HIS OWN STORY HOLDS A THRILL

WELL-KNOWN PITTSBURGER IS QUALIFIED TO SPEAK FOR MULTITUDE

E. C. Byers, of 347 Pear street, a well-known Pittsburgh butcher, says:

"I have constant spells of choking and coughing because of my nose and throat, which I eventually swallowed as I slept and which finally affected my stomach. I would wake four or five times a night because of the sensation. I finally did I ever get a night's rest."

"When I decided to take a remedy a friend said 'You will not make a mistake if you try Triac.' I believed him. I have used two bottles of Triac and it has helped me so much that I just want to tell every one what it had done for me. My catarrh has practically gone entirely. I sleep soundly and with my sense of taste and smell that were badly affected have improved wonderfully. My appetite, too, has come back and I feel like I could eat eight or nine times a day. The pain over my eyes and in other parts of my head has disappeared. I get up in the mornings with a clear head, and not all stuffed up and dizzy as formerly."

Triac is now sold here by W. D. Chandler & Co., where the Master Medicine can always be had.

RED CROSS NEWS

The Government is now allotting Red Cross workers specific war contracts for dressings. To deliver the work now many more women must be recruited at once for this urgent patriotic need.

Wounds are not healed with sea-weed dressings. We need workers. Are you mothers, wives, sisters or sweethearts of the boys of this town willing to rely on some one else for the dressings you may need. Why you work, do things which though necessary in ordinary times can be eliminated, that the war may be won? Are you willing, because of what you did not do, that the beautiful spiritus, that the following poem should father or fail.

The Red Cross Soldier Speaks I kneel behind the soldier's trench, I walk with shamless smear and stench
