BORO COUNCIL IN REGULAR SESSION

THE MAJORITY FAVORS THE OPENING OF THE NEW STREET INTERSECTING PINKERTON ROAD WITH LONGENECKER ROAD

Mount Joy Boro Council met in regular session Monday evening with Messrs. Fellenbaum, Eshleman, Garber and Zeller present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

It was reported that the Boro Solicitor had prepared the tax liens against the properties of the Mount Joy Magnesia Company. They amount to $53.95 and $358.38. Same were ordered filed against these properties.

The new houses on the new street in the west end of town were numbered as ordered at the last meeting of Council.

Mr. Eshleman reported the receipt of a ditch pump, new grate made for water works and that the plungers on the triplex pump need attention. The Water committee was instructed to get quotations on new plungers.

There were numerous reports made relative to prices on oil engines and motors for the pumping station.

Councilman Garber had Clerk Zeller read a letter from Solicitor John A. Coyle relative to the proper method to pursue in opening the proposed street that will intersect with Longenecker road on the east and Pinkerton road on the west. One way, he said, was to have a majority of the abutting property owners sign a petition. Mr. Coyle prepared such a petition and Councilman Garber circulated it. He had the signature of every property owner except Mr. Coventry of the Grey Iron Casting Company and Mr. S. R. Snyder. The (Turn to Page Seven)

Held for Hearing

Phares Z. Hawthorne, of Florin, was arrested Thursday night by Constables Penneck and Fox, and lodged in the county jail, pending a hearing before Alderman Roy Y. Showers on charges of assault and battery preferred by his wife. The family resides at Florin.

He was later dismissed when his wife withdrew her charges. Hawthorne paid the costs of prosecution.

The Concluding Number

The local Lyceum Course, rendered its last number on Friday evening when the National Trio presented two short plays which pleased the attendance. This course was a decided success financially, $35.00 is the balance in the treasury and this amount will be donated to the public schools library of this borough in order that they might purchase books.

Celebrates Anniversary

MEASLES CLOSED THE ROCK POINT SCHOOL

One of the worst epidemics of measles ever reported in this section has overtaken East Donegal township, between Maytown and the Mt. Joy pike, just one mile north of Marietta. Health Officer S. B. Gramm made an inspection of this district and found that out of 30 pupils attending the Rock Point school, 23 had been stricken with the measles, and only seven were left in the school so Health Officer ordered the school closed for two weeks. The quarantines on Bainbridge and Maytown were lifted last week. Marietta was very fortunate in this epidemic, as Health Officer Gramm said no cases were reported.

FIRE DESTROYS C. S. LONGENECKER'S SMITH SHOP

Fire of an unknown origin completely destroyed the blacksmith shop of Mr. C. S. Longenecker, on East Main street, shortly after midnight last night.

Mr. Chas. Seewars, night watchman at the Geo. Brown Sons' Mill, across the street, notices flames in the rear of the Longenecker building. He blew the mill whistle, a number of employes responded and they quickly pressed the mill's fire hose into service.

Shortly thereafter our fire siren was sounded and Friendship Fire Company responded. By this time a large portion of the building was already consumed by the flames. Brown's firemen withdrew and the fire company extinguished the flames.

The entire building, which was a one story frame structure, together with all its contents, including the blacksmith tools, etc., were destroyed.

Mr. Longenecker closed the shop at the usual time last evening and is at a loss to know just how the fire started.

There will be twenty voices and each a trained singer, with Miss Pauline McGarvey at the organ. Prof. Phillips is at present directing the Apollo Club as well as the Jennyland Club of Harrisburg and these organizations are well known throughout Central Pennsylvania.

Let everybody attend this Concert and show their appreciation for the Men's Federation. There will be no admission but a liberal free-will offering is asked to defray the expenses of this Choir from Harrisburg.

Let us show our appreciation and liberally support this concert in person as well as a financially, and you will be amply repaid.

FEWER WHISKEY GUARDS AT HALLAM DISTILLERY

Because of insufficient appropriation, it is said, nearly all the guards at the Foust and New Hallam distilleries in York county are being withdrawn. But two remain at Foust's distillery, while, it is said, six of the ten at the New Hallam distillery will go in a day or two.

The Foust distillery was raided by booze bandits last summer, when 181 barrels of whiskey are alleged to have been stolen. The New Hallam distillery also was raided a few weeks ago, but the bandits were caught and the 24 barrels of whiskey retaken.

Guess the authorities think what good are the guards; they'll steal the booze in spite of them.
