AN AGED MAN HANGS HIMSELF

WILLIAM RICE, OF NEAR UNION SQUARE, COMMITTED SUI-CIDE ON SATURDAY-AS SEVENTY-THREE YEARS OLD

Saturday morning there was a suicide near Union Square, Rapho township when William Rice, a well-known farmer, took his life. He lived on a farm and he hanged himself in his barn. He arose early and did some work about the place and hitched up a team. How soon after doing this he committed suicide is not known, but about seven is not known, but about seven o'clock his wife went to the barn and found him hanging there. He had used a piece of rope, which he attached to a joist, and life was extinct when the body was found. She gave the alarm and when assistance arrived the body was cut down and arrived the body was cut down and taken to the house where Deputy Coroner Stroh and Dr. Hershey of Manheim, made an investigation and decided it was a case of suicide.

Manheim, made an investigation and decided it was a case of suicide.

Mr. Rice was about seventy-three years of age, and what prompted him to take his life is not known. He had been in his usual jovial mood on Friday and also when he arose that morning. He had not been melancholy, as he appeared to worry about nothing, although he had complained lately that he could not get help on his farm. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Philip, of Manheim; Harry, of. Mastersonville; William, of Sporting Hill; Sadie, at home, and Mrs. Samuel Pfautz, of Manheim. One sister also survives, Mary, who lived with Mr. Rice. The funeral services were held on Tuesday morning at his late home at 9:30 o'clock and in the Mastersonville Church of the Brethren at 10 o'clock. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

RED CROSS WORK-ERS ARE BUSY

THIRTY - FOUR INDUSTRIOUS MEMBERS GATHERED LAST WEDNESDAY AND GREAT-LY INCREASED THE LIST OF FINISHED ARTICLES.

Work was continued on the hospital supplies on Wednesday, last, when thirty-four of the Red Cross workers gathered around the various tables and at the sewing machines in the Council Chamber, and at five o'clock a number of pieces were added to the list of finished articles.

Messrs. H. M. Stauffer, Charles Ricksecker and Henry Sumpman. Upon motion, which carried by a vote of three to one, Mr. Nissly was granted permission to connect with the boro's main, he to pay all expenses, put in a meter and pay six cents per thousand gallons. The matter is now in the hands of Burgess Geo. H. Brown for his approval.

Not a Snake Story

For the past few years, workmen on the farm of Benjamin Brubaker, at Strickler's meeting house, as an unusually large snake hide that was shed by a monster reptile and while working in the fields Thursday, Mr. Brubaker's two sons, Levi and Paris, saw the snake. They killed it and brought it to town. It was the largest black snake ever seen around here and measured within three inches of five feet in length.

O'clock a number of pieces were added to the list of finished articles. Again an invitation was extended to all who may not be able to join the organization at this time, to come and help with the work whenever it is possible to give a Wednesday afternoon to this noble cause. Many women of the town feel they should like to supply a "comfort bag" for a young man entering the Army or Navy. The idea of seeing every young man thus equipped, was taken up at this meeting and the desire expressed to permit no soldier or sailor to leave Mount Joy without being thus remembered by some one.

You may know some particular person for whom you should like to make and fill a "comfort bag." If so will you notify some member of the Red Cross Auxiliary? Or you may desire to supply some of the (Continued on page 5)
