LIEUT. NEWPHER WAS BURIED HERE

MOUNT JOY MOURNS LOSS OVER REMAINS OF ITS FIRST RETURNED SOLDIER'S BODY ON FRIDAY

More respect and such unanimity could not have been shown anywhere, where than was shown here on Friday during the military funeral of one of this town's war heroes and patriots, First Lieutenant James O. Newpher, who was killed in France Sept. 29, 1918.

When President Wilson issued his first call for volunteers Mr. James O. Newpher was among the first to accept. He was sent to an officers training camp, completed his course of instruction, at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., graduating as a First Lieutenant, and was soon thereafter assigned for duty in the regular army, being assigned to the 11th Infantry, Company C, 5th Division. An account of his death is best told in a letter from Lieutenant Burkhardt, who was at the training camps at Fort Niagara and Fort Oglethorpe with Lieutenant Newpher and who was with the same company in France when he met his death. His letter follows: "I was nearly knocked off the chair last night when I learned that James Newpher was killed. His regiment was located quite close to the beach land, and ever since their arrival at that station (Continued on page 2)

Better Remove the Signs

We would suggest that the advertisements of the Agricultural Trust Company, of Lancaster, be removed from the various trolley cars in the county. The ads make mention of the unusual hours the bank is open for the accommodation of patrons. There are many who wish this were true.

Much Cheaper Eats

The National Biscuit Company has announced a sweeping reduction on its entire line, both packages and bulk, which plus previous reductions generally cuts away from 65 per cent. to 70 per cent. of the advance during the war period.

MUCH DISCUSSION ON POSTMASTER SITUATION

There is much discussion relative to the postmastership in many towns throughout the county just at this time. The department had advertised that it would hold examinations at New Holland on Friday but for some reason or other the Civil service examiners did not make their appearance. There were three applicants. Eli Hess was the Wilson appointee there but the senate refused to confirm the appointment and since then Isaac Snader has been appointed acting postmaster.

In Mount Joy the situation is quite similar. Months ago Mr. J. Willis Freed, postmaster here, was appointed. The senate has also refused to confirm this appointment and although Mr. Freed's term has expired, no acting postmaster has been named here and he is holding over.

Several weeks ago we published a list of applicants who are willing to succeed Mr. Freed. Since then the name of Dr. John J. Newpher has been mentioned with much favorable comment. We understand the doctor's "hat is in the ring."
