ENTERTAINMENT OF MERIT BY LANDISVILLE JUNIORS

An entertainment of unusual merit was given in the Landisville High School last Friday evening by the Junior class assisted by several Freshmen. A good sized audience was present in spite of the rain storm and the program was a pronounced success. There were two classes in spelling, one for children taught by Miss Musser and one open to every-one taught by Miss Steinbaugh. Readings were given by Katherine Augst and Elizabeth Kreider; recitations by Ida Benedict and Laura Herr; an instrumental duet, Frances Hollinger and Elizabeth Kreider. Violin solo, Earl Mumma, cornet duets, the Misses Erdman, of Manheim.

The big feature of the evening was the presentation of two playlets in which all members of the class took part, assisted by Howard Kreider, Amos Herr and George Shenk, of the Freshmen class. Both plays were humorous and were thoroughly appreciated by the audience. The characters were as follows: for A Double Proposal, "Cyrus Morrison, farmer," Amos Herr; "William Morrison," Howard Kreider; "Jonas Metherhue, hired man," George Shenk; "Miss Dorothy Sweet, a young widow," Laura Herr; "Miss Mary Jane Trip maiden lady not from choice," Ruth Auit; "Grace," Catherine Augst; "Annie West," Elizabeth Kreider; "May Newton," Frances Hollinger; "Doris Keith," Grace Dorstler. Parts taken in "His Model Wife" were, "Arthur Everett, an artist," Jay Dombach; "Robert Parks, his chum," Edward Stauffer; "Representative John H. Potts," Clyde Hottenstein; "Miss Agnes MacPherson, Everett's aunt," Ada Gamber; "Mrs. Mumford Wells, society matron," Elizabeth Herr; "Miss Eleanor Perry, Park's cousin," Ruth Musser; "Miss Bella Potts, heiress," Catherine Augst; "Wilhelmina, a model," Ida Benedict; "Patsy, whose mother washes," Irene Heisey; "Mary a maid," Grace Dorstler.

A Wonderful Bargain have had in several years. A double lot, corner, good residential section, with 3-story brick house, modern in every respect, new heating plant, electric lights, bath, garage. Replacement cost today, $20,000. Will take $7,500 and give possession any time. Now don't think too long but act. Call or phone Jno. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Salesmen!

THE Salesman becomes more efficient when equipped with a Ford Runabout; he covers more territory, visits more prospects and as a result, closes more sales.

No waiting for trains, or for busses to carry him to towns where trains don't go. The salesman driving his Ford Runabout is continually on the job—after business. And at the new low price of $325.00, the Ford Runabout offers transportation at an exceptionally low cost per mile.

Phone us, and let us tell you how other concerns have found it good business to equip their salesmen with Ford Runabouts.

ROCK POINT

Russel Shop of near Rock Point slaughtered two fine porkers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams of near Rheems, were transacting business in Marietta last week.

William S. Neidigh, wife and little daughter Mary, of near Campbells town, were circulating in our midst on Saturday.

Mr. George Endslo, of Donegal Springs, succeeded in securing a deer last week up along his old familiar haunts along the hills north of New Germantown.

Mr. Fry furniture dealer of Marietta installed a new secretary in the home of Mr. E. R. Neidigh last week it being a useful element in his business transactions.

Mrs. S. H. Tressler received word from her son Claud, who has gone West, that he intends returning to his parental home in a few weeks after visiting his uncles, cousins and a few aunts located in different sections.

Mr. Willis Smith and wife, Paul Tressler of Middletown, Luther Rhoads and wife of Marietta, Mrs. Howard Landis and daughter Florence of Rheems, were Sunday visitors to the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tressler.

Charles Berrier, E. R. Neidigh and your scribe were deeply interested in Arthur Garber's report over at his store on Saturday, detailing his long distance movements in quest of a deer and unfortunately was unable to capture the coveted prize.

Two large deer hanging suspended one in front of Stump & Mueller's hardware store and the other at McCaskey's store, in Marietta, shot by Jacob Rutherford and Engle Mumma of Maytown up in Perry county, attracted the attention of many last week.

Magistrate Jacob H. Zeller, of Mt. Joy, requested me to itemize two large porkers that Marshall Bowers had killed last week for Charles Beaton, who tenants the Schock estate farm back of Mount Joy. They tipped the beam at 469 and 259 pounds respectively and they were not of a Perry county variety, although it required the attention of a Perry county man to make them produce.

Here's a Bargain

I have just listed a very desirable truck farm on Longenecker road, Mt. Joy, that will be sold quick. About six acres of excellent land, large frame house, barn, tobacco shed and cellar, an abundance of fruit, a good investment for any one. Good location for warehouse or business. Convenient to industries, etc. Has bore water, light. Act quick if interested. Jno. Schroll, Realtor, Mt. Joy, Pa.

Two Good Farms I have two exceptionally good tobacco farms in East Donegal that I can sell right. They contain 81 and 89 acres. The largest can be bought for only $150 per acre. Three-fourths of the money can remain on mortgage. Both these farms are close to markets and are money makers. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

The regular meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Louisa Frank last Thursday afternoon.
