Bachman and Clerk J. H. Zeller present. Chairman Fellenbaum asked the clerk to read the minutes of the last regular meeting. Dr. Garber immediately arose and said that there were several irregularities at the last meeting and asked to have the minutes of all the regular and special meetings during December read. The chair ordered them read. These were minutes that the old Council of last year had already read and approved. They were as follows: Regular meeting of Dec. 5, and special meetings of Dec. 12, 28, and 31. After the reading of the minutes of each meeting, the chair asked if there were any corrections. None were offered and all were, upon motion, "approved." The minutes of the regular meeting of Jan. 2 were also read and approved.

Burgess Bachman was instructed to collect these taxes.

Mr. Frank Yost, the newly appointed constable in the West Ward, thru a communication, asked Council to furnish him with a revolver, handcuffs, black-jack and a badge. The matter was left in the hands of the Property committee.

The report of Burgess Bachman showed collections to the amount of $60.00 the past month and the receipt of $40.00 worth of coupons from the Strickler Coal Fund. Volstead Act Unheard Of

There were more drunks in the Lancaster police station over Sunday than they have had there in weeks, and the record for the entire week surpassed anything on record for years. Must have unearthed a new still. Wonder when prohibition goes into effect there?

PROF. A. P. MYLIN NAMED CO. SUPER.

WILL SUCCEED THE LATE DR. DANIEL FLEISHER AND ASSUMES HIS DUTIES NEXT MONDAY MORNING

Last week the Mount Joy Boro Schools were again used as the stepping stone for the advancement of its principal, Prof. Arthur P. Mylin, who after having charge of our schools the past seven years was appointed Superintendent of the schools of Lancaster County to succeed the late Dr. Daniel Fleisher. He will assume his duties next Monday.

Mr. Mylin was born in Parkersburg, Chester county. When he was one year old, his parents moved to Lancaster county and settled at Leaman place. Mr. Mylin entered the grammar schools of Leaman Place and after completing his studies there entered the Paradise High school. He later entered Franklin & Marshall Academy in preparation for entrance to Franklin & Marshall college, from which institution he was graduated in the class of 1912.

From college he went to the Rothsville where he was principal, serving there for a time until he accepted the position as head of the department of Science in the Stroudsburg Normal school. At this institution Mr. Mylin developed a crack base ball team. He then came here having been elected principal of our public school when war was declared, he went to Camp Taylor, where he served with the Field Artillery as an instructor. He was in line for a commission when the Armistice was signed and he was discharged. He returned to this place and resumed his former post and has been in that position since that time.

Mr. Mylin's appointment comes after a spirited race for the post. Among the men whose names were considered were Prof. D. W. Geist, who was assistant to the late Superintendent Fleisher. Others were Professor Gaige, Millersville State Normal and John G. Simons, former school man, a member of the Lancaster County bar.

The selection of Prof. Mylin is most decidedly a popular one. As supervising principal of our schools he won a reputation for himself as an educator and organizer. His qualifications are many. He is a College graduate, a world war veteran and a teacher of experience. He is but a young man and has our best wishes for "making good."

Just a Trifle Slow

The ladies of Lancaster evidently were "beaten to it" by the fair ones of York. A daily of last evening calls attention to the fact that Monday afternoon Lancaster ladies appeared on its streets wearing "gooshes," the tops of which were decorated with tiny bells. The writer saw this same thing at York (yet they say York is slow) just five weeks ago.

Another Scarlet Fever Case

Another case of scarlet fever has developed in this vicinity. Christian, Mrs. Harry Flory, of near the Union School House, in East Donegal, is the victim. Dr. A. F. Snyder, of this place is the attending physician.

Suit on Note
