Real Estate

Within the past few days I have listed some "real bargains" in rural real estate, and when I say bargains I mean it.

Here You Are

Another Good One

A 70-acre farm, 50 acres tillable and 20 acres pasture, on state highway adjoining Elizabethtown bore, good house, newly remodeled and very modern barn for 45 head of stock, water in every stall, concrete floors and entries, new silo containing nearly 1,000 worth of feed, new leg sty, shedding for tobacco, wagon shed, large poultry house, slate roofs on nearly all buildings, good water.

THINK OF THIS

In addition to the farm here's what goes with it. Four Head of Horses, from 4 to 8 yrs old. 12 Head of Cows, some registered, 5 Chester White Sows, some with pigs, 1 Boar, 200 Chickens, about 40 Ducks. A large and complete line of farm implements, including 4 wagons, reaper, tobacco planter, harrows, plows, in fact everything. 9,000 tobacco lath. Place will bear closest inspection. If interested get busy as this proposition can't last long.

I have for sale the former hotel property at Union Square which includes an 11-room house, ice house, chicken house, lots of shedding, cattle yards, scales, and 31 acres of gravel land. Now who wants this entire outfit very cheap? Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Gothamites Take to Importation From London, Though It Seems Rather a Chitish Pastime.

There's a new dance stunt in town it's the balloon dance and it's from dear old London, don't you know. It's a bit of all right, too. A few nights ago it was introduced at the Rendezvous—one of Broad-way's most exclusive supper clubs. And it made a tremendous hit, says the New York World. A toy balloon is tied to the ankle of each dancer of the fair sex and the idea is to get through a close-fitting (extort or a toddle with the balloon still intact. That is the girl's idea. The idea of the men dancers is to break as many balloons as possible without stepping out of the dance. On a crowded floor the balloons have about as much chance as a snowball in well, a warmer place than New York. However, a prize is offered to the woman who can emerge from the maze of the dance with her balloon still flying. One young lady at the Rendezvous actually won the prize. But the popping of the colored spheres reminded one of the popping of champagne works. Anyway, it's a great boon for the balloon manufacturers. For the dance floors of the average toffite sanctuary are so small that the only way to keep off one's partner's balloon is to step on her feet—and that is not very popular with the fair sex.

RETURNING TO SWORD PLAY

New York Children in Their Games, Seem to Have Abandoned "Modern Warfare."

Playwrights and theatrical producers predict the return of the costume play and the youngsters of New York seem to have realized this prophecy in their games. Wooden swords, umbrella rib daggers and crossbows have supplanted dummy rifles and barrel stave artillery pieces that were popularized by the World war.

Wooden swords, umbrella rib daggers and crossbows have supplanted dummy rifles and barrel stave artillery pieces that were popularized by the World war. Sword play, with hickory rapiers and fragile crate-cover cutlasses seem to have asserted a romantic appeal over infantry charges and vocal "bing! bangs!" The vacant lot is no longer a man's land, but a rock-strewn heath or a tin can infested moor, where Frank and Johnny would "do each other in mortal combat as Spandard and Dutchman in the lowlands."

There is more realism in the sword play in the pistol, with which one must say "Bang!" "Bang!" Rock piles have become castles after the fashion of the Arthurian legends and lance-armed knights guard drawbridges of planks or old doors over imitation moats.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

One of Great City's Tragedies.

An old-time tragedy of the central markets, Paris, has been recalled by the death at an advanced age of a once rich woman, who for many years made a poor living there overturning garbage cans and selling anything of value she might be able to find there. Her name was unknown, and for nearly half a century she was merely called "Princess." Her years ago it was fashionable for persons of high society in Paris to pass a riotous night in the cafes and stalls of the market. On one occasion a fashionable woman, one of a gay party, was robbed of money and jewels, personally by her escort. Left penniless, she refused, for reasons easily surmised, to communicate with her husband or her family in central France. Instead she sought employment and gradually fell into extreme poverty. She got her nickname owing to her invariable habit, when asked about her former life, of replying: "Ask no questions; I am a princess from a far country."

Smiling Porches. More houses are being built with inclosed porches than ever before; you may walk down long streets of dear little homes whose porches smile at you through tiny panes of glass. You pass medium-sized places with grounds, comfortable houses set back from the road, and large mansions—in every one somewhere you catch the glimpse of an enclosed porch-room. Old-fashioned houses follow suit, and back of the rounded Colonial pillars are fitted small-paned glass partitions that inclose the porch as efficiently as though it had been built that way in the beginning. In the summer these are lifted out, leaving the porch as before.—The Designer.

"And There Wasn't the Slightest Smell From Dead Rats." Writes John Simpkins, farmer of Annandale, N. J.: "Rats were costing me hundreds yearly; tried dogs, ferrets, poison, could not get rid of them. Bought $1.25 pkg. of RAT-SNAP (5 akes.) Used half, got a live rat in cage. Dead ones plenty. I like RAT-SNAP because after killing rats it dries them up—leaves no smell." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.21. Sold and guaranteed by H. S. Newcomer Dr. W. D. Chandler, Brown Bros. and Dr. E. W. Garber, Mount Joy.

SURE TO HELP SICK WOMEN

Mrs. Baker, So Much Benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Anxious to Help Others

Lebanon, Indiana.—"I was completely run down from women's troubles and stomach trouble and for a long time was hardly able to do my work. I had some friends who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me about it. I know what it has done for me and I recommend it to others, as I am sure it will be a great help to all sick women. It is a wonderful medicine, and I give you permission to use my testimonial and my photograph."—Mrs. EMMA BAKER, 310 S. East St., Lebanon, Indiana.

These letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ought to convince women of the great worth of this medicine in the treatment of ailments to which they are often subject. Mrs. Baker calls it "a wonderful medicine." If you are suffering from troubles women often have, or feel all run down, without any ambition or energy for your regular work, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a natural restorative and should help you as it has Mrs. Baker and many, many other women.
