WEEKLY ARTICLES WRITTEN EXPRESSLY FOR THE MT. JOY BULLETIN BY DR. DAVID H. REEDER OF CHICAGO, ILL.

The benefit of right Thinking: One of the least regarded and yet the best of biblical sayings is the one I have so often quoted, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." You cannot constantly talk about and think about your physical well being with fear in your heart and keep well. You cannot constantly think health, talk health and believe in your heart that you have health and keep sick.

At a recent meeting of the American Association of Progressive Medicine, I listened patiently to two long technical papers, one of them by a young German scientist, telling all about the actions of certain very interesting germs and what they do to the poor little rabbits and guinea pigs and the other by a very ambitious American scientist, telling of his interesting experiments with non-toxic virus vaccines. The presiding physician. That he no longer found it necessary to use medicine or surgery in many cases and many times when he did use either, it was for the psychic effect.

Here is a paragraph from Edward B. Warman's article in the December Nautilus:
"There is nothing in this world more convincing than the practical demonstration of one's theory. Work of some kind for both body and mind, is a strong factor toward attaining long life.
A man in one of the Eastern states, a farm hand, rounded out the celebration of his one hundred and fourth birthday anniversary by eating a half section of a juicy cherry pie. But when you read the record of the amount of work he does daily, you will quite agree with me that he could have eaten the whole pie without any ill effect.
Here is his daily program at 104 years of age: 4 a. m., gets up; 4:15, feed the horses; 4:25, start the milking; 5:30, breakfast; 5:45, curdy the horses; 6 o'clock, hook up for the milk train, plow or take out a load of hay; 8:10, chores; 12 o'clock, knock off for dinner; 1 p. m. fix wagon and other odd jobs; 4 o'clock take the cows in to be milked; 5 o'clock, clean the horses; 6 o'clock, supper; 6:30 o'clock, loaf around; 9 o'clock, go to bed.
Evidently he is not an I. W. W. for he has held his present job for 81 years and, what is still more to his credit, he says he has never tired of his job. Surely it is not work but worry that kills."
I presume most of you have heard of Captain Diamond who died recently in California at the age of 118 years. I remember telling you something about him when he was 111 years, and we thought he was pretty old then.
Keep smiling, cheerful, don't worry, don't overeat. Keep clean, keep faith in God and in yourself and you will win health, happiness and long life.

At the meeting of the Marietta Borough Council it was decided to pay the bill of J. A. Stultz for damages incurred to his automobile while driving through town several months ago, the accident being caused by a plumber leaving a huge pile of earth across the street. The clerk was instructed to notify J. A. Hipple, solicitor, to proceed with a suit against the Columbia Telephone Company for pole taxes that are due for some time. Thirty wooden signs to name the streets will be secured and placed at the most prominent places.

Mrs. M. E. McCloskey, proprietress of the Wike Pharmacy, Marietta, has in course of construction a new drug store, having purchased from the Sterrett estate the large three-story dwelling on Market street, Marietta, adjacent to the present store. When completed it will be one of the finest drug stores to be found anywhere.

Some time this week street signs will be placed on houses in several parts of Marietta in order that visitors to that borough will be able to know the different streets. As soon as the streets are named and houses numbered, Marietta will get city delivery of mail. Elbow Lane, the dividing line, will hereafter be known as Waterford street. Intersecting streets will run east and west from that point.
