

Delicious Ice Cream In 10 Minutes

Think of it! Great fluffy dishes of pure ice cream—wholesome, nourishing, refreshing—at a moment's notice!

At last the ideal freezer! Made entirely of steel, every part heavily retinned; ice pail of galvanized iron—cannot break, rust or get out of order. Can and dasher move in opposite directions, thus making velvety ice cream at a minimum of time, labor and expense. Removable clamp firmly fastens ice cream pail to table, freezer cannot slip or slide and operator's entire effort is devoted to making ice cream, not trying to hold freezer in place.

ON EQUALITY WITH HUSBANDS
Filipino Women, Entering Into Matrimony, Become Partners in Future Business Enterprises.

"When a Filipino woman marries she goes into partnership with her husband," said Mme. Sofia Reyes de Veyra, wife of the Philippine commissioner to the United States. "While the men handle the work and employees, the women attend to the finances and act as cashiers, pay the workers and oversee much of the business." Things are made easy in many ways for Filipino women, she asserted, writes Louise Cattoi in the Milwaukee Journal. Professional opportunities are as good for them as for men. Women are already members of the Philippine Bar association, a privilege not open to British women.

"Married women in the Philippines hold their property in severalty, and are guardians of their own children. Of the property which accrues to a married couple, the wife is half administratrix and there are vested rights which cannot be taken away. It is not unusual for the mother of a family to have not only household leadership, but economic control."

Women's clubs are rapidly growing in the islands, Mme. De Veyra said, and pointed out that already 305 clubs and associations exist, which have formed a federation.

Mme. De Veyra has four children, "as bright, healthy and happy as any mother could wish," as she described them.

A TALK WITH A MT. JOY MAN

Mr. D. S. Shonk, Prop., Blacksmith Shop at 126 W. Donegal Street, Tells of an Interesting Experience

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We therefore, give here an interview with a Mount Joy man:

"Do a lot of heavy, staining work, I believe was what put my kidneys out of shape," says Mr. Shonk. The kidney secretions were so frequent in passage. I was bothered every little while. There were also other indications that my kidneys were in need of helping. When I got down to shoe a horse, a stabbing, knife-like pain took me in the small of my back. For quite some time I put up with these troubles until I got started on Doan's Kidney Pills. This old reliable medicine soon helped me and after I had used a couple of boxes, my back was well and strong again. My kidneys, too, were restored to their proper working order."

The Scrap Book

COULD NOT REASON IT OUT

Philosopher Had Before Him the Evidence of His Senses, but Still He Pondered.

The proprietor of a tanyard was anxious to fix a suitable sign to his premises. Finally a happy thought struck him. He bored a hole through the door-post and stuck a calf's tail into it, with the tufted end outside.

After a while he saw a solemn-faced man standing near the door looking at the sign. The tanner stepped outside and addressed him.

"Good morning, sir," he said.

"Good morning," said the other, without taking his eyes off the sign.

"Do you want to buy any leather?" asked the tanner.

"No."

"Perhaps you've got some hides to sell?"

"No."

"What are you, then?"

"I am a philosopher. I've been standing here for an hour trying to find out how that calf got through that hole."

NOTHING DOING FOR SWAIN

Belgian Courts Afforded Little Satisfaction to Sutor Whose Courtship Had Been Expensive.

Matrimonial advertisements in Belgium have been put to a new use by a young woman in Brussels. She inserted the usual advertisement in the local press and shortly afterward received a reply from a wealthy sheep dealer. They met and the sheep dealer was somewhat impressed, but the lady proved unexpectedly coy. To impress her wandering fancy the more forcibly the eager swain bought her a snug little cafe at Saint Gilles, for which he paid 40,000 francs, and proudly presented the title deeds, we are told by the Montreal Family Herald. No sooner had she received them than she told her admirer that he did not take her fancy, after all. He brought an action against her, but the court has just dismissed him, declaring that as they were not engaged the cafe was a free gift from one friend to another and there was no legal reason against it.

Soldier Never Got Note.

An Australian writes: "During the Gallipoli campaign, when a general appeal was made for sheepskin vests, my sister sent a postal note to pay for one and enclosed a letter to be placed in the packet, asking the recipient, if he came across our only brother over there, to give him our love. The peninsula was evacuated before the shipment arrived, so it was sent on to France. In the winter of 1916-17, during a distribution of vests, one was passed to my brother. In a pocket of it he found his sister's note. We have it as a souvenir, though the grass now grows over our boy."

Woman Wins Arnold Prize.

This year's award of the Arnold essay prize is a notable incident in the history of the higher education of women, for it is the first instance of the winning of a university prize at Oxford by a woman candidate. The throwing open to women of the competition for such distinction has been one of the corollaries of their admission to degrees. The Arnold prize was founded in honor of Dr. Thomas Arnold of Rugby, and is awarded annually to junior graduates for the best essay on some subject of ancient or modern history.—Manchester Guardian.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.
"Say Sis, do you sing to your baby when he cries?"
"No, he cries when I sing to him."

Here's Real White Crow.

That there are exceptions to the say ing, "black as a crow," was proved when one white crow and several black ones alighted on a fence near a Nov Scotia tanyard. The white crow which was like the others in every respect except that its plumage was snow-white instead of black, was unfortunately shot by the farmer, an mounted by a taxidermist, who pronounced it a freak of nature.

Crow Takes Annual Vacation.

Taking a crow from its nest, a boy in New Brunswick trained the bird so that it would light on his shoulders. The crow is now four years old and has gone south every winter, except its first winter, when the boy kept it in the hen house. The bird seems to be very glad to get back home ever, spring and only three weeks ago it returned from its journey as tame as ever.
