The funeral was held privately at the Cochick farm on Monday, with interment in Bainbridge cemetery. His wife was confined to bed in the Cochick home last week suffering from influenza, and the family are very grateful to neighbors and friends who prepared food in their homes and sent it to the Cochick home to relieve the few who were left to nurse the sick and attend to the household duties.

YOU COUNT IN ONE WAY ONLY

Never, so much as now, has the individual counted for so little. Individual rights, individual privileges, individual responsibilities have given way to the greater consideration, the welfare of the people as a whole. For nations, not peoples or races, have taken in hand the destinies of the world. The individual has been prominently put aside. Whether liberty shall live or perish from the earth is for determination in the aggregate. It is not for any one man to say. But there is one way in which you can count. One way in which you may still make yourself felt throughout this storm-tossed world. You can make your little individual contribution to the cause of freedom, of world democracy, of permanent peace. You can buy a Liberty Bond. You may otherwise be subordinated, effaced, shunted into comparative oblivion and made to feel that you no longer count. But here you can take your place—you can buy Liberty Bonds!

COME ON, BOYS. LET'S GET 'EM

When MacLennan Huns the world defys, And stuns Turks shet 'em, The Yankee sounds his battle cry: "Come on, boys, let's get 'em!" Oh, come on, boys—behind the line, That build the planes, the shipping; That make the shells to start the hell's Where vandals feet are s'posed to!

And come, ye women, unafraid, Of every rank and station— Flesh of our flesh, blood of our blood— Our star of inspiration! Come on, ye people, press the grapes, Relebling at the vintage; And let us swell a mighty stream Of costs of U. S. mintare!
