

MT. JOY BULLETIN
MOUNT JOY, PA.
J. E. SCHROLL, Editor & Pro'r.
 Subscription Price $1.50 a Year
 Sample Copies FREE
 Single Copies 3 Cents
 Three Months 40 Cents
 Six Months 75 Cents

Entered at the post office at Mount Joy as second-class mail matter.
 The date of the expiration of your subscription follows your name on the label. We do not send receipts for subscription money received. Whenever you remit, see that you are given proper credit. We credit all subscriptions on the first of each month.
 The subscription lists of the Landville Vigil, the Florin News and the Mount Joy Star and News were merged with that of the Mount Joy Bulletin, which makes this paper's ordinary weekly.

SALUNGA

Mr. and Mrs. Gibble spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Metzler.
 Miss Emma Honberger spent several weeks in East Petersburg.
 Quite a number of our town folks attended the Lancaster fair last week.
 Mr. Christ, who lives with his daughter, Mrs. Cooper, is on the sick list.
 Mr. and Mrs. Auxer, of Lancaster, visited Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Kendig, on Sunday.
 Miss Mary Feist entertained her aunt and two cousins of Lancaster on Sunday.
 Mrs. C. K. Boll spent Saturday afternoon in Lancaster with Mrs. J. K. Herman.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alexander, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Way.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grube visited Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller on Sunday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Neff, near Millersville.
 Albert Hiestand and wife entertained his brother S. H. Hiestand and family on Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Myers spent Wednesday visiting his sister, and attended the Hanover Fair.
 Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ream and children of Newtown spent Sunday with C. R. Boll and wife.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peifer and son, Donald, were Sunday visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Peifer.
 Mr. and Mrs. Newcomer and sons, Flory and Mark, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Newcomer.
 The recent frosts nipped some of the tobacco that was standing and caused the farmers to get a hustle on themselves.
 One night last week thieves entered the garage of Mr. O. B. Newcomer and stole the tires off his machine and his battery.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Minnich, with Mr. Long, of Philadelphia, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Long, at Petersburg, on Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ibach and sons, Burnell and Eugene, were Sunday visitors at New Danville with Mr. and Mrs. David Kendig.
 Harry C. Smith and John C. Smith and wife returned to their home in Johnstown after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McGill.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Werner, with friends from Millport, motored to Washingtonboro on Sunday morning, where they were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hardiman.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ephriam Eby, with their son, Elias Eby and family, of Litzitz, on their way home from Cumberland County on Sunday evening, stopped to visit his brother, Samuel, at Salunga.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ibach entertained at luncheon on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ibach and daughters, Irene, Virginia and Hortense and Miss Anna Forry, of Neumannstown.
 S. H. Hiestand and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Leibensperger took a trip by auto to Easton, Nazareth, Slatington and Reading. At Nazareth they were through the Dexter Portland Cement Works, from the quarry to the car.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller entertained the following on Sunday: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller, of Ironville; his brother, Walter, and family, of Oyster Point; Horace Warner and family, of Chestnut Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ibach and sons, Lloyd Fred Jr. and Wayne.
 Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rohrer and Mrs. Harry Rohrer, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Komer and children, Leaman, Wilbur, Elvin, Lester, John and Fannie, of near Mechanicsville; Miss Lizzie, of Salunga; Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Newcomer, of near Florin; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Newcomer, of Mount Joy, and Mrs. Annie Mowery, of near Salunga, visited Mrs. Fannie Baer on Sunday.

BAINBRIDGE

Many cisterns and wells in this section are very low, and it is feared that farmers will have to haul water from the river.
 Mrs. H. W. Good visited her sister, Mrs. A. P. Stoner, at Camp Hill.
 J. W. Arnold, of Harrisburg, spent several days in town on a visit to relatives and friends.
 Mrs. John Goudie who was taken to the Lancaster hospital following a fall, is improving, and her injuries are not as bad as was first supposed.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Raber entertained a number of friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Lloyd, of Woodbine, who were visiting at Bainbridge.
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Ellwein and daughter returned to their home in Shippensburg, after few weeks visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ellwein.

Apple Tree in Blossom

An apple tree in the orchard of Jonas E. Witmer, Marietta, is in bloom. The flowers are perfect and attracted considerable attention. Several people who saw it are superstitious and say "it is bad luck."

RHEEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Souders, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wittle spent Sunday at Manheim.
 Rev. Jacob Martin of Elizabethtown paid a visit to Jacob W. Heisey who has passed the 85th milestone, successfully.
 Feed in several ton lots right from the car at a bargain price attracted the farmers last Monday at the Rheems Warehouse.
 Mr. Eli Brubaker the village butcher is delivering choice sweet potatoes yellow variety at $1.50 per bushel. They were exceptionally large.
 There are a number of vacant building lots and modern homes that can be bought by applying to the real estate owners of Rheems.
 Rev. S. S. Shearer the prominent West Donegal potato farmer delivered choice potatoes in the customers cellar at 65c for the Rossman variety and 50c for the Russel last week.
 A. B. Heisey the practical quarryman who has leased the Martin stone quarries, north of Elizabethtown has put the entire plant in full operation with a ready demand for the product.
 C. H. Musser P. R. R. agent at Rheems and wife spent his vacation visiting relatives and friends last week at Atlantic City, Philadelphia and Lancaster. Milton Shank filled the vacancy.
 Two cars of coal arrived at the Rheems coal yard last week for which there is a ready demand. Coal merchants the past few years had very little money tied up in the yards. They have an opportunity to use the ancient method, quick sales and small profits.
 Arthur Martin a successful farmer on one of the Cameron farms in East Donegal, has purchased the Gibble residence on South Poplar street in Elizabethtown which they expect to occupy after April 1, 1923. Francis Neidigh from the B. H. Greider farm will be Martin's successor.
 The drought is handicapping the farmers who are accustomed to putting out the fall seeding first week in October. Quite a number who were short in help failed to get plowing done in time. A soaking rain will relieve them if it comes before the middle of October, as early seeding may be a failure.
 Funeral services over the remains of Ira W. Garber who died at the St. Joseph Hospital Lancaster, from the effects of an accident at the Penn Lime and Stone Company plant was held last Thursday, Sept. 28 at one o'clock at the home and two o'clock at the Donegal Presbyterian church. Loyal Order of Moose attended in a body. The floral display was beautiful. He attained the age of 36 years, 2 months and 7 days. His wife and the following children Hazel, Lee, Lester and Sylvester mourn the loss. Four brothers survive. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.
 (Too late for last week)
 Prof. Ira R. Kraybill and family of Philadelphia, spent last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kraybill.
 The Church of the Brethren Sunday school at Rheems observed Children's Day last Sunday afternoon. Song service in charge of Mrs. Elmer Hoover at 1:30. Opening exercises at 2 o'clock by the Superintendent, Harry Bechtel, who announced the program as follows: Recitation, A Bright Greeting, by Florence Gray; exercise, This is Children's Day; recitation, Sunshine, by Stanley Geib; recitation, Perfect Trust, by Agnes Minnich; recitation, Your Mission, by Anna Brandt; exercise, I'm Going to be Happy; recitation, The Close of Life's Day, by Ruth Walmer; recitation, Little Chatter Box, by Anna Mae Henry; recitation, He Careth For You, by John Kraybill; quartet, The Old Rugged Cross; recitation, Two Offerings, Dora Kraybill; recitation, Waiting at the Leaders Feet, Emily Jane Kraybill; recitation, The Mansions Foundation, Anna Hoffman; recitation, A Story of Talents, Fannie Ruth Heisey; recitation, Unawares, Edith Barnard; recitation, Dorothy Hollinger. Rev. Wm. Doble, of Reistville, Pa., entertained the children and the large congregation in a very instructive manner for a period of 45 minutes. Rev. John Witmer, of Hanoverdale, Pa., closed the exercises.

ELIZABETHTOWN

Mr. Abram Forney spent a few days in Buffalo, N. Y.
 The High School Literary Society will render a fine program Friday, October 6.
 Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hoffer and daughter, of Lebanon, were borough visitors on Tuesday.
 Messrs. J. H. Stern and L. G. Hershey were in attendance at the U. B. Conference at Sunbury.
 Rev. Frank Cronan and J. E. Widman attended the sessions of the Lutheran Ministerium at Penryn.
 Mrs. Tillman Ebersole and daughter, Marion, were the guests of Palmyra relatives on Wednesday.
 Jack Frost appeared in real form several mornings, in the early part of last week. Some tobacco was badly bitten.
 The American Legion will hold a chicken corn soup supper, Saturday, October 7, on the Greenwalt Hotel lawn. The usual refreshments will be served and special music will be furnished.
 Rev. A. G. Nye left Tuesday morning to attend the conference session at Sunbury last week. The Otterbein Guild conducted the services on Sunday morning. Mrs. J. R. Engle, of Palmyra, was the speaker.
 The announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Frantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frantz, of North Second street Harrisburg, to Mr. Paul Rieker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rieker of this place, was made at a luncheon given by Miss Frantz in the Japanese room of the Penn Harris Hotel for Miss Helen Evans, of Altoona.

 Messrs. Edgar Fry and Guy Gochenaur figured in an accident on Tuesday in Lancaster. They were on their way to Petersburg on a motorcycle when a large truck came off a side street and side swiped them. Mr. Fry was uninjured. Mr. Gochenaur was injured more seriously than was at first known and he is now going about on crutches. The motorcycle was completely wrecked.
 Mr. William Alleman, of near Middletown, passed a number of alleged worthless checks on a number of business men of this place and vicinity by making purchases and giving checks on a Middletown bank. When the checks were presented it is said there was no money in the bank. He purchased some watermelons of a farmer, near Falmonth, and clothing from a Elizabethtown merchant and another check he gave to an auto dealer, near Middletown. The man was last traced to Harrisburg. The matter was put in the hands of the State Police.

ROCK POINT

John Shireman had about 8 acres of tobacco ruined by frost. He farms the Eli Nissly farm near Donegal Springs.
 Mr. John Trostle, of near Maytown was also a loser of tobacco through frost last week he informed me.
 Mr. Eli Nissly of Florin, is the Generalissimo of the First National Bank of Marietta, vice Barr Spangler deceased.
 Miss Eshleman daughter of Hiram Eshleman, of near Green Tree church has been installed as a clerk in A. D. Garber's store at Florin.
 William S. Neidigh of near Campbelltown, accompanied his brother Francis G. Neidigh of near Rheems to the Lancaster Fair on Thursday.
 Quite a number of friends and acquaintances from around Blaine, attended the funeral of the late Ira Garber which was held on Thursday at the Donegal Springs church.
 The services held at the Church of the Brethren at Marietta on Sunday afternoon, were conducted by Revs. Nathan and Hiram Eshleman and Samuel H. Shearer of Rheems.
 That was an erroneous statement that was detailed to me in reference to Mr. Musselman, freight agent at Florin. He is still on the job. Henceforth anything that is handed to me for insertion in my items must be more substantial.
 George L. Straus a civil war veteran, who belonged to the 52nd Penna was visiting his friend Mr. Brandt a post office employe of Marietta. He is a resident of Williamsport, and informed me that he was in the first days fight at Gettysburg.

BETTER-SIRES DATA TO SOUTH AFRICA
 Rhodesia, South Africa, is planning a drive against scrub bulls. A recent request received by the Secretary of Agriculture tells of the necessity of stopping the breeding of cattle to scrub bulls in Rhodesia and requests the assistance of the United States Department of Agriculture in the problem. Definite plans are to be made for presentation to the Rhodesia Agricultural Union.
 The department has furnished assistance in the form of literature regarding the better sires-better stock movement and also the formation of cooperative bull associations.

FUMIGATE YOUR WHEAT WITH CARBON BISULPHIDE!

For the Angoumois Moth, Weevil, &c. We are in a position to supply you now with Carbon Bisulphide in any quantity. On account of the price on wheat a number of farmers will hold same. Be on the safe side, and treat your wheat soon after threshing or as soon as you see the moth flying over the wheat. All seed wheat should be treated.
 Shippers should treat every car before it is shipped. Millers should treat the wheat in their elevators and fumigate all spouting, floor bolts, &c. for moth.

CHANDLER'S DRUG STORE

West Main St., MT. JOY, PA.
THE OLDEST HAT STORE IN LANCASTER
 THE
Wingert & Haas Hat Store
 Largest Line of
Fall Hats, Caps and GLOVES
 In The City
 144 N. Queen St. Lancaster, Pa.
JOHN A. HAAS, Prop'r.

Some Time

You will be in need of printing of some kind. Whether it be letter-heads, statements wedding invitations or public sale bills, remember we can turn out the work at the lowest cost consistent with good work.

New Hupmobile Prices

The lowest prices at which Hupmobiles of the present design and quality have ever been offered. More than at any other time the Hupmobile now presents outstanding value. New prices effective August 4, 1922.

Touring Car - $1150 Roadster - $1150
 Sedan - - - 1785 Coupe - - 1635
 Roadster Coupe, $1335

Prices f. o. b. Detroit—Revenue Tax Extra

E. J. Argenbright, Florin, Pa.

WE WILL GIVE ABSOLUTELY FREE A COMPLETE Wireless Telephone

There is music in the air every day and evening, stocks and bond prices, also grain and market quotations are also sent out daily from several Cities in each State.

The Radio-Phone is the marvel of all time.

You can be the proud possessor of this wonderful outfit.

NOW ON EXHIBITION AT OUR STORE

With each cash purchase amounting to $1.00 we will give one Key. We have a bag of keys; one key in this bag will unlock a lock which we have on exhibition at our store and the holder of the Lucky Key will receive THIS RADIO-PHONE ABSOLUTELY FREE.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES ON ACCOUNT OF THIS OFFER

H. E. Hauer, Mount Joy, Pa.