The cold weather during the winter is less difficult to contend with than the hot sun and flies during the summer.

A young duck eats much more than a chicken of the same age, but it grows much faster and is ready for market much earlier, so that it costs no more to raise a duck than to raise a chicken. After ducks get their growth they can be fed as cheaply as hens and during laying season, when ducks are averaging a pound of eggs a week, do not need any more feed than do the Twelve Pekin duck eggs hens. weigh as much as 17 hen's eggs-a little more than two and one fourth

After a calf is four weeks old it can get along very well on little or no milk if you are short. Make a sources it has been learned that gruel out of a variety of feeds, say M. S. Repeat the spray in about two weeks and again in one week if necessary. If spraying has been neglected and the worms appear about picking time, dust the leaves thoroughly with fresh white hellebore. This will lose its strength after a few hours' exposure to the air and will not poison those who eat the fruit

Next time you find a nest of eggs which a hen has stolen away, take a lesson in the proper architecture of such a structure. It may save a few broken eggs or a poor hatch the next time you proceed to set a hen in your own clumsy, human fashion. The keynote of the stolen nest is its flattened, shallow design. This is the way nature has demanded it should be constructed to give the best result. How different from the deep, hollowed out contraption into which so many people pile the eggs they expect Biddy to transform into downy chicks. Oldest Carpenter in County

John Keener, residing two miles north of Mount Joy, is doubtless the oldest carpenter in Lancaster county. Fifty-six years ago he assisted in erecting the large frame bank barn, on the farm of Mrs. Elizabeth Missemer. Although Mr. Keener has almost reached the four score year limit of his age, he still clings to the trade he likes so well and knows so efficiently, working at it even in the heat of the summer, as he informed us on Sunday, that he was on the job the day before. He said he is willing to stop work as soon as the people will let him.
