MAYTOWN POSTOFFICE PLACED IN THIRD CLASS

The Maytown postoffice has been placed in the third class. Miss Ethel Culp, postmistress, has been notified that the receipts warrant the office being made third class. Greater business and larger sales were the big factors in the increase. The Maytown Garment company, which established its business in Maytown a few months ago, helped the office. This new industry has given Maytown quite a boom. The company is enlarging its factory, and putting on more hands, in order to accommodate the business. Their product is sold entirely to the Woolworth stores all over the United States and Canada. Miss Culp has been post mistress of Maytown for a number of years, and succeeded her mother, who is now Mrs. Isaac Carpenter.
