Shiloh of Lansdale & West Shore Lodge of Camp Hill Visit Here

Away from the activities, the noise and bustle of community life, the silent city of the dead!

Words appropriate to the thoughts and emotions of the assemblage, who, on Memorial Day, surrounded the graves of those guests for whom time is no more, and who now rest in that beautiful plateau on the hillside, sentinelled by lofty giants of the forest, its mossy mounds and massive markers kissed by the morning sun, and hallowed by the mellow light of the moon at night, the Masonic Homes Cemetery! Here was gathered on Memorial Day, a goodly company assembled to pay that tribute of remembrance, for which the day was appointed to the soldier-dead who had been guests of the Homes.

The concourse was composed of Grand Army and other Veterans, guests and widows of soldier-guests of the Homes, of members of John M. Good Post, No. 502, and General Miles Camp, No. 26, Sons of Veterans of Elizabethtown.

The simple and impressive ritual prepared for the occasion was rendered; Lincoln's address at Gettysburg was read, "Nearer My God to Thee," was sung, three volleys were fired over the graves by the firing squad, and the services were concluded with the benediction by Rev. H. F. Hoover, Pastor of the Church of God.

Previous to the ceremonies, flags were planted over the graves of the three deceased Grand Army Guests, and flowers decorated their graves, as well as the graves of the fourteen other guests buried in the beautiful cemetery.

The deceased Veteran guests whose remains are interred in the Homes' Cemetery are as follows: Bro. Jackson McClathery, late a member of Phoenix Lodge, No. 75 of Phoenixville; Bro. William R. Ewing, late a member of St. John's Lodge, No. 219, of Pittsburgh; Bro. William W. Yates, late a member of Mozart Lodge, No. 436, of Philadelphia; The four other deceased Grand Army guests are: Bro. James H. Shenberger, late a member of Coatesville Lodge, No. 564, of Coatesville; Bro. Lewis Shugars, late a member of Hamilton Lodge, No. 274, of Philadelphia; Bro. John Hull, late a member of Lodge, No. 43, of Lancaster, all of whom are interred in cemeteries at their former places of abode.

The Homes' buildings were appropriately decorated with flags and flowers, for the occasion.

In the afternoon the guests were assembled in Grand Lodge Hall, where a Memorial Service was conducted exclusively by the guests, among whom exists intelligence and talent sufficient for all occasions.

The exercises opened with a piano solo, "Under the flag of Victory March," by Mrs. Henrietta M. Van Horn; followed by the singing of "America" reading of the 103rd Psalm, by Chaplain William H. Shaffer; Introductory Remarks by Superintendent, Brother N. Franklin Heckler, in which he stated that 22 guests of the Homes had been Veteran-soldiers, seven (7) of whom had entered into rest, and concluded his remarks by decorating with flags, seven empty chairs in memory of the honored dead. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was then read by Brother George R. Welchans. Mrs. William H. Shaffer read "The faded coat of blue," after which "The Battle Cry of Freedom" was then sung. The address for the occasion was delivered by Bro. Dallas M. Deftusa, a former member of the 11th Penna. Cavalry, and for eight months a prisoner in Andersonville prison, on the subject of "The American Soldier." It was a sterling, patriotic address, in which high tribute was paid to the American soldier, from the beginning of his career in the Continental Army of the Revolution, through all the fields of Mars, in which he was engaged, and proved his valor, not omitting that greatest of internecine strife, the Civil War, which was prolonged and bloody, because the American soldier was engaged in both armies.

The exercises were closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

On Thursday, June 1, 1916, the members of the Fraternity, with their friends and families from Allentown and other points in the Lehigh Valley, to the number of 178, held an excursion to the Homes. They journeyed from Allentown to Hershey by steam cars, and from Hershey to Elizabethtown by trolley. Upon their arrival, they were met by Guides of the Homes, who conducted the visitors over the grounds, visiting all the important buildings and points of interest. On arriving at Grand Lodge Hall, they were given an opportunity to inspect it and the adjacent memorial buildings.

The excursion was gotten up by Brother Howard L. Hertzog, Secretary of Lehigh Lodge, No. 326, with the view of exciting interest in the

HURRAH! RINGLING DAY ALMOST HERE

Big Circus and Great Spectacle Occupy Five Trains Crammed With Wonders

The big event for which the youngsters and grownups have been impatiently waiting is drawing near, for on Wednesday, June 14th Ringling Brothers' circus is to exhibit afternoon and night in Harrisburg. Expectancy never ran so high before and it is likely that this district will send a large delegation to feed the elephants. Unusual interest centers around the gigantic spectacle, "Cinderella," with which the famous showmen are this season opening their wonderful main tent program. "Cinderella" is probably the best loved of all fairy tales and to see it produced with more than 1000 persons, hundreds of dancing girls and glorious pageants, indeed gives promise of making "childhood's golden dreams come true." In the same great tent, will come the marvelous circus numbers in which 400 men and women performers, scores of trained animals and a galaxy of special features are introduced. The majority of the acts are entirely new to American, the Ringling Bros. having secured the pick of these European performers who have been obliged to seek engagements in this country because of the war. The all-new street parade will take place show day morning.

Our Suit Selection Is Still Right Up To Top Notch

The truth of the matter is that long after the average store has ceased to receive another shipment, we are getting in Suits by the score and selling them just as rapidly.

The reason is not that the other store WOULD'NT do the same thing if it could, but it's timid, to begin with; it hasn't the steady patronage; it can't land the low price from the manufacturer; to be very candid about the situation, many stores have been at the mercy of the manufacturer altogether and been forced to take just what they could get.

Because of the immense volume of business we give the manufacturer, if nothing else, we have been fortunate to get full shipments on every order and some thrown in on the side.

This means "Pinchbacks" as well as more conservative styles.

Let us furnish your Summer Suit and make another satisfied customer.

Dr. Bro. Cuth spoke of having visited many Homes, and he considered, that the Committee on Masonic Homes had solved the problems of management, which was here worked out better than in any other place in the world.

Supt. N. Franklin Heckler, on being called upon, spoke of the great pleasure which was afforded the Homes, in welcoming so many of our Lehigh Fraters and friends. He described the development of the Homes and the recent growth of the John Henry Daman, the Paul L. Lewis, the Berks Home and the Phila. Hospital Memorial Buildings, and announced the fact that with all our buildings, the sleeping capacity of the Homes was exhausted.

Brother Jno. S. Seifing, in a splendid voice, sang a baritone solo, and instrumental music was rendered by the lady visitors.

The entire party was served with dinner in the great dining hall, and returned to their homes with many expressions of pleasure at their visit.

An event of unusual interest took place on Friday evening, June 2, 1916, when a lecture on "Hershey and Hershey Products," illustrated with moving pictures, was presented under the auspices of St. Paul's Lodge, in the Homes and guests, and of the pleasure it gave them in contributing to the pleasure and interest of the guests.

The lecture, besides describing and illustrating this truly great industrial plant, and the several steps in the manufacture of its products, described and illustrated the model town, its extensive buildings, park, the many conveniences for civic life, the amusement of its citizens, and its many visitors; its herds, tropical garden and menagerie. The lecture was intensely interesting and instructive, and the views of its extensive and wonderful machinery in operation, and the sanitary precautions taken in producing their products, excited wonder and admiration.

It was a source of great enjoyment to the large audience, and a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered St. Paul's Lodge, No. 481, and the Hershey Company.

Having demonstrated how the toothsome "Hershey's Milk Chocolate" is made, every one in the audience was given an opportunity to learn how it tastes, and to sweeten, as it were, the memory of that which had been seen and heard.

The perfect June day which characterized Sunday, June 4, must be credited with supplementing the Homes attractions in bringing to the Homes, a record crowd of not less than 1000 visitors.

Besides the large number from various localities, coming and going all day, there was a pilgrimage of 94 members of Shiloh Lodge, No. 508, of Lansdale, Montgomery county, with their friends, who arrived in the morning, viewed the buildings and grounds, dined in Grand Lodge Hall, and departed as they came, in automobiles. They had been gone but a short time, when automobiles began to arrive, bringing the members of West Shore Lodge, No. 681 of Camp Hill, Cumberland County, with their friends and families, for the purpose of conducting the religious services of the day. They came in such goodly numbers, that an audience of between 300 and 400 were present at the services.

Brother Fred C. Beecher, W. M. of the Lodge, addressed the assemblage and presided at the service. Rev. Bro. Thomas S. Wilcox, Pastor of the Baughman Memorial M. E. Church, of New Cumberland, and a member of Lodge No. 106 of Williamsport, delivered an able sermon and during the service, Bro. Wm. S. Hoover sang in excellent manner, two beautiful solos.
