CLOTHES TO BE MADE AT HOME

Simple and Inexpensive Frocks for Summer Wear Help Hold Expenses Down.

DOTTED SWISS AND ORGANDIE

Materials Are Popular With Women In All Sections; Make Comfortable and Practical Dresses—Gingham Holds Important Place.

Simple and inexpensive clothes, made at home by the amateur dressmaker, not only reduce the cost of a lady's wardrobe, but afford a satisfaction known to every woman—having something made the way it is wanted.

The problem of limiting expense and at the same time having charming clothes is one which almost every woman faces at one time or another. This problem may be solved successfully by adopting the plan of the thrifty housekeeper and working on a budget. Hit-or-miss spending is as disastrous in dress as it is in any branch of household expenditure or in business.

One way of being well dressed at all times, observes a fashion writer in the New York Tribune, is that of supplementing the expensive models which one must buy with a few simple clothes made at home. It is well to take a lesson from the French women, and if one cannot have a great many beautiful clothes get a few that are set new ones. In this way it is possible to be much more fashionably dressed than by having a large number of nondescript suits, frocks and hats.

Organdie Frocks of Slender Outline.

Dotted swiss was selected for one model because it is popular with women all over the country and makes a comfortable and practical dress. This dress is worked out in black, dotted with white. Interest is added by white linen ribbon embroidered with black dots, which is used for a sash and to bind the neck of the frock. The scallops are embroidered in white.

An organdie dress robbed of its fullness may not appeal to the flapper stage, but it does appeal to almost every woman who has passed the flapper stage. Dresses of the crispier muslins would have a much greater appeal were they more clinging in outline. A fluffy organdie dress carries no appeal except to those who are exceedingly slender.

A straightline frock of dark red organdie has sleeves and sash of white organdie ornamented with crisp little flowers made of red and white muslins.

Patchwork Pockets From Vivid Silks.

Ways of embellishing clothes and adding to simple frocks touches that bring them into an entirely new realm are as important as are the clothes themselves; oftentimes they are more so.

A great many women like little or no trimming on their clothes; others enjoy touches of color, ribbons and laces. This is more or less a matter of taste, and it would be making rather a strong statement to say that one is good taste and the other bad. Things of this sort depend largely on individual temperament. There is no reason why a woman should not have any kind of trimming she likes, especially in these days when so many Dress of Beige Kashia, Having Pockets and Collar of Old-Fashioned Patchwork, Outlined With Embroidery Stitch.

Things are offered and all are so rich in suggestion. Because one woman likes her clothes plain and of severe simplicity is no reason why another should sacrifice her individuality by copying her neighbor.

Another very attractive and simply made frock is of beige cloth. A trimming of buttons is used on the outside of the sleeve and down the side of the skirt, but the note of real poverty lies in the collar and pockets of old-fashioned patchwork; that is Lettuce is shipped from California the year round, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. New York and Florida alternate, Florida shipping during the Winter and early Spring and New York during the rest of the year. Other States which ship lettuce commercially are North and South Carolina, New Jersey, Michigan, Colorado, Minnesota, Idaho, and Washington.

FLOWERS FOR DANCE DRESS

Millinery Department of Any Store Will Afford Necessary Poses for Decoration.

Any clever girl can make herself a simple dance frock, especially when she may go into the millinery department of the store and buy the trimming for it all ready to put on. A lovely flower-trimmed little frock was shown in a pale yellow georgette, trimmed with artificial bachelor buttons in a darker yellow, sewed around the edge of the skirt and armbands and in clusters of three dotting the surface of the frock all over. A narrow black velvet ribbon grided the waist, being tied in a short loop and long end and bow at the side back, while two streamers of the ribbon extended down either side, forming a sort of panel effect.

The color and flower scheme could be varied in innumerable ways. Pale lavender georgette might be dotted with purple violets and purple velvet ribbon used for girde and panels, yellow would be good with the violet trim, or a pale pink might be trimmed with deeper pink roses and so on. Using the flowers as a border for the skirt is particularly effective.

A velvet or metal ribbon bandeau matching the trimming of the frock may be worn in the hair with very good effect, and the straight bands of ribbon or metal cloth are favorites with girls who have bobbed hair—and their number is said to be increasing.

Cool Nightgowns.

Hand-embroidered, sheer white nightgown is made into lovely nightgowns. Tucks, masses of them, are popular in lingerie, supplanting the gathers of former years. They launder well, although a deft hand is required for the act.

Plugging Out.

A Kentucky man seems to have found a relative of the city girl who thought it must be cold work harvesting the winter wheat.

The young woman of whom the Kentuckian tells is a native of Cincinnati, and was lately talking with him about tobacco and tobacco-raising.

"I should like ever so much to see a tobacco field," she said, "especially when it is just plugging out."—Way-side Tales.

Brocade Observation.

"A statesman has to be a profound student."

World's Largest Reservoir.

In about two years London's reservoir at Littleton will be the largest artificial reservoir in the world. It will hold water to supply London for a month, or 8,500,000,000 gallons. Its surface will cover 800 acres.

They Heard Him.

Brother had the habit of asking for something to eat whenever he happened to be at a neighbor's house, so his mother told him he must never do such a thing again.

The next time he returned from a visit to the neighbor's she asked him if he had begged for anything to eat. "No," he said. "I was just talking to myself about how hungry I was and they heard me."
