The committee on eggs for the Easter donation to the General Hospital of the Landisville and Salunga Auxiliary received them at the homes of Mrs. Amos Cooper and Mrs. Samuel Eby. The donation was a liberal one. Miss Adaline Mower gave a luncheon on Saturday evening at her home. Covers were spread for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nissley, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Strickler, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bach, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kreider, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Biemesderfer and Mr. Raymond Kauffman.

MASTERSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton G. Hollinger pleasantly entertained Prof. and Mrs. H. K. Ober, of Elizabethtown on Sunday at supper. Mrs. Susan Ober of Elizabethtown, spent the week-end with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Abram W. Wolgemuth. Prof. Ober also gave an illustrated lecture on Japan at the Mastersville school house on Friday evening to a packed house. Misses Lizzie Zug of Lancaster and Ada Zug, students of Elizabethtown College spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Zug. Elmer H. Witmer's annual sale of live stock was held on Tuesday afternoon at his stables in town. The crowd was large, bidding was good and fair prices were realized. The Mastersville School taught by Miss Myrtle Collier of Perry County, will close April 6. Miss Collier will take a special course this spring at the Millersville Normal. Rev. Nathan Eshleman of Rheems, delivered a temperance sermon on Sunday morning. All the sessions were well attended and proved to be very interesting and uplifting. The following young folks who were attending Elizabethtown College during the winter term returned to their respective homes to stay: Misses Eva Hollinger, Ruth Stauffer, Ellen Bomberger, Martha Hollinger and Amos Stauffer. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin G. Stauffer entertained the following at their home on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Snively, son Ralph and Edna Fausser, Manheim; Rev. and Mrs. Henry L. Hess, sons Harvey, Paris, Mahlon and daughters Elva and Irene, of near Union Square, and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Stauffer, of town. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe G. Sunday proved to be a red letter day for the Chiques Church of the Brethren when the congregation had the pleasure of listening to a few lectures given by Rev. H. K. Ober, of Elizabethtown. The first lecture was given on Saturday night when Prof. Ober told of his tour to attend the World's Sunday School Convention from "Home to the Convention" Sunday afternoon he spoke on the Work of the convention. "Orange Blossoms" was the subject of the evening lecture and was given in a masterful way which resulted in the conversion of two young men and other being very much impressed. Harry Reed and son Andrew were callers at the Duffy farm last week. Mr. Kendig and family of Stackstown, were Sunday guests at the home of John Shireman and family. E. R. Neideigh and son have eight acres of ground turned for oats sowing, on the Duffy farm back of the Marietta cemetery. Johnny Stum of near the Long Lane purchased a three-year-old stepper down at the Lancaster stock yards last week. Christian Stauffer and wife of Chestnut Hill are on a short visit to their son Christian, who resides in the City of Brotherly Love. Easter Sunday was a delightful day and promenade. Males and females were out in force taking the advantage of it for full. William Neideigh was strictly in it when he gave that Chestnut Hill belle an auto ride to the Rheems spelling bee on Saturday night. Claude Tressler has returned to his parental home again from his Perry county visit, after helping to clean up the surplus cider and attending sales that the county is noted for. Annie, Mary and Ruth Neideigh are enjoying the hospitality of Edna Huber, down at Chestnut Hill, during the brief visit of Mr. Stauffer and wife at Philadelphia. We are pleased to learn that sweet Carrie, Mrs. Tressler's up-to-date domestic is going to retain her position with them instead of relinquishing it. What do you know about that Claud? We enjoyed the hospitality of Alan Zinn, wife and family who reside near Maytown on Thursday evening. The latch string always hangs in the proper position when you hit that gentleman. Their will be blood on the moon if Harry Reed of Anchor ever gets his eyes on the party or parties that confiscated his disc that he purchased at the sale of John Shireman on the Duffy farm. Phares Landis of near Rheems has the proud distinction of wearing a straw hat on that prominent dome of his thus far at this unusual time of the year. Willis Smith, wife and Paul Tressler, all hailing from Middletown, came down to clean Samuel Tressler up on Easter Eggs, Hamburg Steak and other dainties that are to numerous to mention. The Bulletin readers will hear all kinds of news that transpires under our observation, as we do not propose to confine ourselves individually to one place. They will all be of a miscellaneous nature. We are sorry to learn of the prolonged sickness of Adam Strasbach, a good faithful boy who had been under the employment of Jacob E. Williams, farmer near Rheems for a number of years. We wish him a speedy recovery.

RHEEMS

Albert Smith from Donegal spent Monday and Tuesday steaming to-bacco beds for A. S. Bard. Miss Laura Brandt from Lancaster spent Sunday as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brandt. Miss Anna Keller, Mr. Clarence R. Kraybill, students at State College, Pa., spent the Easter vacation with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kraybill, daughter Ada and son Clarence spent Good Friday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Kraybill in Bucks County. Weaver attended a large fitting last Tuesday at East Petersburg, Pa., where Mr. and Mrs. John K. Weaver became citizens of that place. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Greider, daughters Elizabeth, Martha and Alida enjoyed an auto ride to Lancaster city last Saturday where they combined business with pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Greiner fitted from the Mrs. Laura Keller property to their handsome bungalow on College Avenue, Elizabethtown, which they purchased from Miss Anna W. Wolgemuth. Easter Sunday was an ideal day for the ladies. The temperature being up to 86 and a clear sky which made it quite comfortable for them to appear in their Easter apparel without any fear of being caught in an Easter shower. Miss Elizabeth W. Greider has resigned as a teacher of the Rheems school in order to become a student in an Indiana College. Miss Mary Rutt fills the vacancy, having taken effect Monday, Mar. 28. Monday, Mar. 28 a horse was brought to the village smith shop in this place with a fly net on. The following morning we feel safe to say the animal appreciated a woolen blanket upon his back as the temperature dropped fifty degrees in ten hours. The center of attraction in this vicinity on Saturday was the Spelling Bee and entertainment in the Rheems schoolhouse. Starting room was at a premium. The exercises and program were quite interesting which continued for more than two hours. The proceeds were for the far East Sufferers.
