ROCK POINT

Tobacco around here has been nearly all housed with corn cutting next on the list.
 Lew Tressler, of Rock Point, assisted E. R. Neidigh in putting his tobacco away last week.

The Marietta Band held a concert on the Square under the glare of the electric lights on Sunday evening.
 George Gutshall and son Harry, accompanied by Clark Drumgold, all of Blain, Perry Co., transacted business in Mount Joy on Saturday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dan Derr, of Mt. Joy, attended the funeral of Barr Spangler, at Marietta. Gee Whiz, Dan, that is some mobile you swing around in.

We had the pleasure of coming into contact with Nancy McFarland, an old acquaintance. She still adheres to that amiable smile of which was one of her main characteristics.
 We are sorry to hear the sad news that was detailed through the Florin correspondence of the Bulletin about the unfortunate affair that befell our young friend Mr. Musselman, a former freight agent at Florin.
 Subscribe for the Bulletin, an up-to-date weekly that contains valuable information from its various correspondents that are always on the alert for news, and help to increase the subscription list as well as circulation.

We extend to John Booth, one of the A. D. Garber experienced clerks of Florin, since he has relinquished his position and embarked into a business of his own at Mt. Joy, all the success he can attain. Long may he wave and his shadow never deviate.
 When I grasped the hand of Lieut. Biedleman, at the Florin dedication the other Sunday, he greeted me in a very cordial way, having known each other for a considerable length of time. The fellow that composed the song "The Half Never Was Told" has a guess coming.

A large concourse of friends and acquaintances assembled at the tomb of the late Barr Spangler, of Marietta, last Wednesday afternoon, to witness the last sad rites in conveying that noble philanthropist to his final resting place, to await his summons to come up higher, and be rewarded for his worthy life. Peace to his ashes.

Speaking of the hours of a closing day reminds me that I witnessed one of the most brilliant and beautiful sunsets that I have ever seen around here during my advent into Lancaster County. In justice, I will say that it certainly deserves a word for the gorgeous splendor of the summer sunset skies. The hills and mountains are bathed in this occidental splendor and the landscape adorns itself in honor of nature's most wonderful spectacle.

THE LYCEUM COURSE AT ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE

This year's Lyceum Course, under the supervision of the Library Committee, promises to be the strongest ever put on by the College.

The first number of the course will be given on October 24 by Miss Marsh, contralto. Miss Marsh is exclusively American trained and has appeared before musical audiences in New York and Philadelphia.

On November 16, Herbert Leon Cope will give his lecture, "The Smile That Won't Come Off." Mr. Cope amuses and also gives a message.

December 14 Dr. H. M. Lichliter will lecture on "The Vaudeville Mind." Dr. Lichliter belongs to that school of preachers who speak plainly, be the truth ever so unpleasant.

On January 25 Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis delivers one of his famous lectures. Dr. Hillis needs no introduction, having appeared repeatedly before lyceum audiences during the last quarter of a century.

February 2 the Zimmer Harp Trio and Raymond Simonds, tenor, will appear likely for the last time as a company. Mr. Simonds has accepted a call to sing in Europe after this season.

On March 29 Dr. Arthur Walwyn Evans, preacher, scholar, orator, will appear. Dr. Evans was educated in Wales, England and Scotland. He will give his lecture on "What Western Democracy Means to Me."

The college opened its 23rd academic year on Tuesday. Eighty are pursuing courses of collegiate rank, thirty of these being freshmen. Sixty-five are enrolled in the preparatory course, twenty-five of these being admitted for the first time.

At the convocation exercises president Meyer presided and Dean Schlosser delivered the address. The present year bids fair of being the most successful in the history of the college.

MARIETTA

The evangelistic services in the Zion Reformed church attracted large congregations at all the services on Sunday.

For the first time in the history of the Dabler family, four generations were gathered on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dabler, of this place.

Sunday was a red letter day for the Marietta Presbyterian congregation, when the rally day services were held and the annual memorial day festivities for Dr. and Mrs. John H. Grove given with an elaborate program.

It is often a problem to serve foods that appeal to appetites made fickle by hot weather. Meat salads are excellent for either lunch or supper, suggests the United States Department of Agriculture. Any cold left-over meat (beef, pork, veal, or lamb) may be used. Cut the meat into cubes and mix it with diced cucumber, celery, radishes, or onion, or any preferred combination of crisp vegetables, seasoned well, and, if desired, mix with a little oil and vinegar. Serve with lettuce or shredded cabbage and mayonnaise or boiled dressing.

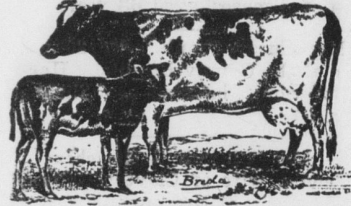

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated

BRACELET WATCHES FOR GIVEABLES

A few years ago, while the French Social Whirl was at its height at Deauville, Mrs. Poiret appeared wearing a watch upon her bracelet.

The Watch Bracelet created a furore among the fastidious French, and the vogue swiftly swept across the Channel to England.

After that, it was only a matter of time before it crossed the Atlantic, to be taken up by smartly-dressed women everywhere.

There was a time when we were amused at the sight of a watch upon a woman's wrist. Today it amuses us not to see one there.

We are showing any number of them now, with the added feature that the watch can be detached and worn separately as a chateleine or as a pendant. The prices start as low as $15.00.
