MANY ACCIDENTS DURING THE WEEK

HARRY GARDNER HAD A HAND CUT OFF—JAMES GLATFELTER CRUSHED A THUMB—FRANK STOLL INJURED

There seems to be a jinx hovering over this section of late as there were more accidents within the past week than we've had in months.

Two Fingers Injured

Mr. Jay Kluch, who is employed at the Gray Iron Works, had two fingers crushed by a machine one day last week.

Steel in His Eye

Mr. Ed. Shires, who is employed with the Rollman Manufacturing Co. is nursing a bad ope, the result of a piece of steel lodging therein. Dr. A. F. Snyder is attending him.

Sprained His Knee

Mr. Clarence Brubaker, who was working at Atlantic City, is home with a badly sprained knee. He was bedfast for several days but is up and about again. Dr. Snyder is attending him.

Had His Hand Split

Mr. Walker Brown was picking cherries the other day, when the ladder upon which he was standing, slipped. He put out his hand to protect himself and in so doing a branch of the tree caught between his second and third fingers, splitting his hand, inflicting a very painful wound.

Dislocated His Arm

While picking cherries from a tree near the Market street bridge one day last week, Mr. Frank Stoll, fell off a ladder and dislocated his arm at the elbow. When the ladder fell it struck Mr. John H. Stoll, who was standing nearby, knocking him down. He was slightly bruised.

Thumb Crushed

Mr. James Glatfelter, our local marble dealer, was erecting a monument in the cemetery at Landisville, Monday when he met with an accident. The bar under a heavy stone slipped and the roller under it caught the end of Mr. Glatfelter's thumb, crushing it. The nail was removed and the injury stitched.

Cut a Tendon

Jacob, a son of Reuben Emenheiser, a farmer living a short distance east of Rheem, was tending hay on Monday when he met with an accident. His horse made a sudden jump and the young man was thrown backward and became entangled in the kickers of the toddler, cutting a tendon in his right foot. Dr. W. M. Thome attended him.

Hand Badly Mangled

Mr. John N. Stauffer, of J. N. Stauffer & Bro., who operate an extensive stone quarry east of here, met with a very bad accident yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. He was working at the crusher when his hand caught in the jaws of the heavy machine. Employees there witnessed the accident and immediately went to his assistance, as the crusher was pulling his arm into its jaws. They got hold of his body and pulled him away from the machine. Dr. W. M. Thome attended him and he was immediately removed to the General Hospital at Lancaster. The hand was badly crushed and the arm cut, torn and bruised to the elbow. An effort is being made to save the thumb and index finger.

Had Hand Amputated

Mr. Harry Gardner, who is employed at the Bachman Chocolate Manufacturing Company, at Florin, met with an accident on Monday evening, which will maim him for life. He was at work on a condensing machine when his left hand was accidentally cut off near the wrist. Mr. H. O. O'Neill, who is also employed there, rendered "first aid" and Mr. Gardner was then taken to the General Hospital at Lancaster by Dr. A. F. Snyder. There the arm was amputated a few inches above the wrist. This is the first accident of any kind that has occurred at this plant since it started, as Mr. Bachman is extremely careful in safeguarding his employees against injury.

Kneisley—Hambright

Isaac Kneisley of Chestnut Hill and Miss Bertha Hambright of Cordolia, were married by Rev. H. A. Kunkle, at Columbia. The couple were accompanied by Misses Adeline I. Kneisley and Miss Fannie M. Kneisley, sisters of the bridegroom. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Graef. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Overcome by Gas

Three employees of the Mount Joy Magnesia Company were overcome by gas early the other morning. A leaking valve from the kiln was the cause. The men were taken to their homes but suffered no ill effects therefrom as they resumed their duties again next day.

Few Were Caught

Yesterday the fish season opened in this state and it is now a full time to catch bass, perch, etc. A number of fishermen are out and many are having good success.

A 5-DAYS CHAUTAUQUA TO BE HELD AT LANDISVILLE

On July 4th a five-day community Chautauqua will be inaugurated in the Landisville camping grove. This event was conducted very successfully last summer, and a good attendance is again expected. The affair is being sponsored by prominent citizens of East Hempfield township, particularly residents of Landisville, Salunga, Rohrertown and East Petersburg.

The big tabernacle of the camp ground is to be used for the Chautauqua, and is ideal for this purpose. A splendid program has been arranged for each day. A distinct feature of the event will be the junior department work, especially adapted for boys and girls. There will be a big pageant, a story hour, a sunset play hour, and many new and interesting games.

The program for the first day will be featured by the Del Mar Ladies Quartette, consisting of four young girls of exceptional talent with musical instruments of various sorts; also a lecture on Germany's problem in 1919 by Prof. Howard Spicer, of London, Eng., who has been an eyewitness of various phases of the German revolution.

GAVE A RECITAL AT TOWN MASONIC HOMES

Miss Caroline Nissly, pianist assisted by Miss Mildred Fellenbaum, contralto and Miss Blanche Eshleman, reader, gave a very successful piano recital at the Masonic Homes, Elizabethtown, on Monday evening which was greatly enjoyed by the guests there. The following program was rendered: Nocturne, Love's Dream, No. 3, Liszt; Sonnet, Staub, Etude Melodique, Huss, The Brook (An Old Song), Friml, Valse Caprice, Robinstein, Caroline Nissly; A Winter Lullaby, DeKoven, Mildred Fellenbaum; Scotch Poem, A Deserted Farm, Song of the Sea, From an Indian Lodge, Hungary, Mac Dowell; Caroline Nissly; The Soul of the Violin, Blanche Eshleman; Hungarian Dance, No. 6, Brahms; Tango, in D, Albeniz; "I was a Bird," Henselt, Valse, Op. 42, Chopin, Caroline Nissly; My Jacqueminot, Johnson, Mildred Fellenbaum; Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 6, Liszt, Caroline Nissly.

BIG BARN RAISING AT KINDERHOOK TUESDAY

About one hundred persons, including about sixty-five men, attended a barn raising at Kinderhook Tuesday, the work being in charge of contractor Ephraim Bard, of Silver Spring. At least twenty-five women were present. The barn takes the place of the one destroyed by fire on the farm of William G. Zeamer and the cornerstone bears this inscription: "Built by William G. Zeamer, and his wife, June, 1919." A dinner was served to the whole party which was prepared in the best style and included all the articles of diet found in an old-fashioned Lancaster county meal. At a later date the event will be further observed by the ladies who will hold a barn dance.

Again Buying Horses

The State has bought eighty-eight Texan horses for the equipment of the state police; the purchase being the first since the outbreak of the war. The animals will be distributed at once. Additional horses are being bought for the new troop which is to be formed at Harrisburg under the bill just approved. This will be known as Troop E.

Marriage Licenses

John H. Miller, Landisville, and Nellie D. Jeffries, Lancaster. Harry B. Sheetz and Helen M. Shirk, both of Elizabethtown.

Sheetz—Shirk

Harry B. Sheetz and Miss Helen M. Shirk, both of Elizabethtown, were married on Thursday morning at the home of the bride, by Rev. I. N. Seldomridge, pastor of St. Paul's U. B. Church, Elizabethtown.

Orphans' Court News

These adjudications were filed in the Orphans' Court: Henry S. Stauffer, Rapcho, $4,434.86; Jacob R. Shenk, Mount Joy, $19,816.57; John S. Stauffer, Rapcho, $10,020.40.

A Carload of Olds

Mr. H. S. Newcomer received a carload of Oldsmobiles last week. Mr. H. Crissinger, of near town, received one of them, an eight-cylinder touring.

Does Horse Shoing

Harold Houck, a practical and experienced horse-shoer, is now with John Schaub at his place of business and is prepared to do shoeing of all kinds.

THE HOTELS HERE WILL REMAIN OPEN

SOME WILL EVEN BE OPEN SUNDAYS HEREAFTER AND WILL SELL NEAR BEER, SOFT DRINKS, ETC.

Hotel men throughout the city and county are "on the fence" in regard to the sale of liquor. While a great many of them kept open to sell nothing stronger than 2.75 per cent. beer, others closed fearing to get tangled up in the law.

According to an announcement made at the Revenue Office this morning they are advising hotel men to sell nothing stronger than one-half of one per cent. beverage.

In Mount Joy the hotel men are all living up to the law in every respect and Monday night the lid was clamped down tight on booze. An interview with the hotel men of the town this morning, however, discloses the following:

The LaPierre House is open and doing business and is selling near beer, soft drinks, etc.

The Washington House is doing likewise and the proprietor is thinking of keeping open Sundays hereafter.

The Farmers' Inn is also open, is selling near beer, soft drinks, etc. The proprietor, Mr. A. H. Stampf, will conduct a restaurant in connection and will be open every day of the year here after.

Mr. Henry J. Engle of the Exchange Hotel, has his place open and is doing business but will close Sundays.

Mr. J. W. McGinnis of Hotel McGinnis, lifted his license Monday but will not take the chance of selling 2.75 per cent. beer, says, and has closed for the present.

PENNSY CALLS ON OUR LOCAL FIRE COMPANY

Last evening at 5:40 Chief Engineer Samuel H. Miller, of Friendship Fire Company, was asked by telephone to meet a burning mail car on the P. R. R. at the Old Line siding at Florin, and extinguish it. The car caught fire near Landisville. Mr. Miller, with his Hup, took all the fire company's chemical tanks and hurried to Florin, but the blaze on the burning car was so bad that the train was compelled to back it on a siding at Landisville and the fire company there extinguished it.
