D. B. KIEFFER & CO'S. Annual Fall Opening Sale

Four Carload of Good, Big Western Horses and Colts, 75 Head of Acclimated Horses & Mules SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1920 at 12:15 p. m. at the Farmers' Hotel, Middletown, Pa. Kleinfeiler Bros., Proprs. We will sell the following live stock: 4 Carload of Extra Good, big, rugged and all purpose Western Horses and Colts, shipped direct by W. M. Grove who has taken his time and used his best judgment in buying these 4 load of the best western horses and colts that grow, and he assures that he has bought only the best money can buy. Each and every one the real kind with the size, shape, weight and color that belongs to a good bred draft horse or colt. They will consist of the good, big, rugged feeders, farm chucks, wagon and all purpose horses and colts with class and quality all over. Will have quite a few mated teams in bays, blacks and roans that have the size and weight to themselves. Also some extra good shabby mares with shape all over, and the kind that will make real good drivers and a few high dollar ones, in fact a horse to suit any person in need of a work, business or pleasure horse. These horses range in age from 4 to 10 years old, and have never weighing up to 16 hundred pounds each, all kind of gentle and of greater part of them broke to harness. P. S.—Mr. Grove also advises us that all these horses were bought right off the farm and a great many of them are right out of harness, and you all know that they give more real satisfaction both for profit and use than any other horse shipped, and when finished they have more quality and class and in fact the handiest horse ever worked in harness for farm or general purpose use, and are the easiest horses to fatten and mature with every day work that lives; the most profitable investment a farmer can make as there is less sickness and more endurance and less than any other horse shipped. Ask your neighbors about the W. M. Grove horses, he tells you're the best work horses that grow.

75 Head of Acclimated Horses and Mules of all kinds, consisting of the good, big finished draft horses, wagon horses, farm chucks, single line leaders, all purpose, carriage and fancy driving horses, and a few high dollar ones, in fact a horse to suit any person in need of a work, business or pleasure horse. These horses range in age from 4 to 10 years old, and have never weighing up to 16 hundred pounds each. The mules consist of good, big mated teams, also a few good single mules. We start selling promptly at 12:15 p. m., with the Western Horses and Colts, then the Acclimated Horses and Mules. 30, 60 or 90 days will be taken with good security and paying discount. D. B. KIEFFER & CO. Hess & Brinser, Auct. Sale Saturday, September 25, 1920 at Middletown, Pa.
