Miss Buckwalter riding in the ame direction as the truck was raveling, evidently did not see Mr. orstick's signal and was about to ass the truck on the left side. As turned to her left of the policean, Mr. Horstick also turned, and he front of the truck knocked the cyclist down, the front wheel passing ver her head, crushing her skull and fracturing her jaw. Mr. Horstick stopped the truck before the rear wheels reached the unfortunate girl. The body was taken from beneath the truck by Dr. W. M. Thome, re-moved to her home and later to the indertaking parlors of Mr. H. C. Brunner. Death was instantaneous. Deputy Coroner Dr. J. J. Newpher and his physician Dr. W. M. Thome ield an inquest at Brunner's morgue that evening. The following were the jurymen: Messrs. M. C. Bowman, H. E. Klugh, Dr. E. W. Garber, Levi N. Stauffer, Isaiah Sumpman and Dr. James P. Ziegler. THE DETOUR TO SALUNGA IS TO BE IMPROVED BORD COUNCIL IN The State Highway Department has informed the Retail Merchants' committee of the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce that it is "making strenuous efforts to see that the detour between Salunga and Mt. Joy, on the Lancaster-Harrisburg high way, is maintained properly." The communication from the department to the retailers' committee was in reply to the latter's protest against the bad condition of the deour which, it was pointed out, was causing many persons on the Harris-burg end of the detour, who are normally Lancaster shoppers, to do ior Class of the Mount Joy High their buying in the capital city. "District Engineer Eichelberger has also been in correspondence with eycle and was on her way home then the accident occurred at about 30 p. m. by the second state of the Board of Health. It stated to the merchants' protest, "and we are giving the complaint immediate of a fifty par carbon in the state of the board of Health.
