PUBLIC SALE
— of —
2 CARLOADS OF WESTERN HORSES AND COLTS AND 30 HEAD OF ACCLIMATED HORSES

ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1921
At 1 O'clock P. M.

At the Farmer's Hotel Kleinfelder Bros., Props., Middletown, Pa., we will sell the following live stock:
2 Carloads of Real W. M. Grove Western Horses and Colts. These Colts range from 2 to 5 year old, and consist of the best that grow. More quality every way you take them, than any horse shipped east, more endurance, easily broken and better matured than any other horse. They mature faster with work and with less feed, and the easiest horse to finish for the market, and with less sickness. Last but not least, bought at the right price, and sold for a less profit than the average. As for bone foot, color and the right make up, they will show for themselves day of sale. Plenty of mated teams of all colors and both sexes.

We had expected to leave these horses in the West for a few weeks longer, but on account of the call for a strike on Nov. 30th, and a likelihood of all railroads being tied up for an indefinite time, we thought it better to get back home, and this may be the only opportunity for you to get the W. M. Grove Horses or Colts (the best that grow) this season.

30 Head of All Kinds of Horses, from 4 to 15 years, good, bad and indifferent, a good selection of all kinds.

Notes for 30, 60 or 90 days will be taken, with good security, and paying discount.
