EDITORIALS

On his bending knees a man may find baggy trousers.

Mr. Hughes is for the colonel, thus making it mutual.

Congress plans to make munitions of war furnish the sinews of war.

In Republican politics the Old Guard may surrender but it never dies.

Mr. Roosevelt has nominated Mr. Hughes as the progressive party's candidate.

We warn the national Guard lads against the red-headed widows of Texas.

Leading the Retrogressives are Perkins, Finn, Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson.

Anyway the American Public knows that Mr. Hughes "takes a good photograph."

The Germans are able to get on the bases at Vedun, but they can not score by sacrifices.

Theodore Roosevelt and the German-American Alliance supporting the partisan observer.

A king can do no wrong, and a Democratic president can do no right in republican eyes.

Though having but small faith in the progressives, the republicans dently desire their works.

Uncle Sam wants a navy that can be heard when it barks, and can bite as well when it barks.

Temporarily from his garb of learning, the small boy plunges gaily into the inviting lake.

Wilson extravagance has produced a fine surplus of nearly $79,000,000 in the federal treasury.

American soldiers know the way to Mexico City, the trail having been blazed for them in 1848.

Carranza besides being entangled in his own whiskers appears to be stupefied by his own verbosity.

Preparedness also includes not forgetting one's tooth brush on leaving for the summer vacation.

More cooks are needed for the army. And, by the same token, more cooks are needed for the homes.

Will Mr. Hughes dare to make an issue of the Federal reserve Bank law, or the rural credit bill just passed?

All the girls expect their soldier sweethearts to send them back each a silver sombrero and a wad of raw chewing gum.

Carranza is entitled to a measure of gratitude from this country for compelling it to lick its army into some sort of shape.

Like Davy Crockett's coon, Carranza came down, but there is no assurance that he will not climb up again unless he is tied.

Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines and now Mexico, some one is always leaving some founding on Uncle Sam's doorstep.

The political bosses can fool some of the people most of the time but they can fool Theodore Roosevelt nearly all the time.

Former President Taft will support Charles E. Hughes for President. Perhaps he can deliver the vote of Utah and Vermont.

Possibly Mexico thinks it gave so many concessions to American corporations that it has none for the American Government.

However, there is no need to suppose that progressivism will disappear entirely from politics with the dissolution of the moose party.

Mr. Hughes dictated to his Stenographer between strokes on the golf links the other day. He must be bidding for the votes of the efficiency experts.

The Hook and Ladder wagon is under construction at the present time by Sload Brothers and will be completed in the very near future.

It was found that a small balance remains unpaid on the equipment and house and it was decided to hold a festival to raise this money.

The date set for the festival is Saturday evening, August 19 in the Maytown Band Hall. The committee appointed to arrange for the festival are Ralph Shireman, John Henderson, George Huntzinger, Charles Straley and Geo. Sload.

Proceeding the festival, the Company will hold a street parade in which will be seen the fire pump, hook and ladder wagon and equipment. All members of the Company are urged to be in line. The Citizens Band will furnish the music in the parade and at the festival.

The annual picnic of the Sunday schools of Maytown will be held on Wednesday, August 9, at Chickies Park along the Susquehanna river.

Teams will be in the Maytown Square at 7 a. m. to convey the picnicers from Maytown to Marietta, where trolley cars will be in waiting to take the pleasure seekers to the Park. The committee from the three schools consist of the following: Miss A. B. Welshans, Geo. Houseal, Mrs. Chas. C. Hicks, Raymond Blessing, John Fletcher, Irvin Fehr, Oscar Shank and William Glattacker. The committee are arranging for two programs for the day, the one to consist of contests, such as shot put, bear race, three-legged race, married men race, peanut scramble, watermelon eating contest, bottle tug, apple eating contest, and peanut race. The other program will be given in the pavilion and will consist of music, recitations, readings and singing. As has been the custom for a number of years the friends of the schools, both in the town and community, as well as in the surrounding country are invited to the park for the day.

Rev. Prof. William J. Hinkle, Ph. D. of Auburn, N. Y., and Rev. John Bear Stoudt, of Northampton, Pa., spent a few days with Rev. and Mrs. William J. Lowe. Dr. Hinkle and Rev. Stoudt occupied the pulpit on Saturday in the Maytown Reformed church. Dr. Hinkle, who is considered the greatest authority on early church history in this country, visited this section for the purpose of seeking historical data relating to the Donegal Reformed church which was founded in 1749 and located near Milton Grove. The Maytown Reformed church and Blaser's Reformed church, now Christ Reformed church, of Elizabethtown, are the outgrowth of this old Donegal church. The trip to Milton Grove was made in automobile by John Mumma, Rev. N. J. Miller, Rev. William J. Lowe, Dr. William J. Hinkle and Rev. John B. Stoudt. The data which is being gathered relating to the Reformed churches founded prior to 1750 will soon be published by Revs. Hinkle and Stoudt under the title, "The Life and Letters of Rev. John Philip Boehme."
