A SINGING EVANGELIST IS CONDUCTING SERVICES AT REICH'S

Rev. L. J. Derk, the singing evangelist, opened a series of meetings at Reich's church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Derk has been conducting similar services at East Petersburg and because of his splendid success there during the past two weeks the congregation had induced him to spend last week in their midst also. For this reason he was unable to fill the pulpit at Reich's on Sunday evening as was previously announced. A large congregation had gathered to hear him on Sunday and were consequently disappointed. Rev. Derk is a well-known evangelist, having toured much of the United States and a part of Canada. He has been engaged in this work for fifteen years. He received a part of his training at Moody Bible Institute. He has a very good voice and sings many solos at his meetings. He is a forceful speaker and preaches old-time sermons filled with vim and fire. Wherever he has gone he has left a marked influence behind him. At East Petersburg there were ten conversions up to Saturday night. On that night they had a real old-time revival meeting. Last Spring he conducted services at Rutherford Heights and was very successful. Rev. Derk has a wonderful message for the world and the people of Reich's are privileged in having him as their spiritual director for these meetings.
