The Calathumplians arrange that no one is forgotten, so far as rendering, some of their deafening music.

their last victim was Mr. Ray Heisey and wife, who had completed their fitting one day last week were surprised when the band opened up, continuing until they received the usual compensation.
Monday afternoon while the children were playing near the Cyrus Evans residence, they called the attention of older persons to the large number of flies in the air, which turned out to be a swarm of bees. The old tin pan music was applied, causing the swarm to settle upon a small cherry tree. Arrangements were made at once to put them in captivity. This may be the means of starting an apiary in Rheems.

ate of the Millersville State Normal School and has taught school in Oberlin and Highspire for a number of years.

Diffenderfer—Staley
Mae Staley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Staley, of Ironville, and Harry Diffenderfer, of Landisville, were married on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, at Ironville, by Rev. O. R. Brooks, pastor of the Ironville U. B. Church. A reception followed at the bride's home, and last night the young couple were entertained a serenade by the band they will reside with the brides parents for the present.

A very pretty marriage was solemnized at noon Friday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Grove in East Donegal township, a half-mile west of Marietta, when their eldest daughter, Miss Mary Ruth Grove, was united in marriage to Henry Reist Kraybill, of East Donegal township, near Maytown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis Hagen, pastor of the Chancelord, York county, Presbyterian Church, the ring ceremony being used. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Violet Cassell of Hummelstown. During the ceremony she played "O, Promise Me," and as the party was leaving the parlor she played the march from Lohengrin.

The bridal party consisted of Peter Kraybill, a brother of the groom, Miss Myrtle Grove, a sister of the bride, Miss Ruth Clair of Middletown; Rene Grove, of Philadelphia, a brother of the bride, and Norman Grubbs of Pittsburg. The bride was given away by her father. She wore a gown of white crepe meteor, beautifully trimmed in white lace, and carried a huge bouquet of bride's roses.

The bridesmaids were dressed in pink, and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas. The decorations at the Grove home were very beautiful, daisies and roses constituting the main flowers. This was arranged by Rene Grove, an artist, and the brother of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding reception was held and was attended by many. The couple left by automobile for Harrisburg and cities in the west and upon the culmination of their honeymoon will reside at Chicago, where Mr. Kraybill will take up studies at the Chicago University. The bride received many handsome and costly wedding gifts.

Miss Grove was a teacher for several years in the schools of East Donegal township, having graduated in the same class with Mr. Kraybill, and she is a graduate of the Millersville State Normal and was very popular. The groom, who graduated from the Maytown High School in 1908, also attended Millersville, and graduated from the Pennsylvania State College in 1913 with highest honors. He received the John W. White $400 fellowship at this institution. He later received the degree of M. S. from the Chicago University. He was until several days ago an instructor, at State College in the chemistry department and will return there later.

Earnshaw—Patton
A beautiful wedding was solemnized at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Hilda A. Earnshaw, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Earnshaw of this place, became the bride of Mr. Harold Hahn Patton, of Coatesville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lewis Chester Morrison, rector of the church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple. The ring ceremony was used. The church was beautifully decorated in white and pink roses and peonies.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white silk taffeta and Georgette crepe, and a veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and valley lilies. Miss Marion N. Schrite of this place was bridesmaid. She wore a costume of white trimmed in pink and carried pink roses. The flower girls, Beatrice Derr and Elsie Hofer of this place, wore white and carried baskets of pink sweet peas. The best man was Mr. Pierce Patton of Honeybrook, brother of the groom, and Messrs. George Zeller and William Ressler served as ushers. Miss Elsie Battye played the Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church. During the ceremony she played several numbers and used as a recessional the wedding march from Mendelssohn.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, ninety guests being present. Mrs. Patton for the past several years was a teacher in the Pennsylvania Business College at Lancaster, and was a graduate of the Mount Joy High School, class of 1908. Mr. Patton is employed in Coatesville. The couple left for Lancaster by auto and from there took a train for Philadelphia and Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Patton will be "at hom" after July first, at Downingtown, Pa. The Bulletin joins their many friends in wishing them much joy and happiness.

of the Church of God and was a highly esteemed resident of Elizabethtown. Besides her husband, she is survived by three children, the youngest of which is only ten days old. The funeral was held from her late home on Saturday morning at 9:30 and at 10 o'clock in the Brethren in Christ Church at Elizabethtown.

Charles J. Holland
Charles J. Holland until a few years ago sexton of Mt. Tunnel Cemetery, Elizabethtown, died at his home at Palmyra, after a lingering illness from cancer, aged 68 years. The deceased was born at Duncannon, but moved to Elizabethtown some years ago, where he was well and favorably known. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Sarah and Grace, at home, and two sons, Mervin at home and Cloyd of Harrisburg. The funeral took place on Wednesday. The remains were taken to Duncannon for interment.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mason
On Sunday night death visited the home of Samuel D. Mason, Walnut street, Marietta, and claimed his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, who for some time had been a sufferer of gangrene. Deceased was born in East Donegal township, May 8, 1837. Over forty years ago she was married to Mr. Mason, and he survives with William H. Mason, of Marietta; George Rettew, Marietta; Henry Rettew, Columbia, and Miss Mary W. Rettew, Lancaster. Thirteen grandchildren also survive. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. The funeral services will be held this afternoon from her late home, Rev. Arthur Richards, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating and burial will be made in the Marietta cemetery.

Mrs. Susan E. Young
Mrs. Susan E. Young, of Ironville came here on a visit to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Garber, on New Haven street three weeks ago. She took ill suddenly on Sunday evening and died from the effects of a stroke. Deceased was seventy-four years of age, and is survived by ten children as follows: Mrs. Mary Dresher, near Campbells-town, Lebanon county; Richard, in Manor township; Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Sophie Morrow, Marietta; Levi S., in Columbia; Lemon, Cordelia; John, in Canada; Amos, Ellenwood, Kansas and Elizabeth, at Manheim. The remains were taken to Ironville by Undertaker Robert Hoke and the funeral will be held from the home of her son there on Thursday morning. Interment will be made at Manheim.

Jacob Campbell
Jacob Campbell, a well known resident of Elizabethtown, died at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in his home, No. 308 West High street. His death followed a short illness, due to pneumonia. He was aged 45 years. The deceased was born in West Donegal township and was a farmer by occupation. Some years ago, however, he removed to Elizabethtown and accepted a position as rural delivery mail clerk and was well liked by the patrons along his route. He was a member of Christ Reformed church, Elizabethtown. Besides his wife, who before marriage was Miss Lizzie Schroll, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Schroll, of Donegal Springs. He is survived by three daughters, Esther, Ruth and Grace, all living at home. He is also survived by two brothers, John and William Campbell both of Elizabethtown. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon.

George Mable
At an early hour Monday morning George Mable, justice of the peace of Marietta Borough, died at his home in Third street, East Marietta, from an affection of the heart.

He was born in Northumberland, England and emigrated to America in 1872. He settled at Columbia and for a number of years was employed at Chickles for Ephraim Myers. Later Mr. Mable purchased the store, and carried on business there for sixteen years, while the furnaces were in blast, and at the time was also appointed postmaster, express agent and ticket agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. When this station and office was disbanded, Mr. Mable removed to Marietta, where he opened a general store and conducted it ever since. About 1888 Mr. Mable organized the Furnace Chapel, of the Presbyterian denomination, and ever since has been at the head of the school and church and took a deep interest in the work. He was justice of the peace of the Borough, succeeding Major Simon B. Cameron, who resigned on account of ill health.

He was in his 67th year. He was married May 31, 1877 to Mrs. Margaret Martin, of Columbia, who survives with the following children: David Martin, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Jacob Kunkle, Chester. Two brothers, John Mable, Columbia and Thomas Mable, of Ireland also survive. There are nine grandchildren.

Mary, wife of Councilman Henry Eckman of Columbia, died Monday evening from apoplexy.
