They are Dr. Charles Brisbin and Dr. Johnson both practicing physicians in Lewistown. They returned Friday, having had an enjoyable trip and visit. Consequence less spitting in the rural homes. Neighbors and friends throughout this section are giving a sour kraut set out to city friends however, one good Lancaster cunition remarked if there is anything ever put on the table that I like, it is sour kraut. If there is one dish that I love more than any other it is unqualifiedly sour kraut. So if there are more city folks of the same mind, now is the time to visit the rural districts.

ELIZABETHTOWN

J. F. Heisey sold his farm of 17 acres to E. R. Hoover at private sale and will shortly move to the borough where he expects to engage in the green goods business. The extensive new Frymeyer bakery on Park street will be open to the public for inspection on Thursday, October 23, when all are invited to come and view this modern bakery. Mrs. Amanda Doubt grew in her lot a California egg plant, 5 feet long that weighed 18 pounds. The stalk has 27 other large egg plants on it. Many called to see this freak of nature as it is worth seeing. Amos H. Herr and wife held a reception at their home in honor of their son Kaufman Herr and wife who were recently married and which proved a very enjoyable occasion. A fine repast was served. The members of the Women's Missionary Society and Otterbein Guild of St. Paul's United Brethren church are rehearsing a sketch entitled "The Missionary Clinic" to be rendered in the church on Friday evening, October 24, to which the public is cordially invited. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Glassmire sailed today from New York for Denmark, where they will enter the mission field in the interest of the Church of the Brethren. They are being entertained by a number of their friends prior to their departure and good wishes are being expressed for a safe voyage over the Atlantic and health, prosperity and good luck in their new abode.

Detwiler $1,000, and $1,000 from the estate of the late B. I. Hiestand. Dr. Houstin Mifflin gave a deed for a lot close to the hospital.

RHEEMS

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. King announce the birth of a daughter, Tuesday. Quite a number of contracts have been made for the 1919 crop of tobacco at 11c through, while some have refused 12c through. Messrs. Peter and Clarence R. Kraybill of State College, Pa., spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kraybill. Sergeant J. Kraybill Bard employed at Steelton, as a civil engineer with the Bethlehem Steel Co., spent Saturday and Sunday at Washington, D. C. Adam Stump, a deputy of the State Board of Health for this district visited this place last week one day which may indicate that there will soon be a tagging time. The state highway department are causing great commotion throughout this vicinity with their large trucks and various kinds of machinery used for the building of concrete road east of this place. Seven autos parked around the S. S. Kraybill general store Sunday evening. Supper time was a good indication that there was something doing on the inside, as they entertained all their children and their families. This has been a favorable season for the fall seeding. Those who put it out early have the fields covered with tall slender stalks. The late seeding will prosper more favorably, as it takes but a few days until the small blades appear. The Penn. Lime, Stone and Cement Company made a successful blast recently. It is supposed that the amount of stone shattered and scattered throughout the quarry exceeds all other blasts. They are operating two crushers in order to meet the demand for crushed stone on the state highway. Cattle are coming this way—each day large droves pass through this place. Rev. S. S. Shearer received 26 head of feeders from the Lancaster stock yards, and Jacob R. Garber received a carload from the same place. While the yield of corn is above the ordinary many farmers desire to have a place to hide it.

MARIETTA

Mrs. Mary Sultzbach, residing on West Market street, is confined to bed for the past two days, from injuries received in falling down a number of stairs at her home. The annual quarterly meeting in the Bethel A. M. E. church, Fairview street, Marietta was held on Sunday. The pastor, Rev. W. W. Witche held three services, morning, afternoon and evening. The principal address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Webster, of Lancaster. An Agreeable Surprise "About three years ago when I was suffering from a severe cold on my lungs and coughed most of the time night and day, I tried a bottle of Chamberlain's Coughs, and was surprised at the promptness with which it gave me relief," writes Mrs. James Brown, Clark Mills, N. Y. Many another has been surprised and pleased with the prompt relief afforded by this remedy. oct. 1-15t. A Real Old Timer Thirteen blizzards, thirty-three snowstorms, a rainy Thanksgiving and two feet of snow on Christmas were promised the people of north-eastern Pennsylvania for next winter by weather prophets. They base their prediction upon the growth of trees and weather phenomena of certain days of the present month. Would This Suit You? I have the 7-room house of Mr. Elmer Heisey, on Fairview street for sale. Here's a cheap home and its in A 1 condition. The price is right for an immediate sale. Present owner will transfer at once and pay rent.

EVERYTHING WENT WRONG SHE SAYS

"For the past two years it just seemed as if everything was wrong with me," said Edna Carr, 2516 Orianna St., Philadelphia. "My stomach refused to digest the most simple foods. I felt dizzy at times and had no energy. Rheumatism added to my misery. "I tried Tanlac and was astonished at the complete change. Today I have a ravenous appetite and food never causes me any suffering. The rheumatic pains left me, too." The stomach regulates the condition of the blood and is therefore the fountain-head of health or disease. Tanlac is intended primarily for this most important organ, but it is not uncommon for persons who have used it to say that Tanlac relieved them of rheumatism and many ailments not generally recognized as having their origin in stomach trouble. The genuine J. I. Gore Co. Tanlac is now being sold by W. D. Chandler & Co., druggists, and leading druggists everywhere.

Reducing the "cost of clothes" for you WE'RE doing it in two ways for you; first, by offering only the best clothes made; Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; the all-wool quality and fine tailoring in them give such long wear--you don't have to buy clothes so often. Second: By basing our present retail prices on what we paid for the goods months ago. Were we to try to duplicate any of this clothing we're selling today, we'd have to pay as much for it at wholesale as you do at retail. So, if we sold clothes to you on the present wholesale basis, we'd be asking a lot more money. Some warm ones YOU'LL find all of the good stylish overcoats here; warm ulsters and great coats for winter; lighter coats for fall wear; full draped models; body tracing designs single and double breasted. Belters—for young men THEY'RE popular; single and double breasted models; yokes, plaits; the livest suits of the season. $15, $18, $20, $25, $30 and $35 Shoes For Men and Boys, $3.00 and up P. E. Getz, Mt. Joy The home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.
