AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM U. B. ORPHANAGE

The editor is in receipt of the following from Lawrence Davies, who is now at the United Brethren Orphanage and Home at Quincey, Franklin Co., Pa.

December 13, 1919
 Dear Sir:—I suppose you remember Mr. Samuel Eby, a former merchant of your town. His widow is now a member of our big family in the old folks home. She still receives your paper and I heard her reading from it on Dec. 10. I cannot see to read myself. I heard by an article in your paper that the month of February, 1866, had no full moon and that it would not occur again for many years. Are you aware that February, 1920 has five Sundays. This is very unusual and you might ask your public school pupils when that last occurred and when it will happen again.

I am now going to ask a favor of you. On behalf of the thirty-seven members of our family, will you kindly ask some store in your town to send us two gallons of nice cranberries with enough sugar to sweeten them. If they can't get the sugar, send the berries, we'll try and get the sweet stuff. We wish to have them for our Xmas dinner.

The oldest member of our family is Rev. Colestock, who is 96 years old. The oldest lady is Mrs. Lucy Otto, who is in her 93 year.

Ed.—If there is any merchant or kind hearted citizen here who cares to comply with Mr. Davies request, we know it will be appreciated. Send to U. B. Orphanage, Quincey, Pa., Rev. H. J. Kitzmiller, Supt.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS WAR-TIME PROHIBITION

Washington, Dec. 15—War-time prohibition was held constitutional today by the Supreme Court in a unanimous decision. Thus vanished the hopes of many for a "wet" holiday time.

No decision was rendered on the cases involving the constitutionality of the Volstead law, the prohibition enforcement act, framed to carry out the intent of the prohibition amendment to the constitution.

In passing, however, Associate Justice Brandeis did hold that the prohibition amendment was binding on the States as well as the Federal Government.

The Court entirely reversed the contention of the "wets" that war-time prohibition was outside the war-time powers of Congress and pointed out that war-time control of food and railroads still were in effect. The decision added one of the final milestones to the long fight to make the country dry.

AMATEURS TO PRESENT FARCE AT MAYTOWN

A home talent play will be rendered by the choir of the Maytown Reformed church, on Saturday evening, January 3. The play, entitled "Graduation Day at Wood Hill School," is a farce in two acts, by Ward Macauley, and contains a serious aspect of human nature. There is a wonderful contrast in temperament of the Jones brothers: Horatio, an ardent optimist and bookworm, while J. Peeper is a disagreeable pessimist, who cares for no one except himself. The contrast between the two characters are applicable to life, and those who see the play cannot help but be benefited. Many other characters, such as we meet on everyday life, helps to make up the cast and there is plenty of humor to produce a laugh for every minute. Special scenery has been painted for the occasion and the entire production is under the direction of Ralph C. Shreman.
