NEW BALLOT LAW MAKES IT EASY TO CUT TICKET

C. A. B. Zook, to whom the county is indebted for what toll roads have been freed, and who is a candidate for county commissioner with the view that if elected he can be instrumental in and hasten the freeing of every remaining toll road in the county, has been nominated by the American Party, representing the great body of independent Republican voters in this community.

Under the provisions of the new ballot law which goes into effect for the first time at the coming election it will be easy for either Republicans or Democrats to vote for Zook. Two marks on the ballot will do it, one in the respective party square and another in the square opposite Zook's name. The new law provides that a voter who places an x in the square of his party and desires to vote for a candidate not on his party ticket may do so by placing an x in the square to the right of the candidate's name, and that this ballot must be counted as a vote for such candidate notwithstanding the mark in the party square. This will require the election boards to examine every ticket, as no ballot can be listed as a straight party vote simply because it has an x in the party square. There may be another x on the ballot and it will be the duty of the election officers to examine every ballot to see if there is an additional mark or more thereon.

Zook has issued a statement in which he pledges himself answerable to the people alone in the event of his election, and states he will have his car to the ground to hear what the people want. oct.29-1t

ERISMAN'S CHURCH

A. B. Erb purchased two cows the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Erb and family enjoyed a visit in our capital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Bomberger attended a funeral near White Oak on Sunday.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Metzler and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brubaker left for Montgomery county.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Keener and family visited Jonas Parrott and family near Elizabethtown on Sunday.

Mr. Monroe Metzler and family attended Erb's church and visited his brother Herman Metzler and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Metzler and son Martin and Bertie Brubaker Sundayed with Kerwin Flinchbaugh's in Lebanon county.

A wise man said undeserved praise is dangerous to the weak, unjust blame or criticism may turn even the strong from the right way.

Harvey Metzler's and Harry Rohrer's are enjoying their new cars. The former an Oakland Sedan, the latter a seven passenger Chandler.

John Brubaker has quite a large herd of cows, 22 in all. He'll need a bushel basket to carry his money home from the bank this winter.

The wheat in this vicinity looks fine. The corn about 3/4 husked which is an extra good crop. One of our progressive men H. W. Metzler uses a corn harvester.

On Thursday morning Abram Brubaker quietly, unknown to the neighbors motored to Litz, where he met his intended bride, then journeyed to the courts of Lebanon, where they received a permit to become one, which was later done without the loss of a name.

Licensed to Wed Norman G. Ruhl, Rapho, and Ada M. Winters, Mt. Joy township.

Y. Many another has been surprised and pleased with the prompt relief afforded by this remedy. oct.1-5t

Buy That Overcoat NOW

Conditions in the Clothing Market at no time during the war were as stringent as they are now. Deliveries are away off schedule; Overcoats that should have been in stock a month ago are "somewhere in America" as far as the average merchant is concerned. Keep putting off your purchase, and a month or so from now you may find it hard to get what you want, for stocks are rapidly being depleted, and new stocks are slow coming in. How could it be otherwise with garment-workers on 44-hour week and less operatives than before. Our selection in Overcoats is still very good; how long it will remain so we can't forecast. The best advice we can give, you have read in the headline of this announcement.
