No More Empty Farms—Crop Rotation Pays—Newspapers Help Agents—Soldiers Eat 12000 Tons of Food Daily—Soil Fertility Pledge

No More Empty Farms
A few years ago the abandoned farms of New England caused a good deal of talk. Some states prepared lists of such properties for the purpose of getting owners or tenants for these farms, and some other states that hadn't any abandoned farms but didn't want to be out of style produced lists of farms which could be had. We recall that the first farm listed in the Pennsylvania bulletin was priced at $400 an acre—terms cash. Even Ohio has given owners of farms free publicity which it denies to the owners of other property, and probably other states have done so too. Now comes the States Board of Agriculture of Connecticut and says that the abandoned farm no longer exists there. By real farmers or back-to-landers the farms have all been occupied, and doubtless among them some lands which should never have been farms. With the passing of the abandoned farm has come a subsidence of bank to the land talk. Many persons who lacked capital, experience, knowledge and about everything that goes to make successful farmers have been fooled to the land to their subsequent sorrow. And they have been fooled to the land to some additions to their store of experience but not to their capital.—National Stockman and Farmer.

Crop Rotation Pays
The value of crop rotation in maintaining soil fertility is shown by wheat yields at the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster. Where unfertilized wheat has been grown continuously, year after year, it has yielded only 7 1/2 bushels per acre, as an average for 20 years. By growing the crop in a 5-year rotation of corn, oats, wheat, clover, and timothy, this yield has been increased 42 percent. In a 3-year rotation of corn, wheat and clover, a gain of 50 percent in yield has been realized.

On manured land wheat in continuous culture has yielded less than 18 bushels per acre. In the 5-year rotation it has given 22 bushels per acre where manure has been applied to this crop, and in the 3-year rotation wheat following manured corn, the wheat itself receiving no manure, has averaged 20 bushels per acre.—Ohio Farmer.

Newspapers Help Agents
That county newspapers are interested in the work of county improvement associations was brought out at the conference of the county agricultural agents of Ohio recently. Practically every newspaper in the state consistently helped the agents in his locality to promote farm bureau activities. In many instances the county agents are on the regular "beats" of the news reporters. Other papers have their county agents prepare several columns weekly on agricultural topics.

Soldiers Eat Twelve Thousand Tons of Food Daily
"Barely enough wheat for home consumption" is the beginning of the report on the 1916 wheat crop by the bureau of crop estimates. The same report states that the condition of the spring wheat is only 48.6 percent normal. The forecast yield is 8.8 bushels per acre. The condition of the corn crop Sept. 1 was 71.3 percent normal, and the forecast of yield is given as 24.9 bushels per acre. The Washington Star estimates the daily rations of the soldiers in the European War as 12,000 tons per day. The American farmers are being called upon to furnish part of the enormous amount of food needed by the soldiers. High prices for farm products make greater production per acre more profitable than ever.

The Soil Fertility Pledge
To do my share toward maintaining and increasing the fertility of the soil and thereby assisting in carrying on and increasing the prosperity of the great basic industry of the world, I will endeavor at all times and in every practical way to conduct my business of farming so that my grain fields, my pastures, my orchard and my garden lands will increase in production and will be able to return to succeeding owners who practice similar methods as profitable or more profitable yields. I pledge my word and engage to perform, to the best of my ability and understanding. And in so doing, I will not be making a sacrifice, for I know that by keeping faith with future generations, I will be bringing about greater present production, increasing land values and more profitable returns per acre.

A Rest is Good for Pastures Too
It works well to divide pastures and turn the herd in on alternate days, or other periods, giving the grass a fresh start. This system can also be made to furnish more variety to the herd. Pastures should not be allowed to become stale or unproductive, but should be broken up and reseeded as often as necessary. Rotation applies to pastures as well as to other crops. Pastures will stand fertilizing and permanent pastures, especially, require regular re-dressing, and liming to bring them to normal acidity.

SHOT HOLE IN TIRE

York Policeman Makes Joy Riders Stop Auto Truck
Motorcycle officer Carson Linebaugh, of York, shot a bullet through one of the front tires of an auto truck when the driver refused to stop Wednesday evening. The tire blew up. The truck turned over and Simpson Ruth, aged 50, of Terre Hill, Lancaster county, is in the York hospital with severe injuries to his back, while Granville Shay, aged 26, of Lancaster, has a severely cut forehead. John P. Moore, aged 26, of Lancaster, has cuts on the head and is in the York lockup, while the driver, named Gilmore and William Goff, both of Lancaster, are being hunted by the police. They escaped when the machine was wrecked. Gilmore had been driving the truck in Lancaster and gathered up the other men for a joy ride to York. Elmer Eshleman, of Lancaster, owner of the truck, notified the York police that it had been stolen. After the five men were arrested Gilmore put on all power and the machine darted toward Lancaster with the men on board, but the chase ended at the motor club when the tire exploded.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Mount Joy
No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.
When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Mount Joy woman tell of her experience.
Mrs. Jacob Childs, Mount Joy street, Mount Joy, says: "I had been suffering for a long time from terrible pains in my back, just over my hips. Headaches and dizziness were very frequent with me. My kidneys acted too often at night and broke my rest so that in the morning, I felt all tired out. I was told of Doan's Kidney Pills and got some. From the first they helped me and finally I was completely cured of the trouble. I now feel like a different woman."
