange has been given free of charge in addition to Elizabethtown exchange, therefore Elizabethtown shall be given Marletta exchange free of charge in addition to Mount Joy exchange.
3. Until these demands be granted no agent of any of the above rural lines shall sign any contract unless it first be submitted to the organization.

A Three Legged Chick

A hen owned by Miss Sue Smith of Columbia, on Saturday hatched out a chick with three legs. Two on one joint on the right side of the body. The chick is perfectly formed otherwise and is as lively as any of the brood.

Gun Club Started Here

Grounds Are Now Being Put In Condition

A long felt want in this place was a gun club and at last a suitable ground has been procured and several local men are quite active doing the preliminary work. Mr. William Darrenkamp has leased the plot of ground at the extreme north of High Street, the Ziegler plot, to the gunners, a trap has been procured and the grounds are now being put into shape.

Mr. P. E. Getz is circulating a petition asking or rather obligating men to join and thus far he has not met with a single refusal. Although only on the job since yesterday, he has nearly twenty signers. All signers are promptly given their card by the payment of the very nominal sum of $1.00 which entitles them to all the privileges of the grounds for one year. Also to the use of the trap for themselves and friends. Targets will cost club members only fifty cents per hundred which is less than cost. Outsiders can also shoot at any time at a slight advance of the targets over the cost to club members.

It is the intention that as soon as a fair number of members are procured they will get together and organize. Thus far the following have joined the club:

Interests of the Troup Piano House. Mrs. Elwood Millard, Mrs. Chas. Wealand, Mrs. Walter Loraw and Miss Elizabeth Hendrix spent Sunday at Newtown where they called to see their mother.

Stuart Herman, of Harrisburg. A silver offering will be taken at the door and all are welcome. The play will be given under the auspices of the Westminster Circle.

Street Wasn't Wide Enough

On Saturday evening two young men from the country were racing up Main street, one of the horses scared and ran on the pavement and thru the fence into the vacant lot of Mr. W. B. Detwiler. The damage to the fence was even worse than the damage to either the horse, wagon or driver. Mr. Detwiler will ask the young man to repair the fence.

Marletta Street Improvements

Mr. J. S. Hamaker is having the coping along his Marletta street property renewed, the pavement relaid and a concrete curb and gutter placed in position. On Monday the roots of a fine large shade tree in front of his home, were cut in order to do this work and some time during the night the tree blew over. Mr. Elmer Heisey is doing the concreting.

CAMP LONG LEVEL

That's Where the Boy Scouts Will Spend Two Weeks This Summer

Last Thursday Capt. Harry J. Williams, of the local squad of Boy Scouts of America, spent the afternoon in the vicinity of Long Level and Bull Run, in York county. He was in search for a site upon which the Scouts will hold their annual two weeks' outing again this summer. He succeeded in leasing a very pleasant plot of sandy land of about two acres, upon which there is a fine base ball diamond, and which borders on the picturesque Susquehanna, at the extreme southern point of the Five Mile Level. This location will afford the Scouts and their guests excellent boating, bathing, fishing and a great place for all kinds of field sports. The boys are all pleased with the location and are now anxiously awaiting the last week in July and the first week in August. We predict that they will have the time of their lives. Capt. Williams has engaged the services of an experienced cook for this outing in Mr. Jacob Grogg, of this place.

The Only Way

State Fish Commissioner Nathan C. Buller is about to plant 3,000,000 shad in the Susquehanna river. Guess he too is convinced that shad cannot get over the McCall's Ferry dam and that's one way of caring for the upriver folks. That's about the only way shad will ever get above that dam.

Elected a Delegate

At Wednesday's session of the Diocese of Harrisburg, of the Episcopal Church $50,000 was pledged to the clergy retirement fund. Among the delegates elected to the national convention of the Episcopal Church is Mr. Thos. J. B. Own of this place.

Capt. Dan Powers

Word reached Marletta on Wednesday that Captain Dan Powers, the State's oldest river pilot, was dead at Marysville, he having died from infirmities of age in his eighty-ninth year. "Captain" Dan, as he was familiarly known all along the Susquehanna river, during the rafting season, at the age of seventeen years, began to run the river, and he frequently visited Marletta and remained there for several weeks and would take rafts down stream with the aid of Marletta men. Only one, Leonard Waller, is left in Marletta, who knew Captain Powers at that time.

Our townsman, Mr. S. N. Eby, left yesterday for Mount Gretna, where he will assume the duties of collector for the Mount Gretna Campmeeting Association. For a period of twenty-four years, he has resigned last year, Mr. Eby has very ably been the general superintendent of this popular summer resort but was obliged to withdraw on account of his advanced age. He will now remain at Mt. Gretna until September.

Successful Conference at Cross Roads

27,000 Meals Furnished During the Six Days' Session of the Church of the Brethren

The general conference of the Church of the Brethren in Christ in session at Cross Roads meeting house, continued to attract record breaking crowds at each session, the attendance being estimated at $4,500 at the meeting Wednesday.

At the missionary meeting held Wednesday evening, the offering for foreign purposes amounted to $1219. In that was embodied $300 for a church building in India on condition that the church raise $300 for the same purpose, and with the further conditions that whatever amount was raised over that amount would be equated by the donor. The amount contributed amounted to over $900, which made the total of the building fund a trifle over $1,500.

The donor of half of the above amount has not given his name but it is presumed by some that he is none other than Permanent Conference Secretary S. R. Smith, of Grantham, Pa.

Better Train Service to and From Mt. Joy

Four Additional Trains Go on the Pennsy's New Schedule Sunday--Sixteen Trains Daily

A new schedule will go into effect on the Pennsylvania Railroad next Sunday at midnight and while we do not know anything relative to any changes to our present schedule, we can authoritatively state that there will be a number of new trains on between Harrisburg and Lancaster which will certainly benefit this town.

Going west on weekdays a new accommodation train will be put on that will leave Lancaster at 9 A. M. and get to Harrisburg at 10:10 A. M.

Another new accommodation train west on weekdays will leave Lancaster at 6:40 P. M., stop at Mt. Joy about 7 P. M., and will arrive at Harrisburg at 7:50 P. M.

A new accommodation train will also go on the schedule and will leave Harrisburg at 7 A. M., arriving at Lancaster at 8:15 A. M. This train will stop at Mount Joy at about 7:55.

A second accommodation train east will leave Harrisburg at 4:35 P. M. and arrive at Lancaster at 5:45. This train will also stop here at about 5:20.

There will also be two new Sunday trains, one in each direction, both of which will stop here.

Since the above was written and just before going to press we were given a new schedule thru the kindness of our local ticket agent, Mr. J. H. Stoll and herewith is appended the new schedule:

Westward

Weekdays—6:49, 9:22, 10:54 a. m., 2:27, 5:33, 7:02 p. m. Sundays—7:21, 10:54, 11:07 a. m., 1:51, 5:33 and 7:47 p. m.

Eastward

Weekdays—12:07, 7:52, 8:35, 10:00 and 10:58 a. m., 12:35, 2:57, 4:13, 5:22 and 8:04 p. m. Sundays—12:07 and 9:50 a. m., and 1:54, 2:43, 4:12 and 7:54 p. m.

By the above schedule it will be seen that Mount Joy will have six trains west daily and ten trains east. This greatly improves the service as the schedule closes a number of big gaps of several hours that existed in Mount Joy on former schedules. One big help will be 9:22 west while another is a new train east at 5:22. Also an earlier train to Lancaster in the morning.
