THIS WEATHER PROPHECY SEES COLD, STORMY WINTER

Everybody get out your fur hats and scarves, and get ready for long-delayed order for coal, and bring down the snow shovel from the attic.

This is the advice of Gus Luckenbill, who foresees sleet this week, a blizzard next week, a white Christmas, and a regular old-time rough winter.

Gus is enthroned in a little witch box at Philadelphia. He has been there fifty-two years, and has been predicting the weather for fifteen years. He says he gets his dope from the moon, the stars and the planets.

"December 5 will be unsettled," says Gus; "December 6 will be cloudy; December 7, generally fair. The 8th and 9th will see a cold rain, accompanied by sleet. The 10th and 11th will be fair. From the 12th to the 14th a terrific blizzard will rage all over the country tying up transportation lines and crippling industry. From December 15 to the 20th it will be fair and cold. Between the 21st and 23rd snow will fall, giving the country a white Christmas. Christmas Day will be cloudy, followed by a severe cold spell before New Year's Day."

"In January there will be seven severe snowfalls. This snow will remain on the ground until the first real thaw of spring in early April."

LOCALS WALLOP MIDDLETOWN TEAM

A VERY ROUGH GAME WAS PLAYED BEFORE A BANNER CROWD—MOUNT JOY WINS EASILY

The Mount Joy American Legion foot ball team journeyed to Middletown on Saturday afternoon and banded Middletown the worst losing they received in years by a score of 40 to 6. Two thousand people witnessed the game.

Mount Joy outlasted their much heavier opponents and from the very start of the game the Legion boys showed that they were the better foot ball machine.

The game ended in a near riot, when about four minutes before the end of the game, Dannel, the Mt. Joy halfback received a kick and ran through the entire Middletown team for a touchdown. Hastings who played a clean game was in danger throughout the entire contest of being crippled by the Middletown players, was attacked by Lesher, the captain. Players and spectators took up the fight and a merry battle ensued.

Mount Joy won the toss and received, Dannel running the ball back to the one yard line where Mt. Joy lost it on downs. Middletown fumbled on the first play and Brown recovered the ball and ran for a touchdown.
