

RHEEMS

Miss Eva Beck of Marietta spent the week-end as guest of Miss Fannie Heisey.

Mr. E. L. Heisey of Elizabethtown spent Sunday evening with his father Jacob W. Heisey.

Miss Bertha B. Heisey spent a few days at Wrightsville, visiting her brother Henry and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gophart of Mount Joy were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Henry of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Musser Jr. spent last Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos E. Garber.

The April Shower, Monday 3 P. M. came in May, but was quite refreshing, accompanied by some hail.

Mrs. William H. Hassinger of Florin spent a day last week with her daughter, Mrs. Ira W. Garber and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Entoline spent last Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaufman at Neffsville, Pa.

Amos B. Hess is applying a coat of paint to his do-it's house when completed it will make a beautiful appearance.

Messrs. Walter Vernon and Leroy Stahl of Newtown were guests of the I. W. Garber family on Church street last Sunday.

The Rev. William Rupp from West Minister, Md., and Rev. H. H. Ziegler Shamokin, attended the Rheems services last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos B. Hess attended the series of evening meetings at Risser's church last week conducted by Rev. John Hess of near Lititz.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos E. Garber and Dorothy spent last Sunday at the Welsh Mountain Mission where they have 38 colored pupils in one Sunday School class.

Mrs. Harry Engle of Mt. Joy, wife of the superintendent of the Penn Lime Stone and Cement Co., paid a short visit to her uncle, Mr. Jos. W. Kraybill, last week.

John Horstick, truck driver, No. 1 of the D. G. Brinser delivery, loads 84 bales of hay for a modern load, ten tons fills a large forty car. John don't enjoy many trips.

Mr. Hiram Shonk, the Village Blacksmith and automobile decorator, and son Paris attended a three days Convention at Harrisburg, held by the Horse Shoers Association last week.

Mr. John G. Reist prominent tobacco packing association promoter of Mount Joy transacted business at the down wagon factory and the John C. Smith who a right shop last Monday afternoon.

The heavy rains of last week made it quite convenient for the farmers to prepare their corn ground and tobacco fields. The practical farmers in this vicinity usually plant about May 10th to the 20th.

Mr. Jos. W. Kraybill, the oldest resident of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bard spent one day as the guests of Reuben G. Kauffman and Mr. and Mrs. Elam Stauffer near Mechanicville, Pa.

Mr. John Gruber of Mt. Joy purchased from the Enterline Garage at this place last week a Saxon Duplex Coupe 1922 Model. Harry Landis of near Lititz purchased a Saxon Duplex sport model 1922.

Mr. Harry Ober, the Veteran Register assessor of West Donegal township, made his semi annual trip through this place last week finding quite a number of lady voters who are quite anxious to establish honest government.

The constant moving of the automobile trucks and motor vehicles on the highway, the public must agree that the drivers have improved one hundred percent in avoiding accidents. May the careful work continue.

Quite natural to hear some of the same young men express a desire to go abroad to the World War Zone to look out various examples to them in the land of honey and to this day shun to soldiers who brought about peaceful conditions.

P. R. trackmen who have orders to work short time during the month of May have accepted the contract to make extensive improvements to the Penn Lime Stone Co. sidings as they are in need of more tracks to operate their crushing plant to its full capacity.

The demand for hay and straw from the New England states has brought about a scarcity in this section. D. G. Brinser, the oldest merchant at this end of the County, has made daily shipments the past month, some from this place. Lawn, Mt. Joy, Landisville and Manheim.

Rev. J. Hershey of Lititz, Pa. is conducting a series of evening meetings in the Rheems church of the Brethren attracting a large audience each evening with favorable prospects that his sermons have dropped upon fertile spots that may bring about quite a number of conversions.

Mr. W. R. Hersh of East Donegal township, thresher, baler thresher, and a R. F. D. truck driver, made a successful trip to Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa. one day last week for thoroughbred holstein cattle for Norman E. Garber, near this place, whose herd is attracting the farmers in this section. One cow that Mr. Hersh hauled is valued at $500.00.

Mothers day was appropriately observed Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Susan G. Heisey of this place by a surprise gathering in honor of her 58th birthday anniversary. A social hour including music followed by refreshments served to all present. A large cake made by the daughters containing 58 candies, the name mother 58 years and decorated with the white flower emblem of Mothers Day was presented to mother which was highly appreciated and quite anxious to divide the cake to the following persons present: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Heisey, Grandfather Jacob W. Heisey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Heisey and son William Henry, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Brennan and son J. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Amos M. Brennan, son Henry and daughter Martha, Mr. and Mrs. Abram G. Brennan and son Chester, Mrs. Mary

MRS. HATFIELD SABINA, OHIO

In Pitiable Condition when she Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sabina, Ohio.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and irregularity. I was weak and nervous and could hardly stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal. I was this way for about a year and had tried several medicines and had a physician, but to no avail. My sister was taking your medicine and finally induced me to try it. I now feel fine and can do my household work without any trouble at all. You can use this letter for the sake of others if you wish."—Mrs. WELDON G. HATFIELD, R. R. 3, Sabina, Ohio.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so weak and nervous that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken when you first notice such symptoms as nervousness, backache, weakness and irregularity. It will help you and prevent more serious trouble. Give it a fair trial. It surely helped Mrs. Hatfield, just as it has many, many other women.

Nissly, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Stauffer, daughter Jeanette and son Budde, Mr. Cyrus Stauffer, Mr. A. Paul of Elizabethtown, Mrs. Edith Diefenbaugh, Ruth Diefenbaugh, Anna Burg, Eva Peck, Messrs. Arthur Jacob and Winfield Heisey, Misses Bertha, Grace and Fannie, Ruth Heisey, Paul W. Heisey of Fresno, California and sister Anna of Washington, D. C. sent birthday greetings.

Announcement was made last evening at the meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Parish that the Annual Spring Rally of the Lancaster County Holy Name Union will be held at Elizabethtown, Sunday afternoon, May 28. The society will attend in a body. Arrangements have been made to run special cars.

Rally at Elizabethtown

Rooster With Two Hearts.

While cleaning a rooster a few days ago, says a Manitoba reeler, she found the bird had two hearts. One was a little bit smaller, otherwise they were worth alike, joined together by a tiny tube.

Blind Trips.

"The mystery riders have come to town," says the London Daily Express. "They do not form a secret society or constitute a menace to the public welfare. They are law-abiding citizens who have a weakness for 'taking a chance.' They are, in short, charabanc trippers who set out under sealed orders."

Queer Taste Accounted For.

Coming home from a party late one bright moonlight night, I did not light a lamp on entering the house. Feeling hungry, I went to the pantry for a lunch. Taking a slice of bread, I spread it with what I supposed to be plum marmalade. Proceeding to the kitchen, I took a bite of my sandwich and it did not taste like those my mother puts up in my school lunch. Lighting a lamp I discovered I had used soft soap instead of marmalade.—Chicago Journal.

Antarctic Discoveries.

J. L. Cope, the explorer, returned to Plymouth, England, a year ahead of schedule; he had discovered extensive, workable mineral deposits and gained valuable knowledge relating to fisheries, including the secret migrating place of whales. After exploiting these finds he plans to go back, taking his wife with him, in which case she will be the first woman to set foot on the antarctic continent.—Scientific American.

A Good Truck Farm.

I have a 4 1/2-acre truck farm close to market, best limestone land, 9-room brick house with bath, slate roof; frame barn with slate roof, tobacco shed, ice house, chicken house and hog pen, fruit wonderful garden. Property is located on a pike. Will sell for less than it would cost to build a house like the one on the premises. Act quick if you want it. J. E. Schroll, Mount Joy.

Who War's This?

Is there a tenant farmer around here that wants to make as much money with less work than he is doing now? Here you are. A 30-acre farm 1/2 mile from Manheim, best of gravel land, good buildings, an abundance of fruit, fine water. This would make a dandy truck farm as it is close to markets. Don't delay; act quick as I am going to turn this farm—Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Must Know a Heap.

"A librarian has to know all the books in the world, I suppose?" "Yes, and many that do not exist. A lady just asked me for the 'Count of Monte Carlo.'—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Man of Mixed Emotions.

A Newark man went home with a white carnation wreath "to my beloved wife, from her loving husband," and then tried to kill her with a hatchet.—Exchange.

Blind Trips.

"The mystery riders have come to town," says the London Daily Express. "They do not form a secret society or constitute a menace to the public welfare. They are law-abiding citizens who have a weakness for 'taking a chance.' They are, in short, charabanc trippers who set out under sealed orders."

Queer Taste Accounted For.

Coming home from a party late one bright moonlight night, I did not light a lamp on entering the house. Feeling hungry, I went to the pantry for a lunch. Taking a slice of bread, I spread it with what I supposed to be plum marmalade. Proceeding to the kitchen, I took a bite of my sandwich and it did not taste like those my mother puts up in my school lunch. Lighting a lamp I discovered I had used soft soap instead of marmalade.—Chicago Journal.

Antarctic Discoveries.

J. L. Cope, the explorer, returned to Plymouth, England, a year ahead of schedule; he had discovered extensive, workable mineral deposits and gained valuable knowledge relating to fisheries, including the secret migrating place of whales. After exploiting these finds he plans to go back, taking his wife with him, in which case she will be the first woman to set foot on the antarctic continent.—Scientific American.

A Good Truck Farm.

I have a 4 1/2-acre truck farm close to market, best limestone land, 9-room brick house with bath, slate roof; frame barn with slate roof, tobacco shed, ice house, chicken house and hog pen, fruit wonderful garden. Property is located on a pike. Will sell for less than it would cost to build a house like the one on the premises. Act quick if you want it. J. E. Schroll, Mount Joy.

Who War's This?

Is there a tenant farmer around here that wants to make as much money with less work than he is doing now? Here you are. A 30-acre farm 1/2 mile from Manheim, best of gravel land, good buildings, an abundance of fruit, fine water. This would make a dandy truck farm as it is close to markets. Don't delay; act quick as I am going to turn this farm—Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Must Know a Heap.

"A librarian has to know all the books in the world, I suppose?" "Yes, and many that do not exist. A lady just asked me for the 'Count of Monte Carlo.'—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Man of Mixed Emotions.

A Newark man went home with a white carnation wreath "to my beloved wife, from her loving husband," and then tried to kill her with a hatchet.—Exchange.

Blind Trips.

"The mystery riders have come to town," says the London Daily Express. "They do not form a secret society or constitute a menace to the public welfare. They are law-abiding citizens who have a weakness for 'taking a chance.' They are, in short, charabanc trippers who set out under sealed orders."

Queer Taste Accounted For.

Coming home from a party late one bright moonlight night, I did not light a lamp on entering the house. Feeling hungry, I went to the pantry for a lunch. Taking a slice of bread, I spread it with what I supposed to be plum marmalade. Proceeding to the kitchen, I took a bite of my sandwich and it did not taste like those my mother puts up in my school lunch. Lighting a lamp I discovered I had used soft soap instead of marmalade.—Chicago Journal.

Antarctic Discoveries.

J. L. Cope, the explorer, returned to Plymouth, England, a year ahead of schedule; he had discovered extensive, workable mineral deposits and gained valuable knowledge relating to fisheries, including the secret migrating place of whales. After exploiting these finds he plans to go back, taking his wife with him, in which case she will be the first woman to set foot on the antarctic continent.—Scientific American.

A Good Truck Farm.

I have a 4 1/2-acre truck farm close to market, best limestone land, 9-room brick house with bath, slate roof; frame barn with slate roof, tobacco shed, ice house, chicken house and hog pen, fruit wonderful garden. Property is located on a pike. Will sell for less than it would cost to build a house like the one on the premises. Act quick if you want it. J. E. Schroll, Mount Joy.

Who War's This?

Is there a tenant farmer around here that wants to make as much money with less work than he is doing now? Here you are. A 30-acre farm 1/2 mile from Manheim, best of gravel land, good buildings, an abundance of fruit, fine water. This would make a dandy truck farm as it is close to markets. Don't delay; act quick as I am going to turn this farm—Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

OUR MORTUARY RECORDINGS

(Continued from page 1) business at one time in Elizabethtown. Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the United Zion Children's church. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Elizabeth Hikes, and his second wife, Mrs. Martin Nissley. Seven children survive by his first wife, thirteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren. His children are: Mrs. Ammon Kennon, of Baltimore; Mrs. B. D. Hoover, Pottstown; Mrs. Edgar Baskore, Harrisburg; Mrs. Amos Wickens, Lancaster; Benjamin Singer, Elizabethtown; Harry Singer, Ephrata; Geo. W. Singer, Oberlin, Funeral services were held on Sunday, interment being made in Mt. Tunnel cemetery at Elizabethtown.

Garner Hill, Gladstone, N. J., Sells Rat-Snap, He Says

I sell and use RAT-SNAP. Like to look any man in the face and tell it's the best. It's good. People like RAT-SNAP because it "kicks" kill rats. Petrifies carcass—leaves no smell. Comes in cakes—no mixing to do. Cats or dogs won't touch it. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by H. S. Newcomer, W. D. Chandler, and Dr. E. W. Garber, Mount Joy.

Rally at Elizabethtown

Announcement was made last evening at the meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Parish that the Annual Spring Rally of the Lancaster County Holy Name Union will be held at Elizabethtown, Sunday afternoon, May 28. The society will attend in a body. Arrangements have been made to run special cars.

Rooster With Two Hearts.

While cleaning a rooster a few days ago, says a Manitoba reeler, she found the bird had two hearts. One was a little bit smaller, otherwise they were worth alike, joined together by a tiny tube.

Blind Trips.

"The mystery riders have come to town," says the London Daily Express. "They do not form a secret society or constitute a menace to the public welfare. They are law-abiding citizens who have a weakness for 'taking a chance.' They are, in short, charabanc trippers who set out under sealed orders."

Queer Taste Accounted For.

Coming home from a party late one bright moonlight night, I did not light a lamp on entering the house. Feeling hungry, I went to the pantry for a lunch. Taking a slice of bread, I spread it with what I supposed to be plum marmalade. Proceeding to the kitchen, I took a bite of my sandwich and it did not taste like those my mother puts up in my school lunch. Lighting a lamp I discovered I had used soft soap instead of marmalade.—Chicago Journal.

Antarctic Discoveries.

J. L. Cope, the explorer, returned to Plymouth, England, a year ahead of schedule; he had discovered extensive, workable mineral deposits and gained valuable knowledge relating to fisheries, including the secret migrating place of whales. After exploiting these finds he plans to go back, taking his wife with him, in which case she will be the first woman to set foot on the antarctic continent.—Scientific American.

A Good Truck Farm.

I have a 4 1/2-acre truck farm close to market, best limestone land, 9-room brick house with bath, slate roof; frame barn with slate roof, tobacco shed, ice house, chicken house and hog pen, fruit wonderful garden. Property is located on a pike. Will sell for less than it would cost to build a house like the one on the premises. Act quick if you want it. J. E. Schroll, Mount Joy.

Who War's This?

Is there a tenant farmer around here that wants to make as much money with less work than he is doing now? Here you are. A 30-acre farm 1/2 mile from Manheim, best of gravel land, good buildings, an abundance of fruit, fine water. This would make a dandy truck farm as it is close to markets. Don't delay; act quick as I am going to turn this farm—Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Must Know a Heap.

"A librarian has to know all the books in the world, I suppose?" "Yes, and many that do not exist. A lady just asked me for the 'Count of Monte Carlo.'—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Man of Mixed Emotions.

A Newark man went home with a white carnation wreath "to my beloved wife, from her loving husband," and then tried to kill her with a hatchet.—Exchange.

Blind Trips.

"The mystery riders have come to town," says the London Daily Express. "They do not form a secret society or constitute a menace to the public welfare. They are law-abiding citizens who have a weakness for 'taking a chance.' They are, in short, charabanc trippers who set out under sealed orders."

Queer Taste Accounted For.

Coming home from a party late one bright moonlight night, I did not light a lamp on entering the house. Feeling hungry, I went to the pantry for a lunch. Taking a slice of bread, I spread it with what I supposed to be plum marmalade. Proceeding to the kitchen, I took a bite of my sandwich and it did not taste like those my mother puts up in my school lunch. Lighting a lamp I discovered I had used soft soap instead of marmalade.—Chicago Journal.

Antarctic Discoveries.

J. L. Cope, the explorer, returned to Plymouth, England, a year ahead of schedule; he had discovered extensive, workable mineral deposits and gained valuable knowledge relating to fisheries, including the secret migrating place of whales. After exploiting these finds he plans to go back, taking his wife with him, in which case she will be the first woman to set foot on the antarctic continent.—Scientific American.

A Good Truck Farm.

I have a 4 1/2-acre truck farm close to market, best limestone land, 9-room brick house with bath, slate roof; frame barn with slate roof, tobacco shed, ice house, chicken house and hog pen, fruit wonderful garden. Property is located on a pike. Will sell for less than it would cost to build a house like the one on the premises. Act quick if you want it. J. E. Schroll, Mount Joy.

Who War's This?

Is there a tenant farmer around here that wants to make as much money with less work than he is doing now? Here you are. A 30-acre farm 1/2 mile from Manheim, best of gravel land, good buildings, an abundance of fruit, fine water. This would make a dandy truck farm as it is close to markets. Don't delay; act quick as I am going to turn this farm—Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Must Know a Heap.

"A librarian has to know all the books in the world, I suppose?" "Yes, and many that do not exist. A lady just asked me for the 'Count of Monte Carlo.'—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Man of Mixed Emotions.

A Newark man went home with a white carnation wreath "to my beloved wife, from her loving husband," and then tried to kill her with a hatchet.—Exchange.

Blind Trips.

"The mystery riders have come to town," says the London Daily Express. "They do not form a secret society or constitute a menace to the public welfare. They are law-abiding citizens who have a weakness for 'taking a chance.' They are, in short, charabanc trippers who set out under sealed orders."

Queer Taste Accounted For.

Coming home from a party late one bright moonlight night, I did not light a lamp on entering the house. Feeling hungry, I went to the pantry for a lunch. Taking a slice of bread, I spread it with what I supposed to be plum marmalade. Proceeding to the kitchen, I took a bite of my sandwich and it did not taste like those my mother puts up in my school lunch. Lighting a lamp I discovered I had used soft soap instead of marmalade.—Chicago Journal.

Antarctic Discoveries.

J. L. Cope, the explorer, returned to Plymouth, England, a year ahead of schedule; he had discovered extensive, workable mineral deposits and gained valuable knowledge relating to fisheries, including the secret migrating place of whales. After exploiting these finds he plans to go back, taking his wife with him, in which case she will be the first woman to set foot on the antarctic continent.—Scientific American.

A Good Truck Farm.

I have a 4 1/2-acre truck farm close to market, best limestone land, 9-room brick house with bath, slate roof; frame barn with slate roof, tobacco shed, ice house, chicken house and hog pen, fruit wonderful garden. Property is located on a pike. Will sell for less than it would cost to build a house like the one on the premises. Act quick if you want it. J. E. Schroll, Mount Joy.

Who War's This?

Is there a tenant farmer around here that wants to make as much money with less work than he is doing now? Here you are. A 30-acre farm 1/2 mile from Manheim, best of gravel land, good buildings, an abundance of fruit, fine water. This would make a dandy truck farm as it is close to markets. Don't delay; act quick as I am going to turn this farm—Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Must Know a Heap.

"A librarian has to know all the books in the world, I suppose?" "Yes, and many that do not exist. A lady just asked me for the 'Count of Monte Carlo.'—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Man of Mixed Emotions.

A Newark man went home with a white carnation wreath "to my beloved wife, from her loving husband," and then tried to kill her with a hatchet.—Exchange.

The Scrap Book

INDIANS HAVE AUTO TROUBLES

Red Men Said to Be Worrying About the Price of Gas for Their Racing Cars.

The conduct of the Indian wards of the nation is again a subject of concern to their official guardians. According to the report of the board of Indian commissioners, the automobile "seems to possess the same irresistible fascination for the Indian that it does for many of his white brethren."

In numerous cases "the first proceeds of the sale of tribal lands go to purchase a high-powered automobile and a full complement of accessories."

Having no wigwam to mortgage for the price of a car, it is only natural that Lo should devote the proceeds of his oil land to that object, remarks the New York World. If he chooses to follow precedent in preferring racing cars to flyovers that should be set down to the attitude of his "untutored mind" for assimilating the white man's standards. At any rate, the development may be instanced as evidence of Indian progress and ought to be a matter for commendation rather than for criticism.

"When Indians begin to worry over the price of gasoline and wrestle with the other problems of the high cost of luxurious living they are in a fair way toward complete civilization. Perhaps Indian bureau reports will yet include statistics of motorcar fatalities on the reservation. And, after all, is not the sight of a red-skinned brave careering over the plains in the white man's devil wagon one to cheer the philosophic student of American history?"

MODERN LIFE IN OLD CITY

Changes in Bagdad Might Well Cause Caliphs to Turn Over in Their Gorgeous Tombs.

Bagdad, the city of caliphs, the scene of the deeds of the good Harun-al-Rashid of "Arabian Nights" fame, is now enjoying the strangest sights in its 1,300 years of history. The British have brought the Strand to its bazaars, the motorboat to the Tigris and the automobile to its time-entertained gates.

Bagdad enjoys an English weekly magazine, published in English and Arabic, including some of the latest brand of British humor and excellent portraits of the leading muzzins and sheiks. There are a number of British banks doing business in the city, branches of great institutions famous the world over.

British hotels are there offering roast beef and Yorkshire pudding with ale and stout to wash them down. They have Turkish baths, billiard rooms, palm gardens and are furnished with English furniture throughout.

British stores sell perfumery, novels, clothing for male and female of the latest styles of London and Paris. One leading department store in the old city advertises: "What you may not get in other stores in Bagdad you can get in ours," says the Wall Street Journal.

One may soon see some lordly son of the desert driving in his flyover to the local hotel to partake of the roast beef and ale of old England. Selah!

Circus Tent Stakes Driven by Power.

The automobile truck has largely superseded the horse as a means of transportation for the itinerant circus. It has also relegated the usefulness of the former sledge-swinging skill of the canvassman.

Now the stakes for the tents are not driven by hand, but by a truck built especially for that purpose. It carries the stakes and the tent poles and is equipped with a miniature plectrifier of the modern automatic type, operated by a belt from the truck's engine. All the canvassmen have to do is to hold the stakes under the hammer of the driver until they are started into the ground.—Exchange.

School Laws in Various States.

Colorado, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oklahoma, North Dakota, West Virginia, Louisiana and Florida do not accept certificates granted by other states. Many of these, however, issue other certificates on the basis of recognized credentials, provided the requirements are met which issues certificates wholly on the basis of examination, and does not accept credits from institutions either within or without the state.

Queer Taste Accounted For.

Coming home from a party late one bright moonlight night, I did not light a lamp on entering the house. Feeling hungry, I went to the pantry for a lunch. Taking a slice of bread, I spread it with what I supposed to be plum marmalade. Proceeding to the kitchen, I took a bite of my sandwich and it did not taste like those my mother puts up in my school lunch. Lighting a lamp I discovered I had used soft soap instead of marmalade.—Chicago Journal.

Antarctic Discoveries.

J. L. Cope, the explorer, returned to Plymouth, England, a year ahead of schedule; he had discovered extensive, workable mineral deposits and gained valuable knowledge relating to fisheries, including the secret migrating place of whales. After exploiting these finds he plans to go back, taking his wife with him, in which case she will be the first woman to set foot on the antarctic continent.—Scientific American.

A Good Truck Farm.

I have a 4 1/2-acre truck farm close to market, best limestone land, 9-room brick house with bath, slate roof; frame barn with slate roof, tobacco shed, ice house, chicken house and hog pen, fruit wonderful garden. Property is located on a pike. Will sell for less than it would cost to build a house like the one on the premises. Act quick if you want it. J. E. Schroll, Mount Joy.

Who War's This?

Is there a tenant farmer around here that wants to make as much money with less work than he is doing now? Here you are. A 30-acre farm 1/2 mile from Manheim, best of gravel land, good buildings, an abundance of fruit, fine water. This would make a dandy truck farm as it is close to markets. Don't delay; act quick as I am going to turn this farm—Call, phone or write J. E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Must Know a Heap.

"A librarian has to know all the books in the world, I suppose?" "Yes, and many that do not exist. A lady just asked me for the 'Count of Monte Carlo.'—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Man of Mixed Emotions.

A Newark man went home with a white carnation wreath "to my beloved wife, from her loving husband," and then tried to kill her with a hatchet.—Exchange.

Blind Trips.

"The mystery riders have come to town," says the London Daily Express. "They do not form a secret society or constitute a menace to the public welfare. They are law-abiding citizens who have a weakness for 'taking a chance.' They are, in short, charabanc trippers who set out under sealed orders."