

MT. JOY BULLETIN
MOUNT JOY, PA.
J. E. SCHROLL, Editor & Profr.

Subscription Price $1.50 a Year
Six Months 75 Cents
Three Months 40 Cents
Single Copies 3 Cents
Sample Copies FREE

Entered at the post office at Mount Joy as second class matter. The date of the expiration of your subscription follows your name on the label. We do not send receipts for subscription money received. Whenever you remit, see that you are given proper credit. We credit all subscription on the first of each month. All correspondents must have their communications reach this office not later than Monday. Telephone news of importance between that time and 12 o'clock noon Wednesday. Charges for advertisements must positively reach this office not later than Monday night. New advertisements inserted if copy reaches us Tuesday night. Advertising rates on application. The subscription lists of the Lancaster Vigil, the Florin News and the Mount Joy Star and News, were merged with that of the Mount Joy Bulletin, which makes this paper's circulation about double that of the ordinary weekly.

LANDISVILLE

Miss Emma Swarr spent Saturday at Lancaster.
Mrs. Harry Miller spent Tuesday at Lancaster.
Miss Ellen Niesley spent Tuesday at Lancaster.
J. K. Stauffer made a business trip to Lancaster.
Miss Clara Habecker spent Tuesday at Lancaster.
Mrs. William Hoffman spent Thursday at Lancaster.
Samuel V. Swarr motored to Middletown on Thursday.
Mrs. Price of Middletown, is visiting Mrs. S. M. Root.
John Trayer is attending Millersville State Normal School.
Stella Markley, of Lancaster, is visiting friends in Bamford.
Miss Barbara Trout spent Wednesday with friends at Lancaster.
Miss Sarah Swartz, of Grantham, Pa., is visiting Mrs. J. M. Swarr.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mason spent Sunday with friends at Rheons.
Clyde Swarr made a business trip to Lancaster, the middle of the week.
Mrs. Jacob Summy spent Thursday with his mother at Rohrerstown.
Mrs. Amos Hoffman and daughter Ruth went to Lancaster on Wednesday.
Mrs. J. Warren Long and son spent Tuesday with Mrs. Long's parents at Keadyville.
Miss Minnie Noll has returned from visiting her sister, Miss Mabel Noll, at Christiana.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swarr were given a rousing serenading on Wednesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hess, of Lancaster, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Hess.
Mrs. Madie Nicholas, of Harrisburg, is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Benjamin E. Long.
Mahlon Corbet returned to his home in Lewistown, after making a business trip to Landisville.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Staley and little daughter motored to Lancaster, on Saturday evening.
Miss Ellen Mumma, a student of Millersville, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Mumma.
Reuben Miller and two daughters Nora and Mabel, of Mechanicsville, motored to Landisville on Sunday.
Lieut. G. F. Gilgore has returned to Camp Meade, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Kilgore.
Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Eshleman and Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Herr received a rousing serenading on Tuesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swarr, of Philadelphia, are visiting their father, J. M. Swarr. Mr. Swarr has just returned from France.
On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Amos B. Cooper entertained the teacher, officers and the Bible class of the Zion Lutheran Sunday school. In spite of the inclement weather a goodly number were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

EAST PETERSBURG
Miss Lizzie Stehman spent some time at Rohrerstown with friends.
Mrs. Kate Hoffman, who spent some weeks at Mountville, has returned home.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shreiner spent Sunday at Brunnewille, with the family of Milton Hess.
Miss Emma Hollenworth and Mr. Daniel Guise, of Lancaster, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lopp.
Last Thursday afternoon the grammar school accompanied by their teacher, Miss Ella Manning, visited Danner's Museum.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Graybill and son Richard, of Litzitz were week-end visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Graybill.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Deitrich and son Harold, were recent visitors at Fruitville, with Mrs. Deitrich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roth and family.
Samuel F. Andes, who has spent the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla., on account of his health returned home the week-end and seems to be very much improved.
Fourteen members of the Lutheran Brotherhood attended the series of meetings at the Neffville Lutheran church on Wednesday evening and sang a few selections.
Rev. Samuel Oberholzer and Martin Hiestand, of Rissers church and Rev. Daniel Leaman, of Millersville, preached the sermons at the Mennonite church on Sunday evening.
On Sunday, April 27, Trinity Reformed church will observe Rally Day in the Sunday school and church at 9 and 11 a. m. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.
John Sides, one of our progressive young men began the butchering business, and is seen on our streets with a clean, brand new outfit, serving our borough people with meats of all kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller and sons Roy and Irvin, of near Manheim and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fetter of Lancaster Junction were entertained on Sunday by the family of Harry Steinman.
W. E. Pool, F. S. Zerphy, R. S. Gochnauer, D. M. Graybill and R. M. Graybill were trout fishing on the opening day somewhere in the lower end of the county and returned with 15 fine trout.
Mr. and Mrs. David Gochnauer, Mr. Menno Swarr, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hostetter and children, Mildred, Grace, Bernice, Earle and Ruth were Sunday visitors at Manheim with Cephas Hostetter and family.
Mrs. Harry Stehman of Neffville, Mrs. Jacob Minnich and daughter, Dorothy, of Salunga, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shreiner and daughter, Ella Mae, Kathryn and son Ralph of Litzitz, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Adam K. Long.
Mrs. Rebecca Landis and children Paul and Ruth Landis, Mrs. Francis Hamaker, Mrs. John Hamaker and daughter, Mary Frances and Master Heister Philips were entertained on Sunday near Manheim by Mr. and Mrs. John Cassell.

LOCUST GROVE

Mrs. Milton Erb entertained her mother, Mrs. Eshleman and sister of Florin, Easter Sunday.
Charles Berrier and brother John of near Mount Joy, were circumnavigating through here last week.
Misses Annie and Ruth Neideigh attended Sunday School at Marietta, in the Church of the Brethren.
Rev. Samuel Shearer, wife and son of Rheons, were Sunday callers at the home of E. R. Neideigh.
The copious supply of rain that we were getting the benefit of last week had a tendency of putting the quietus on potato planting.
Camp Room, must certainly be a refreshing abode, up in dear old Perry County, and I can safely say that A. D. Garber, the Florin merchant will acquiesce in my statement.
Easter Sunday was ushered in with a brilliant sun-rise around here and eggs vanished like snow flakes under our parental table by the juvenile set who enjoyed the feast to its utmost extent.
E. R. Neideigh, who farms the Habecker farm, now under control of the Magnesia Company, of Mount Joy, has been confined to his room with sickness for the last week, under the medical care of Dr. J. T. Ingram, of Marietta.
Rev. Hiram Kaylor and wife of near Green Tree Church, Francis G. Neideigh, wife and two sons, Elsworth and Theodore, Mrs. Annie N. Williams and distinguished daughter Elizabeth were callers last week at the home of E. R. Neideigh and family.
The old grander who plied his avocation by promeneading up and down this historic stream with head erect, met his fate the other night when he came in contact with a dog of a suspicious description. Feathers and wings and body badly mutilated were all that was left to tell of his unfortunate encounter, late Thursday night.
Miss Annie Neideigh, daughter of E. R. Neideigh, who is an employee at the Silk Mill, at Marietta, met with an accident on her way to work last week. In the act of alighting from a Columbia trolley she missed her footing and landed on her side, causing a few bruises otherwise escaping unimpaired of which she was fortunate.

ROHRERSTOWN

Miss Esther Meyers spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Hiestand at Neffville.
Miss Lottie Cooper of Leacock township, is the guest of Miss Blanch Bushong.
Mrs. McPalls and Mrs. Cramer and son, of Lancaster, visited Rev. McGuire's last Friday.
Miriam Young, who spent some time at her home in Washingtonboro, has returned to our town for duty with Dr. Ringwalt.
Harry Landis, who had been employed by S. O. Frantz, on the farm left and started to work in Ringwalt & Davis' Store on Monday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Baer and son Guy were the guests of Miss Fannie Miller and Mrs. Anna Hershey and daughter Elizabeth, who now is Mrs. Daniel Baer at Lancaster.
Raymond Erb, who had enlisted and was over in France and in the trenches, returned home on Saturday evening with an honorable discharge. The Rohrerstown boys are all home now from France except George Will and he is all right some where.
The services held in the Church of God the past week were well attended and the services interesting. The pastor, Rev. F. W. McGuire, will preach next Sunday at 10:30, subject, "Our Interest in Missions," and at 7 o'clock on "The Breaking of the Fallow Ground." The ordinances will be held May 11, services beginning at 6 p. m.

SALUNGA

Miss Dora Souders spent Wednesday night with Mrs. R. Raffensberger.
Miss Elizabeth Wherry, of Germantown, was the week-end guest of Miss Miriam Kendig.
Mrs. Emily Metzler spent the week-end in Manor township with Miss Cora Witmer.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Datsman, announce the birth of a daughter, Emma on Saturday, April 19.
Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers and son Clayton were Sunday visitors, of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shertzer.
Mr. Frank Montooth and family of Columbia, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strickler.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Balmer and Mr. and Mrs. Graybill Schaeffer of Millport, spent Good Friday at Ira Herr's.
Miss Lou Stoe, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Willis G. Kendig visited in the home of his parents, Dr. B. E. Kendig and wife on Thursday.
Norman Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Pair of Lancaster, spent Easter at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Miller.
On Good Friday Mr. and Mrs. John Herr, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Raffensberger attended Love Feast at the Church of the Brethren at Litzitz.
The Landisville and Salunga Auxiliary of the General Hospital sent as an Easter donation fifty-four dozen of eggs. The committee thanks the donors.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aungst and daughter of Plainfield, New Jersey, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Aungst and sister, Mrs. Irvin Newcomer a few days last week.
Paul Peifer and wife of Washington, D. C., spent part of their Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Peifer. Then also entertained for Sunday dinner Howard Peifer and family and Walter Peifer and bride.
First Quarterly Conference was held in the M. E. Church on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Superintendent Burns met and greeted all his assistants in his usual pleasant and hearty manner, so as to make it a privilege to be one of the number.
The Sunday School met at 9:30. The Easter Service Life Abounding was rendered after which the school received their treat. This was followed by regular preaching service by the pastor, Rev. Clough. His theme was the Resurrection.
Mr. John Herr attained his seventy-fifth birthday on Saturday. His only son, Enos living in Seattle, Washington, sent a birthday cake baked by himself and wife with Easter decorations, which was greatly enjoyed, both for taste and remembrance. It was sent the 13th and received on the 19th.
The dawn service at six o'clock on Easter morning in the M. E. church was well attended and the speakers, Rev. Fite of the Broad St. M. E. Church, Lancaster, gave a very interesting sermon on the Crucifixion and Mr. A. M. Breneman gave an address on the Centenary movement. Both were very much appreciated by the congregation.

ELIZABETHTOWN

F. D. Groff and wife and three daughters were the guests of relatives at Donegal Springs.
A number of the Campfire Girls took a hike to Middletown on Thursday evening, greatly enjoying the trip.
Mrs. Anna Beates and daughter, Mary, of Lancaster, were the guests of H. S. Beates and family on East High street.
F. B. Aldinger, the well known auctioneer, moved to his recently purchased property, No. 619 South Market street.
The boys' and girls' choir of the Masonic Homes sang at the 10:30 o'clock service in St. Paul's U. B. Church on Easter morning.
S. G. Hershey, the South Market street merchant, is erecting on his lot on Park street, a large warehouse to be used for storage purposes.
Mrs. Harry Fink and two children Clyde and Russell, of Falmouth, were the guests of relatives in the borough also John F. Heisey and wife of the same place.
The local Moose bowlers won another game on Friday evening, defeating the Fulton A. C.'s at Lancaster 2211 to 2051. Eckinger, of this place, was high man.
Few trout were caught in the past few days in this vicinity. The most successful angler was Albert Galebach who succeeded in landing three fine ones that weighed nearly two pounds each.
Luther D. Coble, an experienced marble cutter and a veteran in the business, will succeed the late James C. McLanahan at the old stand on East High street. Good work at reasonable prices is his motto.
Lodge, No. 128, I. O. O. F., of this place will attend services in St. Paul's U. B. Church, on East High street on Sunday evening, May 4, at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. I. N. Seldomridge will preach a special sermon to them.
The following persons were admitted into Christ Lutheran church during the Easter season: Lillian C. Good, Sara A. Winters, Mildred B. Kiene, Caroline M. Weidman, Bertha A. Winters, Russell B. Shank, Joseph W. Eckinger, Hurl B. Shank.
B. K. Eshleman, who is a cripple, having lost his left leg some years ago, met with an accident, which while not considered serious caused him much pain. While showing a carpenter some repairs he desired made to his garret roof, he made a misstep and fell backwards down the garret steps, badly injuring his right leg. He received the necessary medical attention by Dr. H. K. Blough.

SPORTING HILL

H. H. Miller, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in the home of A. H. Degler.
Ross Kauffman has enrolled as a student at Lancaster Business College.
Albert Dull, of Miners Village, spent Monday at the home of H. H. Miller.
Mrs. A. H. Degler and Mary Jane Brubaker spent Saturday at Lancaster.
Mrs. Ed. Grube and brother, Paul Raffensberger, are spending the week in Perry county.
Miss Iva Miller, of Brickerville, is spending several weeks in the home of D. Dissinger.
The United Zion's Children started revival services in the village church on Sunday evening.
Messrs. Jno. Miller and Oliver Spickler attended the big shoot at Marietta on Thursday.

ERISMAN'S CHURCH

The Metzler family visited Walter Herr and family on Easter day.
Monroe Metzler and family visited Jacob Hitz's in Lebanon County, on Friday.
Rev. Krady spent Good Friday with his grandfather and aunt near Huber's station.
Wise men change their minds sometimes, fools never; therefore always remain fools.
Eli Hosteter and family of Mount Joy, spent Easter Sunday with Henry B. Erb and family.
Hiram Witmer and daughters visited Daniel Stoner's near Petersburg, on Good Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rissers of near Rissers church took their Easter dinner with John Metzler and family.
Noah Witmer and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Daniel Snavely at Manheim on Monday forenoon.
John Metzler and family and A. B. Erb and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Snavely near Back Run School on Friday.
Rev. I. Brubaker and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Metzler attended the Mennonite church services at Ephrata on Sunday.
Mr. Benjamin Stauffer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Phares Kauffman and family Sundayed with Elias Metzler and family.
People to-day would laugh at the suggestion of a concrete airplane, just as they would have laughed at the suggestion of a flying machine, ago.
Fifty years ago the young spent the first few years of their school life in learning their letters before they were taught to read, now they are taught to read the first few weeks they go to school without knowing any letters.
Our Singing Class which meets every Thursday evening in the Lincoln school house is growing. We now have some fifty members. We consider it a treat to be under Mr. Rissers' instruction. Come and enjoy the evening with us.

MARIETTA

The fund for the community house is now over $30,000.
William H. Swoisart celebrated his 73rd birthday last week.
Leonard E. Carroll, of this place, is improving at the Columbia hospital.
The Liberty Band will give a concert in Acric's theatre tomorrow, Thursday evening.
Rev. Harold Schmaus, of Paradise, filled the pulpit in St. John's Episcopal church last evening.
John S. Simons, Esq., of Lancaster, has been engaged to deliver the Memorial Day address here May 30.
Mrs. Eleanor Fitzgerald and daughter, of Reading, are the guests of relatives in Marietta for several days.
Conrad Smith, the veteran cobbler, who fell some time ago at the home of Michael Kisling, is slowly improving.
Rev. H. B. Pulsifer returned from a visit to Harrisburg and other places, where he filled pulpits of the church.
Frank Erb, of Allentown, was visiting his brother, Samuel, for several days. He went to Middletown from Marietta to visit friends.
Misses Rhobie and Mary McCloskey attending Carnegie school, near Pittsburgh, are visiting their mother, Mrs. M. E. McCloskey.
Opessah Tribe, I. O. R. M., of this place, admitted a class of pale faces on Friday evening. Oscedala Tribe of Columbia, paid their local brethren a visit that night.

DOCTORED FOR FIVE YEARS NEVER GOT AS MUCH GOOD AS I GOT FROM TONALL

Aaron W. Heisey, a farmer, and living near Litzitz, Pa., says: "I am 42 years old, and I suffered from indigestion, and pain from gas on the stomach.
"I doctored for five years and paid expensive doctor bills and I never got as much as I got from Tonall. Had I known of Tonall, before I would have paid willingly ten dollars for a bottle. It is the best medicine and Tonic for the stomach I ever used."
"Mr. Charles, the druggist at Litzitz, recommended Tonall to me, and after the good results I got, now I recommend Tonall to all sufferers from indigestion."
Tonall is sold at Garber's Drug Store, Mount Joy, Pa.

A KINDERHOOK NURSE TWO YEARS OVERSEAS

Miss Gertrude Smith, daughter of Mrs. Mary Smith and the late Captain Martin H. Smith, arrived home Friday and is now with her mother and sister, Mrs. Mildred Rodkey, at Kinderhook. Miss Smith, who is a trained nurse, was attached to hospital unit No. 10 one of the first units to go overseas, nearly two years ago. The unit landed in England and was reviewed by King George. Afterward the unit was assigned for duty in France, and had charge of hospitals where wounded British soldiers principally were taken. The unit was cited and decorated. Miss Smith is enjoying excellent health.

Here's a Good Buy

The lot with two properties on E. Main street, of the estate of the late B. S. Dillinger. One house has all conveniences.
Now don't delay but see me at once at Jno. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

AMERICAN STORES CO.

Our Very Best
TEAS
45c lb
12c 1/4 lb, 23c 1/2 lb.
Choice of Plain, Black, Mixed, and our famous India and Ceylon.

Choice Pink SALMON

1/2 Lb. Can
10c

KEYSTONE TOMATO SOUP

can 7c

MRS. MORRISON'S CHOCOLATE PUDDING

pkg. 8c

WILBUR'S COCOA

Can 10c and 20c

ARGO STARCH

3 lb pkg. 23c

PUDDING (Assorted Flavors)

pkg. 12c

CHOICE QUALITY RICE

lb. 9c

N. B. CO. RITTENHOUSE FRUIT BISCUITS

lb. 27c

WELL MADE SCREENS

each 50c and 55c

BEST WHITE BEANS

lb. 10c

SALAD OIL

Bottle 10c and 22c

NEW MADE MACARONI

pkg. 10c and 12c

POTTED MEATS

can 5c and 10c

SEEDED RAISINS

pkg. 14c

SEEDEDS RAISINS

pkg. 15c

Our Very Best
AMERICAN STORES CO.
AMERICAN COFFEE
32c lb
One kind—O u r Best—fresh roasted daily. Buy a pound today and try it for your breakfast tomorrow.

RING IT AGAIN

"Let Liberty once more peel forth throughout the land." Let its voice echo and reach round the earth until man to man his brother becomes, and Peace shall know no shadows. Vast sums of money must be spent in reconstruction work before this era is possible. Shall we withhold? NEVER, NEVER. BUY VICTORY BONDS until it hurts. Every American store is a big help in tying up the loose ends of the family purse, making bonds saving through Grocery Expense saving easy, to an extent not possible elsewhere.

TRADE AT OUR NEAREST STORE, MOUNT JOY, PENNA.

Choice Pink
SALMON
1/2 Lb. Can
10c

KEYSTONE TOMATO SOUP, can 7c
MRS. MORRISON'S CHOCOLATE PUDDING, pkg. 8c
WILBUR'S COCOA, Can 10c and 20c
ARGO STARCH, 3 lb pkg. 23c
PUDDING (Assorted Flavors) pkg., 12c
CHOICE QUALITY RICE, lb. 9c
N. B. CO. RITTENHOUSE FRUIT BISCUITS, lb. 27c
WELL MADE SCREENS, each 50c and 55c
BEST WHITE BEANS, lb. 10c
SALAD OIL, Bottle 10c and 22c
NEW MADE MACARONI, pkg., 10c and 12c
POTTED MEATS, can 5c and 10c
SEEDED RAISINS, pkg. 14c
SEEDEDS RAISINS, pkg. 15c

SWEET SUGAR CORN, cut 12c to, can. 22c
Two cans for 25c. That's the price and the quality is all we claim. This price is very special and will continue only until this particular lot is sold. It will pay you to invest in a dozen cans or more.

CATSUP, big bottle 15c
This is without question the biggest catsup value on the market today. We have no hesitancy in guaranteeing it to be the equal to the best made.

FIG BARRS, lb. 22c
Fresh baked splendid quality. Delightful layers pastry, with a delicious fig filler. Wholesome for the kiddies.

CHOICE PEAS, can 14c
Fine quality—sweet and tender. Why pay more elsewhere for peas not as good?

"ASCO" GINGER ALE, Bottle 12c
Quality A-1—equal to the best imported. Buy a dozen bottles at this price.

CURTICE JAMS, jar 28c
They need no introduction—your choice of Damson, Plum, Green Gage, etc.

RICH CREAMY CHEESE, lb. 39c
Very tasty. Buy a pound today and try a little with a package of "Asco" Macaroni.

CRISCO For Frying and Pastry 29c
1 Lb. Can 29c

Ritter's Pork and BEANS
(In Tomato Sauce)
Small Can
8c

FANCY RED SALMON, can 27c
MEDIUM RED SALMON, Big Can, 24c
CALIFORNIA BONITA TUNA, can 19c
THREADED CODFISH, pkg., 6c and 10c
VANILLA LEMON FLAVORING, Bottle 5c and 12c
STUFFED OLIVES, Bottle 14c and 20c
NO-WASTE SLICED BACON, pkg., 28c
"ASCO" CORNSTARCH, pkg., 8c
"ASCO" BAKING POWDER, can 5c and 9c
WHITE DISTILLED VINEGAR, Bottle 12c
SALAD DRESSING, Bottle 14c
TOMATO PUREE, can 6c
TABLE SALT, pkg. 4c

PEPTONA

The GREAT SPRING TONIC

This palatable preparation is a combination of Peptonized Iron, Cod Liver Extract, Malt and Manganese and is intended for those persons requiring a reconstructive tonic in general ill health.

Its ingredients are recognized as being efficient aids for building up bodily strength, restoring impaired tissues to normal working conditions. Enrichening the blood and helping to alternate coughs, colds, bronchitis and similar ailments, also in nervous disorders.

Peptona is pleasant to take and is readily assimilated even by weak Stomachs. Its tonic action adapt it for use in those run down conditions resulting from Coughs and Colds, Disorders of the Throat, Overtired Nerves, Aneema, Poor Blood, Wasting Disorders similar ailments. Also for fortifying the system against such conditions. Price $1.00 Per Bottle.

Prepared by the Riker Laboratories Inc.,
Sold Exclusively in this Vicinity by

E. W. Garber

The Rexall Store Mount Joy, Penna.

THE STORE THAT PAYS YOUR CAR FARE DONOVAN'S EVERYTHING FOR EVERYBODY.

WE PAY YOUR ROUND TRIP CAR FARE ON ALL PURCHASES OF $15 OR MORE. IT COSTS YOU NOTHING. ASK FOR IT.

NO CARE FARE REFUNDED ON PURCHASES OF VICTOR OR COLUMBIA PRODUCTS.