OF HISTORIC INTEREST

Local and Rural Residents Supplied Timber Many Years Ago

Thursday's issue of the Lancaster Daily Examiner contained the following of local interest:

"It is a matter of historic interest to know where the timber came from for the spire of Old Trinity Lutheran church. Just after the Revolutionary War Samuel Nissley settled on a large tract of land in Rapho township, near Sporting Hill, which was heavily timbered. This Man Was "Hit"

While returning home from Elizabethtown the other evening, Mr. P. Frank Schock had an unusual experience. He was rolling along at an ordinary rate of speed in his auto when all of a sudden he saw a man lying on the pike directly in front of his car. He turned his machine very suddenly and stopped to investigate. When he saw the man lying there he was at first scared, thinking he had hit him, but after an investigation found that the unfortunate man had been hit and hard at that but not by an auto. John Barleycorn had knocked him out for fair and he had two full quarts of the juice in his pockets to go on. A team then came along, knew the fellow and took him

MT. JOY TO BE SHOWN IN MOVIES

OUR INDUSTRIES, BUSINESS PLACES AND OUR PEOPLE TO BE REPRODUCED ON THE SCREEN AT THE GARDEN NEXT TUESDAY

Something every unusual and out of the ordinary will be Mount Joy in Movies at Mr. J. A. Bishop's evening.

Mr. Bishop has engaged the services of an expert photographer who will come here on Saturday of this week. He will take photographs of the various industries, business places, churches, and our people. The photos will be developed and then reproduced at the Garden Theatre here on Tuesday evening.

This is something entirely new for this town and every man, woman and child should see this show as I will prove very interesting.

Show your appreciation for your home town when a man goes to this expense by attending this show.
