THE MOUNT JOY BULLETIN

VOLUME XV11. NO. 18

Mount Joy, Penna., Wednesday, October 3rd, 1917

MAYTOWN IS HAVING

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

RECORDINGS

THE MARKET ST. ORDINANCE PASSED

COUNCIL ENDORSES POSTMAS-TER J. WILLIS FREED'S EF-FORT FOR MAIL DE-LIVERY IN MOUNT JOY

The regular monthly meeting of our Boro Council was held Monday evening and there was but one ab-sentee in Mr. Keener. The minutes of the last meeting were approved. For Mail Delivery

The Clerk read a communication om Postmaster Freed asking from Council's support and encourage-ment for village carrier service. Council was asked to provide good sidewalks, street names and house numbers. The Property committee was instructed to ascertain the cost of markers and numbers and report of markers and numbers and report at the next meeting. A motion was also passed endorsing the movement.

Burgess' Report Burgess Brown reported collec-tions to the amount of $93.45 for the past month.

ton. Pa.

Street Committee Mr. Gable reported Main street completed as far west as the Washington House. Gave Geo. Brown Sons permission to put down steps (Continued on page 5)

LET EVERYBODY HELP THE RED CROSS SOCIETY

Here is an opportunity to dispose of your "White Elephant." Bring it to the Social for the Benefit of the Red Cross Society. On October Twelfth, Columbus Day, About eight o'clock please wend your way

To the hall. not come with empty hand

But bring for the boys of our land A gift of money, not too small. That this social may be gay Bring something you had thrown away

Thinking it useless; Wrap it in paper to hide its name And exchange with another in the game Open the pack and if it does not please, Re-wrap and another quickly seize

In exchange for yours. These gifts are called "White Ele-phants" And when the bell peals forth, at once

You must cease giving; Keep the "Elephant" that you hold Even if its not worth its weight in gold Be thankful its not living. Be sure to come and enjoy the fun The readings, the music, the drama,

ALL DUNKARDS WILL BE THE DOINGS SATISFIED WITH DECISION Members of the Dunkard faith in

Members of the Dunkard faith in Lancaster County and other sections will enter the army and fight if President Wilson so decrees, accord-ing to a agreement made by Rev. H. K. Ober, of the Elizabethtown Col-lege. This fact made it plain that only passive resistance would be of-fered by the Church of the Brethren or Dunkards to the matter of active service in army. Mr. Ober and a committee of other church men visit-d camp Meade in Maryland on scientious Objectors" of members of the "Plain" sects from this section of Pennsylvania who have been segregated at the camp by orders of the War Department. They also visited other men from the state who are in this camp. Mr. Ober, who was spokesman for the group, was accompanied by Bis-ton L W Taylor of the Dunkarde

AROUND FLORIN

Lester spent Sunday at Gainsburg. Mr. Wm. Eichler of Harrisburg,

Mr. Ober, who was spokesman for the group, was accompanied by Bis-hop I. W. Taylor, of the Dunkards, who has charge of the Old Folks' Home and Orphanage, at Neffsville, this county, and Bishop C. N. Hos-tetter, General Secretary of the Conference of the Brethren in Christ, an affiliated church. Bishop Hostetter is a resident of Washing-ton, Pa. Mr. Wm. Eichler of Harrisburg, spent Monday at his parental home. Mr. P. G. Shelly cut a bad gash in his right hand with a piece of glass. There will be no services in the United Brethren church on Sunday. Miss Nellie Vogle of Elizabeth-town, spent Friday at her parental home nome

Mr. John Stehman moved into the Milk Goes Up Messrs. B. F. Kauffman and Jacob Stauffer, our local dairymen, raised the price of milk from 8 to 10 cents Raymond property vacated by John Heisey. Mr. John Heisey moved his family and household effects to Lebanon, a quart on Monday. Jacob Brown delivers, who sells quite a lot of milk

Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reheard an-nounce the birth of a daughter on thruout the town, charges 8 cents a quart and the Farmers Creamery sells it for 7 cents a quart.

Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Eichler an-nounce the arrival of a daughter on Wednesday. Miss Miriam Guhl spent Sunday at East Petersburg, with her sister, Mrs.

ohn Ferry. Mrs. Maud Carl of Elizabethtown, F. E. HERSHEY IS John was a Sunday visitor to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shires.

Misses Hazel and Ethel Dunkel of

AN ALL DAY MEETING WILL BE HELD IN THE U. B. CHURCH West is spending some time here with his mother, Mrs. Mary Habecker. Miss Ruth Dyer of Hershey spent tian Endeavor Convention of Lancas-ter County will be held in the United Brethren church at Florin, on Thurs-

Anss Ruth Dyer of Hershey Spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dyer. The Washington School defeated the Florin Primary School in a game of base ball on Friday. Score 37 to day, Oct. 11, with a morning, after-noon and evening session. The com-plete program follows: Mrs. John Groff and son Wilbur of Elizabethtown, were Thursday visitors to Mr. Joseph Heisey and family. Miss Elizabeth Musselman of Harrisburg, spent Tuesday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Musselman.

Be sure to come and enjoy the fun The readings, the music, the drama, each one. The Red Cross invites you to help the boy Who may have been called from your own town, Mount Joy. DEALERS ARE BUSY BUYING 1917 TOBACCO The tobacco dealers in this section have started to buy the 1917 crop and there is every indication that the growers will get a fair price, es-price, es-each one. The Red Cross invites you to help the boy Who may have been called from your own town, Mount Joy. DEALERS ARE BUSY BUYING 1917 TOBACCO The tobacco dealers in this section have started to buy the 1917 crop and there is every indication that the growers will get a fair price, es-price, es-BUSING 1917 TOBACCO the purchase of magazines for the Men Should Wear Muzzles

Adjudications Filed

Gave a Birthday Setout

Mr. Benjamin Groff, the popular ocal athletic manager, entertained a umber of his friends at a setout at

Our

OUR WEEKLY ANOTHER CHAUTAUQUA The first number of the Maytown Chautauqua for this winter will be held in the Maytown band hall, Maytown, on Saturday evening, October 13, and will be given by a male quartet called the Harmony Glee Club. They will give a musical, singing and comedy entertainment of PERSONAL MENTION ABOUT THE MANY COMERS AND GOERS the very best, as this is their sixth year in the business and there are ay at Wild Cat. Mrs. Sallie Hershey spent Saturnone better. The Chautauqua Association will give five high-class entertainments Mrs. Salie Hersney spent Satur-day at Elizabethtown. Mr. J. B. Zeller of Lancaster, called on relatives here on Saturday. Mrs. Ella Stauffer of Elizabeth-town, visited friends here yesterday. Mrs. Irvin Geistweit and two daughters spent Thursday at Lancas-tar

National Statistics of the series of the

TRUANT, OFFICER

Misses Hazel and Ethel Dunkel of Harrisburg, visited friends in our village Sunday. Misses Miriam Guhl, Mary Arndt and Mary Dyer spent last Thursday at the Carlisle Fair. Mr. Joseph Habecker from the Wart is spanding some time hare with GET USE OF GYM

*The School Board met in regular session Monday evening with all the members present. The problem of getting pupils to attend school regularly was discussed at length after which Mr. Frank E. Hershey was town.

Mrs. Millard Foltz.

Mrs. Millard Foltz. Mrs. Walter Flaherty of Philadel delphia returned home after spend-ing three weeks here with her aunt, Mrs. Mame E. Kover.

Edward M. Williams, Manheim.

present pastor, was placed in nomin-TODAY FOR CAMP MEADE tion as the choice as pastor for an-

OF THE PAST WEEK OUR MORTUARY On Saturday afternoon Mr. An-drew Zercher. offered his fine farm south of here, at public sale. It was withdrawn at $171.85 per acre. The small 13-acre farm of Mrs. Henry K. Brandt at Elstonville was offered at public sale last Thursday and was withdrawn for want of bidders.

REAL ESTATE DOINGS

MANY WELL KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Mrs. Alexander C. Groome died at olumbia yesterday aged 32 years. ders. The Eshleman homestead near Vesta furnace, at the lower end of Marietta, was sold at public sale last Wednesday for the heirs of the cottote.

Lewis F. Zollinger died at the ome of his daughter at Columbia

Mrs. Katie Landis died Thursday evening at the Brethren Home, Neffsville, in her 77th year.

Emily D., 3-year-old daughter of Abram Sload of East Petersburg, died Monday from typhoid fever.

Frederick Stoll, one of the oldest residents of Columbia, died yesterday aged 84 years. He formerly lived in Mrs. Margaret Markel, widow of Emanuel Markel, died at the home of her son in Columbia on Thursday in her 87th year.

Dorothy Mae Drain, aged eight months, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maze at Marietta.

Annie, wife of Harry Wissler, re-siding near the first toll gate on the Columbia and Ironville pike, died last week aged 63 years.

Mrs. Benj. F. Kautz

Mrs. Benj. F. Kautz Mrs. Eliza Kautz, nee Eliza Shaff-ner, formerly of Lancaster, died at Steelton. Annie, wife of Henry Heiser at Rheems is a daughter.

Joseph Gibson On Sunday night Mrs. Henry Wit-tle received a telegram telling of the death of her son-in-law, Mr. Joseph Gibson, due to typhoid fever in Homeland, Ga. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Emma Wittle Gibson and four children. The two oldest are also seriously ill with the same disease. He was buried Monday at Home-He was buried Monday at Homeland, Ga.

Mrs. Matilda Wisler Mrs. Matilda H., widow of the late Henry Wisler, died at her home, West Hempfield township, near Co-lumbia, Saturday, in her 79th year. Death was due to a complication of diseases, after an illness of six weeks. Mrs. Wisler is survived by two sons, Harry and Samuel, in West Hempfield, and four daughters Hempfield, and four daughters Elizabeth, Sarah, Emma and Minnie at home.

Mrs. Sadie Martin Mrs. Sadie Martin, wife of John H. Martin, died at her residence, in Elizabethtown, yesterday, aged thirty-four years. Her husband and infant daughter, Ruth, survive, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Hoffman, of Maytown and these sis-ters and brother: Mrs. Abram Engle, of Rowenna: Mrs. Edgar Engle, of of Rowenna; Mrs. Edgar Engle, of Newtown, and John H. Hoffman, of Maytown. The funeral services will when a young man. when a young man. Haytown. In turnsday morning at 9:30 o'clock, at the Brethren in Christ Church, at Elizabethtown.

bethtown visited Emory Warfel and family on Sunday. Mrs. Harry Brandt of Lancaster, visited her brother Harvey Greena-walt on Thursday. Miss Mary Patterson and Miss Anna Stauffer have returned from a trip to Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller of Al-toona, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Reist. Mr. John Hershey, wife and daughter of Hershey, spent Sunday in town with relatives. Mrs. Hickernell and Miss Cath-erine Seaman spent some time at

CARD BASKET

IN THIS LOCALITY

Merchant D. F. Gable spent Sun-

Mrs. Hickernell and Miss Cath-erine Seaman spent some time at Middletown visiting friends. Mrs. Anna Buller left today for Berwyn, where she will visit in the family of Dr. F. L. Richards. Mr. and Mrs. William Scholing visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Jacob Dables on Swidey near Fligheth The monthly meeting of Die Hausefrauen was held at the home of Mrs. Martin Moore, near here, on Saturday afternoon, and the ma-jority of the local members from Dabler on Sunday near Elizabethtown. Mr. Charles C. Hershey of Middle-town and daughter Grace Irene were Sunday visitors to Mr. and Mrs. F. Leiberher. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clay and Mrs. Mary Wood of Milton, Vt., are guests in the family of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Newnher.

which Mr. Frank E. Hershey was elected truant officer at a salary of 25 cents an hour while on duty. Sixteen persons will receive notice to have their children attend school. The Board adopted a line of music books for the High school and also the Seventh and Eighth Grades. Four dozen of these books were or-dered for the two grades and only one dozen for the High School, at the majority of the pupils prefer to buy their own books. The Boy Scouts were granted the first prize.

Lititz were present, going there in autos. Dr. Hannah McKlyons, of Lincoln University, was present and spoke on "Efficiency in Home Mak-Joe's Birds Won

The first autumnal race of the olumbia Branch of the American Racing Pigeon Union was held from Manassas, Va., Sunday. The dis-tance from there to Columbia is 100 miles. Fifty-one birds were liberated and Joseph Bard, of Ironville won

Die Hausefrauen Met

Oscar Is Making Good At the annual meeting of the con-gregation of the Church of God, Middletown, the Rev. O. M. Kraybill, (Continued on page 5) the Scout Master. There were 419 pupils enrolled the past month and the percentage of attendance was 96. This was the re-port of Principal Mylin. Upon motion $10 was donated for the purchase of megazines for the

J. J. Newpher. Helen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haines, is spending some time at Elizabethtown with her aunt, growers will get a fair price, es-pecially when they begin buying as early as October 1st. As a rule when one buys, all who want tobac-co get busy about the same time. We ave learned of these sales thus far: Jacob Haldeman of near Milton Grove sold his crop to Mr. Frank Emswiler for 18, 10 and 5 cents.

Messrs. Abram and Harvey Young Mount Joy township sold their Mount Joy entire crops to Mr. Herr at 20 and cents. Amos Good 'sold his crop to J. E. Longenecker at 20 and 10 cents.

Jacob Fry sold his tobacco to G. Moyer of Mount Joy at 20 and 10

Flittings Harry Dyer moved from the P.R. R. property on West Donegal street, Lancaster.

Mrs. Amos Gantz moved from the Eckhardt property on Lumber street, to Lancaster. Emory Warfel moved into the Eckhardt property on Lumber street, vacated by Mrs. Amos Gantz. Harry Seaman moved from the H. C. Schock property on West Main, to the Grogg property vacated by Mr. Warfel.

Mr. Warfel.

Frank & Bros.' Next Sale On Friday, October 5, C. S. Frank & Bro. will offer 65 head of New York State and Perry County cows, bulls, heifers, steers, cattle for beeves and shoats at public sale at the stock yards at Hotel McGinnis, in this place. Among this lot are a few good registered young Holstein cows 4 years old and with which pa-pers will be furnished on day of sale.

Filling Government Orders The Lancaster Foundry Company, at Marietta, is filling a large order caster to the camp. for the Government, comprising a number of parts for hospital beds to be sent to France. Day and night shifts are working.

Off on His Vacation Mr. Jno. H. Stoll, the obliging tick agent at the P. R. R. station, today on a very deserving vacatica During his absence Mr. Handwork, of Lancaster, will have charge.

Looking for a Scout Master There is a vacancy for the office of Scout Master for our Boy Scouts since H. J. Williams moved out of had charge of "Cap" town. Scouts ever since their organization.

Healthy and Happy at 81 I Wonder Why? Out of about ten thousand growers there were only sixteen competitors who exhibited tobacco at the County Fair last week.

day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bates. 4:15.Evening Session

THE 28TH ANNUAL

AT FLORIN ON THURS-DAY, OCT. 11

C. E. CONVENTION

twenty-eighth annual Chris-

A number of town folks are at-tending the United Brethren Con-7:30 Praise Service, Prof. H. J. A nu Taylor; Devotion, The Pastor; 8:00 Address, Rev. Wilmer L. Gray, Co-ference lumbia.

Who Is This On?

On Saturday night several young men happened to be in the vicinity of a farm near town when they heard chickens make a noise. They hurridly came to town and asked High Constable Christian Horst to accompany them and catch the thief. The four in an auto quickly went to the farm, heard the noise and surrounded the hen coop while he constable swooped down on the thief." Much to big A report has just reached here that a man in Pittsburg actually the "thief." Much to his surprise he found the farmer catching his own chewed off both his wife's ears. advice to the ladies is simply this chickens.

Company Needs a Chief friendly. Having moved out of town, the office of chief of the Fire Depart-ment is vacant. Friendship Fire too may bite. Company meets Thursday evening and it is quite likely that said va-cancy will be filled. Assistant C. N. Mumma is now acting.

Big Tobacco Deal A tobacco deal that included the sale of 2,900 cases of 1916 wrap-pers at an amount said to be about 2200 000 wrap consummeted at Len-$300,000, was consummated at Lancaster last week. It was bought by the Imperial Tobacco Company of London, England.

58 Leave Today Today another allotment of draft ed men leave for Camp Meade, Md. There are fifty-eight from the four districts and among them is Mr. Harvey Sheaffer of this place, who has charge of the men from Lan-Harry H. Gochnauer's Central House on Friday evening, the occasion being 2 his birthday. A Rare Musical Treat A grand treat in the form of a musical entertainment will be fur-nished by the famous Choral Union, Bank Increases Surplus The Exchange National Bank, at Marietta, one of the oldest insti-tutions in the county, raised the of Harrisburg, in the Church of God at Bainbridge, on Thursday, Octo-ber 4th at 7:45 p. m. amount of its surplus from $100,000

Moving to Maryland Mr. Morris Ressler will move to Hagerstown, Md., the latter part of this week, where he will reside in the future. He occupies the J. G. Metz-gar property on Mount Joy street. At Butler This Week The state firemen's convention is being held at Butler, Pa., this week. Friendship Fire company is not Friendship represented this year.

90 Cents a Bushel at of A dealer shipped a carload of po-our tatoes from Manheim last week. He They Surely Want It Over 10,000 men signed the peti-tion to abolish the toll roads in this paid the farmers 90 cents a bushel for them.

to $125.000.

highways.

Closed on Sunday The eighth annual closing party was held at the Wild Cat Club house, opposite Marietta, on Sunday by Proprietor Resch, of the resort.

ood evidence that people want free

Mr. Elmer Heisey purchased a Ford Touring car from the local dealer, Mr. H. S. Newcomer.

use of the sch A number of bills were paid and the Board adjourned.

The Boy Scouts were granted the use of the gymnasium every Thurs-day evening under the supervision of the Scout Master.

Friday's Boxing Show The management of the foot ball ference being held at Annville this week. Bishop W. M. Bell, D.D.,L.L.D., will preside. Election of new super-Joy Hall Friday evening. The crowd was slim but the show pleased those present. "Dutch" Garman and "Buff" Dearbeck opened with a four round bout, honors being slightly in favor of the latter. Sammy Kollor of this place was too fost for intendent and other important busi-ness will be transacted Mess will be transacted Mrs. Samuel Spickler and, son and grandson of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kipple and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Shires of Mount Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shires of Lancaster, Keller of this place, was too fast for Young Collins of Florin at the end of the third round. "Rube" Bennett spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eichler. "Finnegan" Kramer split even ne semi, while "Fighting Ben" and in the semi, while "Fighting Ben" Groff and Kid Ellis furnished ample amusement in the windup.

A 16-ft. Corn Stalk We frequently see corn stalks that grow very tall but we doubt whether f your beau insists on getting real riendly, he needs watching or he any one has ever seen a sweet corn stalk as high as the one brought to this office Thursday by Constable and Auctioneer George S. Vogle of Flor-in. It was raised in his lot, has two Yours for the Asking Mr. Donald W. Kramer, of this place, who is deeply interested in re-plenishing our food shortage, has 1,000 red raspberry plants that he will give away, absolutely free, to any one that calls for them. this office Thursda, Auctioneer George in. It was raised large ears of cor sixteen feet high. Strickler Haul Mr. Harry Ressi corn and is exactly

Strickler Hauls the Freight

Mr. Harry Ressler, who has been hauling freight from the P. R. R. station for many years, discontinued These adjudications were filed in the business Saturday. Mr. Albert the Orphans' Court last week: Lizzie, Strickler, the east end coal dealer, Mr. Albert succeeds Mr. Ressler and went on duty Monday. Al has an auto truck and can hustle it out in a hurry. G. Greiner, East Donegal township, G. Greiner, East Donegal township, $1,224.31; Kate L. Ferry, Mount Joy, $276.36; Henry Dimeler, Conoy, $6,629.04; Marie Hoffman, Mt. Joy, $5,045.36.

Ream's Next Sale I. Ream will hold his next Keam's Next Sale Mr. Ed. Ream will hold his next public sale at his stables here on Sat-urday, Oct. 6, when he will sell an express load of Ohio horses and colts. This is one of the best lots of horses he ever shipped. They range from 2 to 8 year olds and consist of 2t workers and drivers.

Now in Detroit Mow in Detroit Mr. Charles Scheimer of this place, who enlisted in the officers training camp and was stationed at Fort Ogle-thorp, Ga. has withdrawn and is now visit to friends at Detroit.

Mich He was in town a short time on Monday.

Cleon Greider's Sale Cleon Greider's Sale On Wednesday, Oct. 10, Cleon Greider will sell a carload of Mifflin County cows at public sale at the stock yards at Hotel McGinnis, in this place. Also an extra fine thoroughbred Holstein bull.

county at the Fair last week. That's It's Hard to Believe With hogs selling at 20 cents and calves at 14, Lancaster butchers claim they can't make any money, even at the present high selling prices of meat. That's Quite a Record

The stock yards at Lancaster, broke all records on Monday when 335 carloads of feeders arrived there. Last Monday 245 cars were there. received.

other year, and The men who left for Camp Meade this morning at 10:45 o'clock in charge of Harvey D. Sheaffer of this place, are as follows:

Omar R. Barnhart, Elizabethtown Harvey D. Sheaffer, Mount Joy. Will be Some Job When the measure requiring in-ventories of all liquor and tobacco Howard S. Stamm, Mountville. George F. Strohm, Marietta. Ellsworth M. McMullen, Marietta. stock becomes a law, every gauger in the Ninth District will have his hands full. Over 1,400 retail liquor Ellsworth M. McMullen, Marletta. Francis Boyer, Manheim. Samuel M. Rettew, Marietta. John H. McLain, Marietta. Bernhard Weber, R. 1, Columbia. Stephen Simmons, R. 2, Mt. Joy. Lloyd P. Emswiller, Marietta. Fedward M. Williams. Manheim. lealers and between 6,000 and 7,000 dealers must be visited and their stock taken

"Andy" Used Good Judgment Andrew Boreman, of Bainbridge, while attempting to light a gasoline

while attempting to light a gasoline stove to get breakfast, was badly burned about the body when the fumes ignited his clothing. By car-rying the stove into the yard he saved the house from destruction.

A Solid Train of Trucks Sixty-six carloads of Packard auto

They "Smell" a Mouse

Shot Flickers and Doves

Edward M. Williams, Manheim. Henry L. Haas, Marietta. Joseph F. Shillow, Marietta. Addison S. Miller, R. 2, Manheim. Thomas R. Thompson, Marietta. Robert L. Libhart, Marietta. Carl C. Blottenberger, Marietta. Harry Campbell, Marietta. Jacob S. Resh, Mountville. Samuel M. Bender, Landisville. William H. Ruby, Marietta. H. C. Smith, Manheim. John E. Bomberger, Manheim. rucks, two to each car, arrived at Iiddletown last week from Detroit, John E. Bomberger, Manheim. Charles P. Edwards, Mt. Hope. Frederick Frady, Marietta. Mich., to be stored at the aviation supply warehouse. Two new build-ings to be used as barracks have To Leave on Saturday

een begun.

On Saturday morning the follow-ng will be sent to Camp Meade from Licensed at Hagerstown John L. Schroll, and Miss Mary Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schneider, of this place, were granted a marriage license at Hag-erstown, Md., Sept. 27. They are now at home with the groom's mother on Mount Joy street. his district in charge of A. L. Resch of Marietta. Wayne H. Mayer, Marietta.

Paul H. Engle, Elizabethtown. Anthony L. Resch, Marietta. Edward Jezierski, No. 1, Columbia Henry B. Brandt, Maytown. Abraham W. Longenecker, No. 2, Lititz.

J. Christian Dalton, Manheim Harry L. Brubaker, Mount Joy. Abraham W. Heisey, E'town. Harry E. Hartzell, Elizabethtown

Keller & Bros.' Next Sale Keller & Bros.' Next Sale On Friday, Oct. 12, Messrs. J. B. Keller & Bro. will hold their next public sale at their stock yards in this place when they will sell 90 head of cows, heifers, bulls, cattle for beeves and stock cattle. On Tues-day morning, Oct. 9, they will have a carload of Erie Co. cows and a lot of good feeding cattle at private sale. 2

An Auto Mishap

Going to Camp Dix Mr. Samuel H. Miller, a former ieweler of this place, but who has been living at Salunga of late, will While Messrs. John Masterson and Peter McGarvey of Florin, were driving thru that village Thursday eave next week for Camp Dix, Ga. where he accepted a position on the evening, an autoist who refused to give his name, smashed into their electrical construction work of a government camp site.

Farmer Accidently Killed Abner M. Martin, a Manor town-ship farmer, fell thru a trapdoor in his barn while throwing down straw Monday night and was instantly

Mr. Simon Menaugh has accepted a position at the Rotary at Rheems. He went on duty Thursday. The family knew nothing of the accident until next morning.

$108.29 FOR THE LIBRARY WAR FUND

The above amount is Mount Joy's ontribution to Library War Fund. The campaign in Mount Joy was actively managed by Professor Ar-thur P. Mylin, who armed each pupil of our public schools with a peti-tion and subscription blank together with an infusion of enthusiasm. The school children canvassed every house in town and completed the canvass. in a few days, raising more than the $100 asked as Mount Joy's quota. Our boys and girls deserve credit for their interest and efficiency inmaking the canvass.

LOCAL NOTES

Mr. John H. Buohl is quite ill at his home on Poplar street. L. F. Jenkins of Conestoga Center, has a sweet-potato that is twenty-one inches long.

Among the teachers of Lancaster county now at work are 82 who have never taught before.

An auto was stolen at Lancaster Thursday but was found at Colum-bia and returned within two hours.

'Arm in a Shredder

Arm in a Shredder While assisting to fill a silo on the Shank farm near Kinderhook on Sat-urday, Mr. George S. Vogle of Flor-in, had the misfortune of having his right arm caught in the fodder shredder. The fleshy part of his hand and forearm were so badly torm that they required stitching Nineteen foreigners, among them number of Germans, applied to our of this place, but as his witnesses were not present he was not ex-amined. ourt to be naturalized on Saturday.

Drug Store Robbed H. Wilson Snyder's drug store at Bainbridge was broken into by a burglar or burglars and after putt-ing the place in disorder escaped with $25 to $30 taken from the cash perister and a small smouth of coins Game Protector Keen, of Chris-iana, has arrested several parties in and around Mountville for shooting flickers and doves, which are both protected by the law. A fine of ten dollars was imposed in each case. register and a small amount of coins from the telephone box, which was broken open. The store was entered through a rear widow, the thief or thieves breaking the shutter and window sash.

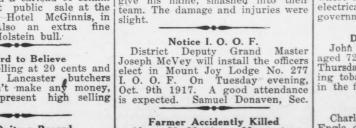

Former Mount Joyan Robbed

Robbers entered a number of houses at Harrisburg in the vicinity in which Gifford DeLong resides and his which Gillord Delong resides and his house was one of the places en-tered. Three watches and $9 in money were taken at the home of Mr. DeLong.

Auxiliary Meeting The Ladies' Auxiliary of the General Hospital will meet at the home of Mrs. Louisa Frank on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 11, at 2 o'clock.

Fish Every Friday Starting on Friday Harry Brooks will peddle fish and sea food thru town on Friday of each week.

It a Building Lot, a Fine Home, a Truck Farm, or a Large Farm, Located anywhere in this community, I can fix you up st to se' t from at prices to suit you. Drop me a card or phone and L will call e you. Jno. E. Schroll, Mount Ja killed.

ng tobacco when he fell over dead Case of Typhoid Charles Engle, son of Harvey C. Engle on West Donegal street, is quite ill with typhoid fever.

