Let's See Once ABOUT OUR SOL-Tobacco Growers

We shall be ready to receive on and after Jan. 20, 1919.

we were and the years in the next two years will develop good reasons why you should not sell below the following suggested prices for your 1918 crops: Very fine sod land crops at 30, 15, and 8 or more; very fine corn land crops at 28, 14 and 7 or more; extra good Penn B. crops at 25, 12 and 6, or more; medium good Penn. B. crops at 20, 10 and 5, or more and poor, short, hard burned crops, suitable only for export purposes, not below 15, 5 and 3, or more.

to-morrow morning at 7:30 o'clock but orders have postponed same unto it the following morning. We look for this to be a step homeward. Of course we do not know what will be the outcome of the march. This letter is written at the old address although we may soon be at an altogether different place. We all hope it will be and that it will step homeward bound. I hope you folks at home have all had as merry a Christmas as we have had and trust and hope our home coming may not be a long way off. Well I guess I have given you a good idea of how we spent the day, so I will close hoping you are all well and that I may soon see you all again.
