

MT. JOY BULLETIN

MOUNT JOY, PA.

J. E. SCHROLL, Editor & Prop.

Subscription Price $1.50 a Year... Single Copies... 3 Cents

Entered at the post office at Mount Joy as second-class mail matter.

The date of the expiration of your subscription follows your name on the label. We do not send receipts for subscription money received.

All correspondents must have their communications reach this office not later than Monday.

LAWN

Public sales are soon an event of the past.

Gingrich Bros. shipped 56 carloads of fat stock in 12 days.

Many are looking forward to April 1st, annual settlement day.

The weather man says we had this year's winter last winter.

M. S. Longenecker, is afflicted with rheumatism at this writing.

Phares Gingrich purchased a 1919 Model Chalmers auto, last week.

Last winter we had a coal famine and next summer an ice famine.

Prof. E. E. Sloat was a business caller to Elizabethtown, Monday evening.

L. Heisey sawed wood for Messrs. J. P. Riser, Samuel Kulp, Thursday.

A grand Easter festival will be held in the Trinity Lutheran church, Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Charles H. Reed was the first to have set onions on Thursday, March 13th.

Miss Sarah Wolgemuth is attending the winter term at Grantham College, Grantham, Pa.

Seventeen more days for Young America in the Lawn Academy, Prof. E. E. Sloat, teacher.

The Evangelical Association worshiped at Meyer's church, Sunday morning, Rev. B. C. Krupp, pastor.

Many farmers have taken advantage of the spring weather by plowing their corn ground.

Dr. W. H. Fox veterinarian, of Hummelstown, was a noticeable caller to this place.

B. S. Stauffer & Co., shipped a carload of baled hay from to Wilmington, N. Carolina, Tuesday.

Charles Sterrett, of Colebrook, held a public sale of household goods and farming implements on Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Riser, of Elizabethtown, was pleasantly entertained with H. B. Gingrich and family, Wednesday.

A series of revival now in progress in the United Evangelical church to continue indefinitely. Rev. H. F. Miller, pastor.

We are glad to note E. L. Haldeeman, who was seriously ill, is again sounding his anvil and striking while the iron is hot.

J. B. Broneman was the recipient of a gas mask from his son, H. K. Broneman, now in France. The article caused great curiosity.

Our shepherd reports 44 strong lambs from 20 favorite ewes at present. A record that was never reported in Lebanon county to date.

Looks like better roads, five carloads of crushed stone are being placed on the L. L. E. State road at present. C. B. Flory, Supervising Manager.

Extending a glad and welcome hand to Captain H. T. Easton, of Lebanon, Superintendent of the Elizabethtown Furnaces, Stock and Sheep farm, Tuesday.

Lancaster county contains nearly 11,000 farms and is the wealthiest agricultural county in the United States and ranks first in Pennsylvania in the yield of wheat and tobacco and in the number of horses.

Joseph E. Wolgemuth and family, enroute to Millersburg, Wednesday, and report the public highway between Upper Lawn and Stauffer's church to be the most disagreeable and neglected mileage passable on his tour.

R. C. Gingrich, who reports over one-half thousand sheep for spring shearing, at this writing, will swing his improved machine with ease and pleasure. He will also shear a flock of Arizona Angora goats, in Schuylkill county.

R. C. Gingrich of town, had the pleasure to exchange greetings with Supt. Calvin E. Kinkelsham, Supervising Manager of the Fairmount Supervising Manager of the Fairmount Park Sheep Farm, of Philadelphia, Saturday, comprising 363 sheep with 90 lambs.

The annual encampment of the Penna. Reserve Militia will be held at Mt. Getz on July 12th to 19th, according to an announcement made by Adj. Gen. A camp of instruction for commissioned officers of the Militia will be established at Mt. Getz from June 8 to 13, 1919.

Through these columns of the press R. C. Gingrich wishes to express his many and sincere thanks to all those who so generously contributed to his birthday surprise shower, Monday March 17th. He wishes to state birthday anniversaries should occur more frequently instead of being an annual event.

The beauty of Mt. Getz park as a recreation resort will again be realized by the activities of Mr. W. H. Gingrich, who recently purchased 200 acres of land from the South Mountain Lumber Co., situated north of the Lebanon Branch Penna. R. R. to be cut down and the timber utilized for railroad ties and public utility poles for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Who Wants a Farm? I have for sale an 86 acre farm in West Donegal township, that is, beyond a doubt, the best farm of its size I have ever offered. Limestone and excellent producer, good buildings, excellent location. Must be seen to be appreciated. J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

It pays to advertise in the Bulletin. Subscribe for the Mt. Joy Bulletin.

ELIZABETHTOWN

Mrs. M. B. Wittle was the guest of friends at Middletown.

Miss Clara Kinsey spent a few days with relatives at Homelstown.

W. J. Redding and wife have returned from a trip to Newark.

Rev. H. E. Wittle and wife were the guests of friends at Harrisburg.

Miss Mary Yeager, of Manheim, is the guest of H. H. Heagy and wife.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hess was the guest of relatives at Palmyra on Wednesday.

Our big five basket ball team defeated Hershey Saturday evening 47 to 19.

Rev. J. H. Binkley and Mrs. D. C. Witmer were recent visitors to Lancaster.

Mrs. Franklin Hershey, of Philadelphia, was the guest of H. H. Nisley and family.

A. H. Hoffer and daughter, Miriam, of Neffsville, were the guests of relatives in the borough.

The Moose Bowlers defeated the Independent Five of Lancaster on Saturday evening by 22 pins.

Mrs. Daniel Weidman, who resides on West High street, is seriously ill blood poisoning in her right arm.

Miss Irene Hanbright is spending Thursday and Friday at Philadelphia, the guest of Mrs. Paul Kordeau.

Landis Eby and family returned to their home in Philadelphia, after an extended visit to Geo. W. Hoffer and wife.

"A Message From the Cross," was the subject of Rev. Frank Croman's mid-week Lenten discourse on Wednesday evening.

Miss Mary Wilson has returned to her South Market street home after an extended visit to relatives at Philadelphia and Frankford.

Miss Mary Gingrich, of Middletown, and Miss Mary Swartz, of Millin, spent a few days with S. B. Myers and wife on East High street.

Sergeant W. E. Lyons of Bennington, Vt., who recently returned from France, is spending a few days here with A. B. Hambricht.

Borough Council met in monthly session on Thursday night with routine business demanding their attention. In the absence of President H. T. Horst, I. H. Risser, presided.

Several communications were read among which was one from the J. L. Cace Company in regard to a combination scrapper and grader. It was decided to purchase same from above named company. A communication from the Klein Chocolate Company was read asking for improvement of Brown street, and expressing the willingness of the company to bear portion of the expense.

The public works committee as instructed to confer with the Klein Chocolate Company in regard to the matter. The public works committee was authorized to purchase 75 barrels of tarvin for road improvement and accepted a position with the R. M. Granat Company, of Lancaster entered on his duties there on Monday.

Conrad Smith, residing at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Michael Kising, arose during the night, and after dressing went down the stairs. He fell when nearly down, and was found by Mr. Kising a few hours later. He is badly jammed and bruised, but luckily no bones are broken. He is past 91 years of age, and is Marietta's veteran cobbler.

Miss Katharine Riff, of Marietta, arranged a kitchen shower for Miss Anna Culp, whose engagement to Clarence Fuhrman has been announced. The event was held at the intended bride's home, and she received a large number of beautiful and useful gifts. Those present were Miss Ellen Fiskey and Edwin Humphreys, Lancaster; Miss Katharine Riff, Mrs. Clarence Collins, Mrs. Roy Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Waidley, Mrs. Harry Campbell, Mrs. Dora Riff, Katie Riff, Clarence Fuhrman, Leonard Tillman, Robert Wagner. The house was beautifully decorated with the Stars and Stripes, and at a seasonable hour refreshments were served.

Fitlings are all the go at present. Amos Coble is James Risser's assistant.

Mr. John Shiffer unloaded a carload of phosphate, Tuesday.

Jacob Shiffer, near Deodate, was a caller to this village, Monday.

Mr. David Risser near Middletown, purchased a load of hay from Jacob Risser.

Samuel Witmer, carpenter, attended the sale of Arthur Thome estate, Wednesday.

Lloyd Risser delivered a two-horse load of hay to John Schoolman the past week.

Revival services are in progress at the Lawn United Evangelical church at present week.

Mr. Jacob Risser and wife attended divine services at Risser's Mennonite church last Sabbath.

Mrs. Samuel Witmer and Mrs. Jacob Gall, who were confined to the house are improving.

Mr. James Witman, of Campbelltown, placed a range stove at the home of Christian Hiestand.

We certainly are sorry to lose our friend and neighbor, Harry Painter, who moved to Campbelltown Thursday in the house he purchased from Clarence Wagner.

ERISMAN'S CHURCH

Levi Eby and family transacted business at Lancaster on Saturday.

Elmer Brubaker and family visited Mrs. Amos Broneman at Petersburg, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Metzler and son Martin visited Hiram Metzler's on Sunday.

These five spring days bring the good house wives to the garden and many peas, onions and radishes are set.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller, of near Rheems, visited Mrs. Miller's parents, Christian Longenecker on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Metzler and family visited Mr. Metzler's brother Herman and family near Litzitz, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brubaker and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb attended Gance's Church and visited Rev. John Snively.

Quite a number of our neighbors attended a public sale near York, on Friday. The sale was a typical York county sale. They report having enjoyed the day very much.

Many of the farmers are starting their brooders and the outlook is for some fine flocks. Monroe Metzler has 700, H. B. Erb 400, Mrs. Hiram Witmer 200, John Metzler 790.

On Saturday evening the Erisman's Church Sunday School organized the same officers who served us so very satisfactory last term, and we again look forward to a very successful term. The officers are as follows: Superintendents, Martin and Harvey Metzler; Chorists, Walter Keener and John Metzler; Secretary, C. B. Brubaker; Treasurer, Benjamin Bomberger.

On Friday afternoon, March 28, at 1 o'clock the boys and girls of Lincoln School will give a program to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their teacher, C. E. Rohrer, who completes the 25 year of public school work. The program will consist of marches, drills, music, temperance and moral dialogues. We extend an invitation to the public to attend.

Rev. John Floyd, of Middletown, was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Connor announce the birth of a son.

Rev. H. Whittaker was on a business trip to Harrisburg, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Smith announce the birth of a daughter.

Mr. Wm. Mundorff was on a business trip to Baltimore, Md., this week.

Mrs. H. J. Hawley and daughter, Mary, spent Saturday in Harrisburg.

Rev. Irwin has been reappointed for Bainbridge and Falmouth for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Nellie Shoop and daughters spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bauman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Samuel Rhoads spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. James Charles, Sr.

Mrs. Caroline Sechrist left Sunday to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Irvin Brinzer at Chickies.

Mrs. Emma Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Darius Hummel of Harrisburg, were the guests of relatives and friends in town Sunday.

Misses Marian Wambaugh and Mary Malchorn, of Steelton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. Kuntzleman over the weekend.

Rev. E. F. Yoder, pastor of the Church of God, at Elizabethtown, filled the pulpit in the church of God at revival services Thursday evening.

Last evening a lecture was delivered in the Church of God Bethel by Rev. H. Whittaker. The subject was "Fifty-four Years Ago or The Story of Fort Steadman." It was very interesting. The meeting was held in the interest of Missions. No admission was charged but an offering was lifted for the benefit of Mission work.

Miss M. Ethel Culp spent Friday in Lancaster.

Rev. A. T. Sutcliffe spent Monday in Hummelstown, with his parents.

Mrs. Geo. Weller, of Columbia, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Hinkle.

Mrs. Sallie Henderson, of Lancaster, spent Monday in town with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers and daughter, of Elizabethtown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Evans.

Mrs. Louis Lyte and children, of Millersville, are visiting Mrs. Lyte's father, Mr. C. G. Longenecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graybill and daughter Mary, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end with their aunts, the Misses Shireman.

On account of the American Bankers' Association Convention in Lancaster Saturday evening, the Peoples' Bank of Maytown was open that evening.

John Tome, Jr., a student at the Gettysburg Seminary, filled the pulpit in St. John's Lutheran church, Maytown, on Sunday morning. Mr. Tome is a son of this congregation.

Mr. Wm. E. Mayer, Sr., died at the home of his son, William, Thursday morning at 6:30 o'clock. Funeral services were held at St. John's Lutheran church, Maytown, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Deceased is survived by the following children: John H., of Lancaster; William, Hiram, James, of Maytown; Thomas, with the American Expeditionary Forces and Miss Elizabeth, a trained nurse.

Miss Amelia Helman spent Monday at Lancaster.

Mrs. Jacob B. Nolt is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Mrs. Norman N. Nissley is at the St. Joseph's Hospital undergoing an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Brenner of Millersville, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Harvey Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Long and family spent Sunday at Mrs. Long's home at Keadyville.

Mrs. J. F. Minnich will leave on Wednesday morning for a few days' visit with friends in Philadelphia.

Edgar Way, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Way of Salunga, is very ill at St. Joseph's Hospital. He has appendicitis.

Mrs. J. W. Swarr, Mrs. J. Harold Swarr and Miss Grace Diffenderfer motored to Lancaster on Monday evening.

Mrs. Harold Swarr left on Tuesday for her home in Philadelphia, after spending most of the winter with Mr. Swarr's parents in Lansville.

The measles epidemic seems to be travelling westward. After having left Rohrerstown and vicinity it seems now to be in Salunga in Landisville. Several cases have been reported among the children.

RHEEMS

Mrs. Harry Heiser visited Mrs. Enos Herr at Salunga, last week one day.

Mrs. Manning, of Elizabethtown, spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. S. B. Mason.

P. K. Landis received a carload of cotton hulls in bulk for his large herd of dairy cows.

Mrs. Christian Heilig, of Mt. Joy, spent a day last week as the guest of Mrs. Paul Weiser.

Allen Ober, a retired farmer of Mount Joy township flitted into the E. H. Hersh residence on Friday.

Harry Stoll, P. R. R. special duty man and daughter, Mrs. A. Shetter, of Florida, were guests of Mrs. Bertha Kraybill.

Mrs. Bertha S. Kraybill and daughter, Dora, spent last week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Shetter at Florida.

Mrs. A. S. Bard, daughter Miriam and son, Russell, spent Sunday at League Hill, as the guests of Corral J. K. Bard.

Mr. Morris Heiser and son Theodore of Harrisburg, spent several days as the guests of his brother, Harry Heiser and family.

Mr. Herbert Mason, manager of the Landisville stone quarry, spent one day at the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Mason.

Misses Miriam K. Bardi and Anna Foreman, students at Millersville State Normal are spending a 10 days' vacation with their parents.

The funeral of Mrs. John Berrier passed through this place, last Wednesday at 10:30, and still passing in the procession on their way to Elizabethtown.

Mrs. A. H. Calman and daughters Ruth and Henrietta at Steelton, and Mrs. H. Keister of Harrisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry on Sunday.

Phares E. Groff, the U. S. Machinist of League Island, arrived in this place on Monday with his family and will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Groff.

Henry Weaver, Sr., celebrated his 79th birthday by digging garden. He was a veteran of 1862, and still possesses good health and a sound mind, and enjoys to have plenty of work.

The Penn Lime, Stone and Cement Company are equipped to sell crushed stone from their crushing plant. Four large motor trucks are conveying crushed stone to Elizabethtown.

Mr. H. G. Thompson, P. R. R. agent flitted into the Joseph W. Kraybill house last week, while Eli Bakes, a retired farmer and country butcher of near Green Tree filled the vacancy.

Harry L. Heisey, of Donegal, a prolific farmer and lime burner, who hauled 28 hundred bushels of corn into his barns last fall, delivered his steers to Elizabethtown on Saturday, receiving about five cents profit.

ROHRERSTOWN

Herbert Snively is home on a furlough.

John McQueney moved his personal property to his father's home.

Gertrude Brown has been very seriously ill in the St. Joseph Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockard announce the birth of a daughter on Monday.

Benjamin Charles moved into his home that he purchased from John Graybill.

Dr. M. Ringwalt has men busy cutting down Locust trees for posts on his farm.

The notices for carrying the mail were taken down on Mar. 20th. Who will it be?

Saint Patrick's Day was quietly observed in our town. Some were wearing the green.

A. B. Baer and wife and son Guy were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Gingrich and son Elmer on Sunday.

Mrs. Laura B. Stubbs and Mrs. King of Westport, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Baer on Tuesday.

A good program is being prepared for the Spelling Bee to be held in the school house Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Martin McQueney was home over Sunday on a furlough from Camp Dix, N. J. He expects to be mustered out in a short time.

Preaching in the Church of God next Sunday by the pastor at 10:30 o'clock, subject, "The Dissolving of Heaven," at 7 p. m., subject, "Forgiving God and its Results." Evangelistic services will be held Passion week.

Thursday afternoon assistant superintendent, Samuel Simmons, of the County Schools gave the County Standard for Rohrerstown and East Petersburg Schools. It is a great honor to East Hempfield Township to have so many standardized schools, as each school receives a banner.

SALUNGA

Regular services in the M. E. church next Sunday evening.

A Spelling Bee will be held in the Landisville High School March 28th.

The Q. O. Reitzel family returned to their Salunga home last Thursday.

Dr. J. S. Kendig made a Sunday visit to his sister and family, Mrs. Frank L. Deichler.

Mr. Jonas Waltz and family moved into their home purchased from Mr. Jacob Gorrecht on Thursday.

The Gabel's of Columbia, and Mrs. Miller, of Lancaster, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Kline.

Ruby Bennett, Gertrude and Raymond Deibler of Enola, spent Sunday with the Fackler family.

The Misses Delilah and Olivia Evans of Lancaster, were the weekend visitors of Mrs. Emma Metzler.

The wedding of Mr. Walter Peifer and Miss Edith Cooper in the Lutheran Church, Landisville was a very pleasant affair. It turned out to be a double affair as the brother of the groom, Paul and Miss Mary Eshleman, of Mount Joy had been married in the afternoon. It was a joyous time for all.

In a reasonably short time we expect to dig potatoes from our garden plot. We have as yet no blossoms, but we anticipate such happy results in the near future and we thought earnestly invite our good friends around to enjoy our choice products.

Look in next week's issue of this paper for the program of the Spelling Bee to be held in the Maple Grove School House, at Salunga, on Friday evening, April 13th for the benefit of the General Hospital.

For a Bad Cold Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has stood the test of time and can be depended upon. Mar. 5-4t. Subscribe for the Mt. Joy Bulletin.

NEWTOWN

Miss Minerva Fogle of this place, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Harry Fogle at Braddock, Pa.

Mrs. Amos, of Elizabethtown, spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. S. B. Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fletcher, of Maytown, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nehemiah Haines in town on Sunday.

Mr. William Witmer and son of Harrisburg, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Witmer in this place on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shire and son Ross, and David Shire of Lancaster Junction, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mumma on Sunday.

Mrs. Christian Hornadus and Mrs. Jacob Geltmacher of Mt. Joy, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Mumma on Sunday.

Long and Taylor, of Landisville, were in this section buying tobacco. Here are some of the farmers that sold: Mr. Lewis Resh, at 15 and 5; Mr. Samuel Shenk, at 15 and 5; Mr. Daniel Moore, at 14 1/2 and 5; Mr. John Witmer, at 15 and 5; Mr. John Haines, at 15 and 5; Mrs. Christian Nisley, 15 1/2 and 5; Mr. Nehemiah Haines, at 15 1/2 and 5.

CORDELIA

Preaching was held in the Ironville U. B. church Sunday evening at 7:30 by the pastor.

Eli Singer will enter the employ of Albright & Rodkey, attending to the farm and the coal yard.

Frank Weaver, doing army service in New York city, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weaver, at Ironville.

Saturday evening Rev. C. H. Holtzinger, of the Otterbein U. B. Church, Lancaster, preached in the Silver Spring U. B. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Crouse, of Ironville, have gone to Camp Upton, to visit Mr. Crouse's brother, who has returned from overseas.

Mrs. Joseph Berntheizer returned home, after being a patient in St. Joseph's hospital, Lancaster, for three weeks, and is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Hershey, of Silver Spring, have returned from an extended trip through southern states, and on Sunday entertained their children at dinner.

NEW TOWN

Miss Minerva Fogle of this place, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Harry Fogle at Braddock, Pa.

Mrs. Amos, of Elizabethtown, spent Sunday as the guest of Mrs. S. B. Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fletcher, of Maytown, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nehemiah Haines in town on Sunday.

Mr. William Witmer and son of Harrisburg, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Witmer in this place on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shire and son Ross, and David Shire of Lancaster Junction, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mumma on Sunday.

Mrs. Christian Hornadus and Mrs. Jacob Geltmacher of Mt. Joy, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Mumma on Sunday.

Long and Taylor, of Landisville, were in this section buying tobacco. Here are some of the farmers that sold: Mr. Lewis Resh, at 15 and 5; Mr. Samuel Shenk, at 15 and 5; Mr. Daniel Moore, at 14 1/2 and 5; Mr. John Witmer, at 15 and 5; Mr. John Haines, at 15 and 5; Mrs. Christian Nisley, 15 1/2 and 5; Mr. Nehemiah Haines, at 15 1/2 and 5.

CORDELIA

Preaching was held in the Ironville U. B. church Sunday evening at 7:30 by the pastor.