Thousands of Dollars Added to Cattle Profits

OUT of every five bushels of whole grains fed your cattle, one bushel goes to the manure pile without being digested and is a total waste.

But ground feed is all digested. Feeding it means a 20% cut in feed costs, also fatter, higher priced stock. Come in and let us show you without any obligation, how easy it is to get these results with the

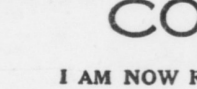

LETZ America's Leading Feed Mill

The fine cutting of the Letz is due to the 848 keen cutting edges of the patented Letz Grinding Plates. In one operation cuts, grinds, pulverizes into finest meal all grains and grasses, wet or dry; and cannot clog.

Grinds corn, shelled or on cob—snapped corn—or complete stalk, ear, leaves, and all. Grinds oats, hulls and all; grinds barley, rye; special attachment for alfalfa, clover, millet, kafir corn and other roughage crops. Grinds into finest flour.

Plates are self-sharpening—can be run together empty for hours without injury—average 2000 bushels of moderately fine cut meal before replacement is necessary.

Grinds the finest flour. Has 10 big exclusive features any one of which makes the Letz superior to any other process. Let us prove it. See a Free Demonstration today.

SURPRISE NEWLY WEDS

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Schatz Elaborately Entertained

From a Coatesville paper James W. Schatz, who married Miss Ada Campbell, of Downingtown, returned with his bride to Coatesville, Sunday afternoon and both were rather warmly greeted in the evening by Mr. Schatz's fellow employees at the Penna. R. R. station.

As was his custom, Mr. Schatz met the 8:10 train that evening. There his friends had arranged to surprise him. He was grabbed and put in a spring wagon decorated with appropriate signs and hauled up and down Main street by a crowd of boys and girls, who pelted him with confetti and banged on tin cans. Some one had seen that the station was safely closed and the party adjourned to a restaurant on Third avenue for refreshments. In a half hour the station was opened as usual, but the party was not over.

Mr. and Mrs. Schatz were going to Downingtown on the 11 o'clock car, after Mr. Schatz was through at the office. However, they were asked to step in Mrs. Morris Wyne's, 220 Railroad street, for a few minutes. A host of friends greeted them with an impromptu reception that was an entire surprise. There was lots of music and the young people danced the rest of the evening in to the early hours. Delicious refreshments were also served.

Mr. and Mrs. Schatz have rented one of the Edelstein apartments, where they expect to move in a few days.

OPEN GAS JET TELLS HOW FOREIGNER DIED

Andrew Kusic, a laborer at the J. E. Baker quarries at Billmyer, was found dead in bed in a room in the Tremont House, Columbia, about 9:15 o'clock Thursday morning.

Kusic registered at the hotel and was assigned to a room on the second floor, on the Walnut street side, and retired about 10 o'clock at night. The room when opened in the morning was filled with illuminating gas, and on his knees, partly clothed, with his head resting on the bed, was Kusic dead. The gas jet was turned on. The window was raised about three inches, and there was also a hole in the window pane, which leads to the belief that the man's death was accidental.

Kusic was about thirty-five years old, and had not been in Billmyer since last Saturday. He had a sum of money in his pockets. Deputy Coroner U. Grant Strine, with his physician, Dr. G. P. Taylor, made an investigation and decided that death was accidental.

Two Were Killed

Two men were killed and another hurt when a trolley car struck an automobile at a crossing near what was formerly Hambricht's hotel on the Columbia pike on Saturday.

Granted Hagerstown License Harry F. McCurdy and Jessie K. Zorger, both of Bainbridge, were granted a marriage license at Hagerstown, Md., on Thursday.

Save Pennies—Waste Dollars

Some users of printing save pennies by getting inferior work and lose dollars through lack of advertising value in the work they get. Printers as a rule charge very reasonable prices, for none of them get rich although nearly all of them work hard.

BAINBRIDGE HOLDS A WELCOME HOME AFFAIR

On Saturday evening the members of the O. U. A. M. Lodge held a banquet in honor of the returned soldiers and Red Cross Nurses of Bainbridge and vicinity.

Members, their wives and friends assembled at M. E. church at 7:30 o'clock and marched to the hall headed by the Bainbridge band. Soldiers, Red Cross Nurses and members marched to the lodge hall. F. B. Smith acting as toast master called on R. A. Hummel for a short prayer.

"America" was sung by the assembly. Short memorial service was held for Oscar Reynolds who died in action. Fifteen minute talks were made by soldiers and Red Cross Nurses. Speeches by R. A. Hummel, J. Kuntzelman, H. W. Good, G. M. Mohr and Mr. H. Shaffer.

After the short services an elaborate menu was served. The four large tables were decorated with the national colors, red, white and blue. Four large tables were in the hall. At one of these were the honor guests: Miss Elizabeth Meckley, Red Cross nurse; Sgt. Chester E. Stump; Privates, Paul Smith, W. Shaffer, Abner Norris, Lawrence Smith.

At this table was a vacant chair draped in mourning for Oscar Reynolds. The evening was spent with pleasure and enjoyment.

FORMER BAINBRIDGE MAN ARRESTED IN CONNECTICUT

Simon Steffy, wanted at Bainbridge, this county, on a charge of passing bad checks, and also wanted in Harrisburg on the same charge and on a charge of deserting his wife and failing to pay her alimony, has been arrested in Bridgeport, Connecticut, by a Harrisburg detective, and will be brought back to that city for a hearing.

Steffy, a former railroader, made his home in Bainbridge for a time. He started passing bad checks, it is said, about one year ago, when things grew too warm for him he left these parts. With his disappearance alimony to his wife stopped. Several days ago Steffy inserted an advertisement in a newspaper that if Mrs. Mary Steffy was alive she would get some money by writing to a Bridgeport address. The Harrisburg official called at the address and arrested Steffy after a year's search.
