Transmigration of Souls.

A fresh young man was pressing an old gentleman, who evidently felt bored, to give him an illustration of the transmigration of souls, showing how a person's identity might be maintained. At last the old gentleman replied: "Supposing you should die, your soul might appear in a canary bird; when the canary bird died it might appear in a lion or a tiger; again, it might appear in a jackass—and I might stroke its ears and say, 'My dear fellow, you have not changed a bit'"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Senile Marriages.

Some bygone lawmakers would have been in sympathy with the Brooklyn millionaire who maintains that at 86 he was too old to be legally married. In Rome, under the Emperor Augustus, a law was passed forbidding men to marry when they were over 60, and women when they were over 50. Peter the Great, also disapproved of senile marriage, and enacted that no marriage age contract should hold good if either of the contracting parties was over 80 at the time it was entered upon.

The Harpsichord.

This was the instrument out of which our modern piano grew. It was more like a grand than an upright piano and sometimes had two rows of keys, but it was very inferior in power and tone to the modern instrument. It had no pedals, and the wires were not struck by hammers, but were plucked by quills. The compass of the instrument was about four octaves which was gradually increased as it was improved upon.

English May Dances.

The love of the maypole still lingers in the affections of the children of England, and in villages many of the old May dances have been revived, and the gray playgrounds of the cities' schools oftentimes glow with unwonted brightness on May morning, as frocks and ribbons of bright colors and herb-bedecked maypoles still sing the songs and dance the steps which made merry the day through the long centuries.

First Daily Paper.

"March 11th was the anniversary of the birth of the first daily paper in England, to wit, the Daily Courant," says the London Morning Post. "It was issued in the year 1702, by E. Mallet, against the Ditch in Fleet Street," and it was cynically said of the worthy pioneer that he was the earliest journalist to show any jealousy for an accurate statement of fact.

Advice From One Who Knew.

The puppy had been punished and was sulking in a corner. To him came the small daughter of the house, to administer, not comfort, but advice. "You may just as well be good first as last, Buddy," she admonished. "Everybody that belongs to mother has got to mind. I've been through it all—and I know."

Roads Must Be Kept in Repair.

Investment of money in new roads does not become real economy until provision is made for keeping these new roads in condition after they are built. If a new road is built and then allowed to fall into disrepair, much of the original investment is simply wasted.

Learning to Be Miserable.

Blessings on the little folks that have not yet learned to be miserable! Smiles and bright faces are their natural meat and drink. We may all stay just that way if we will. How? By putting the very best there is in us into doing things for other folks.

Mercenary Love.

Two little cousins had quarreled, and the mother of one of them tried to make peace. "Amy," she said, "why did you tell Bobbie you wouldn't be his little sweetheart?" "Cos he didn't ask me," replied Amy indignantly, "till he knowed I had a new dime!"

Looking Ahead.

Charles, upon the arrival of a small brother, was asked if he was not glad that it was a boy so he could play with him. "Humph," came the answer, "by the time he is big enough to play I'll be growed up and married."

Where Papa Smoked.

Father—"I never smoked when I was your age. Will you be able to tell that to your son when you are my age?" Willie—"Not with such a straight face as you do, father. You beat me there."

Musings of Martha.

These wonderful business women we hear so much about may be all right, but I'd like to see one of 'em tackle the job of gettin' up in the mornin' an' gettin' breakfast fer ten before daylight.

Power Pays.

It is said that a sewing machine with an individual motor averages 1,000 stitches a minute, while the old-foot-driven machine accomplishes only 300 or 400 stitches a minute at most.

Good Thing to Remember. For grit in the eye apply a drop or two of castor oil; it relieves the irritation.

For a Quick Buy I have a fine small home in Bamfordville, along the Lancaster and Harrisburg pike, 7 room frame house, concrete porches and walks, frame stable, hog pen, excellent well of water, 1-3-acre of land. Beautiful place to live. Will take $1,500 for a quick sale. J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy. 7-23-61

We are still selling at the same closing out prices in spite of all the advances in price and still going higher. Martin's.

London's Holy Well.

London's holy well may, after all, still be in existence. John Diprose, printer and historian of St. Clement's Dunes, investigated the many rival claims put forward as to its site, including Lyons Inn, the old Dog tavern in Holywell street, and part of the site of the law courts, and found no evidence to support any of them. He suggested that the holy well might be identical with the well covered by the stone-built house in St. Clement's churchyard looking like a burial vault above ground. This, an inscription tells us, was erected in 1839 "to prevent people using a pump that the inhabitants had put up in 1807 over a remarkable well which is 121 feet deep, with 160 feet of water in it."

Equality of Opportunity.

It is the pride of every American that many cherished names, at whose mention our hearts bound, were worn by the sons of poverty who conquered obscurity and became fixed stars in our firmament. There is no horizontal stratification in this country like the rocks of the earth, that holds one class below forevermore, and lets another come to the surface to stay there forever. Our stratification is like the ocean, where every individual drop is free to move, and where from the sternest depths of the deep any drop may come up to glitter on the highest wave that rolls—Garfield.

When Romans Ruled Britain.

There is a showcase in the Roman British section of the British museum that contains the discharge certificates given to soldiers in Britain at the time of the Romans. The bronze certificates are quaintly worded, and record the fact that the holders "discharged honorably after 25 years of service," are granted Roman citizenship if not already held, "and the recognition of their marriage with those who are their wives, or in case of unmarried, any wives they may subsequently marry, provided they only have one each."

The engine, generator and control panel are mounted on one base (the engine connected directly to the generator) making up the set. 16-cell battery for service when engine is not being run, makes up the outfit complete.

The ENGINE is air-cooled, throttle governor, burns kerosene and develops 3 1/4 horse power. Splash-feed oiling system. Kerosene supply tank in base—fuel pumped by a vacuum-feed. Special air-cooling method for engine and generator.

The GENERATOR is supported by two bearings and designed to give tapering charge.

STARTING LEVER on control panel. Device for stopping engine automatically when battery is fully charged.

The SET can be used as an engine only.

Western Electric POWER and LIGHT

DUAL-CONTROL method of battery charging. Battery charging, an extremely delicate and difficult procedure, is made simple by the dual-control method which is a feature of this plant. The engine and generator are designed to give the battery a tapering charge—the engine automatically stopping when charging is completed.

This TAPERING CHARGE allows just the right amount of current to flow into the battery at all times. It is the best way of charging and prolongs the life of the battery. In addition to the regular charging it is well to give the battery from time to time what is known as a soaking charge. This means extra long life to the battery. The battery switch provides for this periodic soaking charge. By the dual-control method the battery is charged as it should be.

EXTRA POWER. This is more than an electric power and light system. The set can be used as an engine only. A 6-in. pulley on the main shaft of the engine may be belted to line shafting and other machinery and run by the engine independent of the rest of the plant.

SPLASH-FEED OILING—the perfect oiling system—best system for plant operation—saves lubrication cost.

BURNS KEROSENE—vacuum-pump system—most economical; most satisfactory from every standpoint.

CLEAN—no oil drippings; no fumes.

Type	Watt Hour Capacity	Price
15-DC-90	2700	$550.00
15-DC-180	5400	645.00

Always figure the size of any battery in terms of Watt Hours as discharged on 8-hour basis. This is the standard for determining battery capacity.
