DIFFERENT MAIL ARRANGEMENTS

HEREAFTER THE MOUNT JOY POST OFFICE WILL BE OPEN EVERY EVENING UNTIL 7:45

You are all aware that the evening mail service here has been very unsatisfactory since the recent new schedule went into effect on the Pennsylvania Railroad but it now seems as though a partial remedy has been made.

We have been receiving our evening mail, that is first-class, on the 6:55 train which does not stop here and every few days a mail bag and its contents were cut to pieces because the trainman despatching the pouch could not see the mail chute on account of darkness. We would then receive the balance of an evening mail on No. 5575 which stops here at 7:02.

A new arrangement went into effect here Monday whereby all mail west in the evening will be received on the 7:02 train which stops. The thru train at 6:55 will however take all first-class or catch mail as heretofore and the balance of the mail will be sent on the train stopping here. This, we feel certain, will be far more satisfactory.

Another new feature inaugurated by Postmaster Greider is the fact that the post office will remain open every evening until 7:45 p. m. This will be a great accommodation to the patrons. The post office is open daily at 6 a. m. same as it was during Postmaster Fenstermacher's term, but many are not aware of this fact. The post office hours on legal holidays are as follows 6 to 8:30 a. m. and 5:30 to 7:45 p. m.

This is one of the finest lots of stock he has shipped for some time. He will also have some cattle for heaves and a few shoats.

A Carload of Washers

Mr. H. S. Newcomer, the local agent for the well known Grinnell washer, received one carload of 106 of these machines last week and has already sold half of them. ## WAS FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Man Believed to Have Been Robbed and Badly Beaten

Insensible from several deep cuts on his head and with his watch, money and railroad pass missing, James Friel, aged twenty-seven years of Harrisburg, was found on Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock near Rheems station, lying along the tracks, by a passing autoist. He was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital and has not regained consciousness. His skull is fractured and his condition is critical.

Friel came to Lancaster after attending a foot ball game at Harrisburg in the afternoon. When he left Harrisburg he had but a small sum of money on his person, also a watch and his railroad pass. He is employed by the Pennsylvania railroad as a machinist.

No evidence is obtainable to show that he was the victim of thugs. The clothing bore no signs of his having fallen off a train, nor were there any marks around the place where he was found to indicate a struggle. The young man's clothing was torn only at one knee, according to the Harrisburg authorities, which leads to the belief that he was knocked down and had struggled with assailants before receiving the blow which rendered him unconscious.

The Harrisburg police are working on the theory that he was robbed in Lancaster and then brought to the point where he was found by the autoist. Only seven cents were in his pockets when searched at the hospital.
