WAY CONVICTED IN MURDER CASE

Keller produced two cents. In his confession Way stated that his victim recognized him and said: "I know who you are" and "You should be ashamed to try to take money from an old man."

Monday in court the negro did not remember that conversation and testified that he had backed away from Keller but as he neared the door he became nervous and accidentally pulled the trigger of his revolver. The trigger had been back, he said.

Through the crime accomplished, Way told the jury that he locked the door to the stable and then went to the yard of Mrs. Edna Zerphoy and called to a neighbor to play a record on the talking machine. From there he went home and to bed.

Two days later he returned the revolver to Peter L. Zerphoy which the court conceded was used to commit the murder, and then evidently spent restless nights, according to the reasons which Way gave for having made the confession to the State police after his arrest.

Monday morning he was placed on trial shortly after eleven o'clock. At twenty minutes past four his case went to the jury and one hour later, the verdict had been agreed upon and somewhat of a record hung up in local court annals.

Throughout the trial the commonwealth wound a close net of evidence around Way. Officer Fox, of the State Police, had seen the bullet which had been taken from the head of Keller and produced the revolver which had been used by the murderer. It was made for bullets of the calibre of that found in the body of the Mount Joy man.

Dr. W. M. Workman and Dr. W. M. Thome located the bullet and testified that it had caused the death of Zachariah Keller.

Peter L. Zerphoy, of Mount Joy, told the court that Way had borrowed the gun from him which the commonwealth had used in evidence. When it was loaned to the colored man the chambers contained five bullets with nickel caps.

Damaging testimony was offered by the witness when he stated that the revolver had been returned with one bullet missing and in its place a cartridge with a copper cap.

Mary Ramsey, colored, who lives near the Greenwald farm, heard a shot fired on the night of the murder but did not get out of bed to ascertain the cause.

Mrs. Edna Zerphoy said that Way was in her yard on the night of June 23 and that he had called to Johanna Knobb to put a record on the talking machine. Mrs. Knobb corroborated the testimony.

Charles Minnich testified that he gave a cartridge to Harry Moulson who in turn gave it to Harry Way. It was assumed that this was the bullet which was in the revolver when it was returned to Zerphoy.

Harry Moulson admitted having given the cartridge to Way an told the court that "Way said he wanted it for protection when he went to see his lady friend in Marietta".

I. D. Stehman, a miller of Mount Joy, had found the dead body of Keller. He was also present when Way made the confession to the State Police and testified that coercion had not been used in extracting the statements from the murderer.

In a conversation with Mr. Stehman, Way is alleged to have said that he wished he had "shot himself, too". He also told the witness that he "wanted to get Keller before he got him."

John A. Bachman, chief Burgess of Mt. Joy, told of the confession which Way had made to the State Police.

The murder went on the witness stand in his own defense. There were no other witnesses in his behalf and the commonwealth rested.

Judge Charles I. Landis, in his charge to the jury, read a recent decision of the Supreme Court to the effect that first degree murder exists when death occurs from the commission of a felon, even though murder may not have been the intention of the perpetrator of the crime.

Resolutions At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Mennonite Children's Home at Millersville, Pa., the following resolutions were passed September 5, 1922

In as much as it has pleased our kind Heavenly Father to remove from this world, our dearly beloved Brother, Abram B. Lutz, therefore be it resolved that the Board of Trustees of the Mennonite Children's Home, at Millersville, Pa., feel that we have lost a faithful worker in the cause of caring, providing and finding homes for the unfortunate little ones under our care, and knowing that God doeth all things well, we trust that our loss may be his eternal gain and be it resolved that we extend our heartfelt sympathies to the bereft sister and family and commend them to Jesus, the only true comforter, in the sad and lonely hours of their bereavement.

Be it also resolved that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes and that a copy of the same be sent to the bereft family. sept. 13-1t S. S. Kraybill, secretary.
