DR. COOK OF NORTH POLE FAME, GETS 14 YEARS

TEXAS COURT SAYS HIS OIL COMPANY WAS DELIBER- ATE CONFIDENCE GAME SCATHING DENUN- CIATION BY JUDGE

Dr. Frederick Cook, who first gained fame by his denied claims of discovery of the North Pole, occupies a cell in the Tarrant county jail, at Fort Worth, Texas, under sentence of 14 years and 9 months in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., and a fine of $12,000, and with what was said to have been the most stinging denunciation ever heard in a Texas court room ringing in his ears.

In jail with Dr. Cook are 13 of his co-defendants, found guilty of using the mails to defraud in promoting the Petroleum Producers' Association. Included is S. E. J. Cox, one of the most colorful oil promoters Texas has ever known, and who achieved some measure of fame through his interest in aeronautics. Cox was sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary and fined $8,000.

Denounced by Court
Cox, like Dr. Cook, encountered a tongue lashing by John M. Killitts, federal district judge. As stinging as it was, it was mild in comparison with the harangue directed at the Arctic explorer who turned oil promoters and tried to amalgamate many nongovernment companies.

With what was termed by hearers as a well-defined sneer in the court's voice, "so you can say nothing?" was hurled at the dejected figure who stood in compliance with Judge Killitts' demand, "Sand up, Cook," the usual remark to prisoners about to be sentenced, and also an invitation to them to give reasons why sentence should not be imposed.

"You have come to the point where your peculiar personality falls you," Judge Killitts said as Dr. Cook stood leaning against the clerk's desk, his eyes sighted on the floor.

Robbing of widows and orphans, the aged and destitute was charged against the downcast explorer-promoter.

"Cook, have you no decency at all? Are you not haunted at night by these pitiable figures you have robbed? How can you sleep?" continued the judge.

"The Twentieth Century should be proud of Dr. Cook. History gave us Ananias and Sapphira. They are forgotten, but we still have Dr. Cook." "Stinks to High Heaven" "Cook, this deal of yours is so damnably rotten that it seems to me that your attorneys must have been forced to hold their handkerchiefs to their noses to represent you. It stinks to high heaven. The way I feel about you, I wish I were not so circumscribed. You should not be allowed to run at large at all."

MILTON GROVE

The Milton Grove school rendered a Thanksgiving program on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. O. Grosh served as juror at the Lancaster Courts for one day when she was excused.

Elder Hiram Kaylor has gone to Fairview church, near Manheim, to hold revival services for a short time. Henry Zerphy is starting to build his new barn on the old site where the old barn was destroyed by fire last summer.

Clayton Gible, who was injured badly in a gun explosion, and who had contracted blood poisoning, is recovering slowly.

Several farmers in this community have sold their tobacco to John Longenecker, of Mt. Joy, at prices ranging from 18c to 20c.

Revival services opened on Saturday evening, Nov. 17, at the Green Tree Church of the Brethren. Rev. Miller, of Cumberland county, is in charge.

The Milton Grove Schools both observed Education Week last Friday in an assorted program. The seniors of the high school delivered addresses on special subjects. The others rendered recitations, music and general questions. Professors Becker and Bechtel addressed the schools and sang a duet.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bernard and family entertained the school directors of Mt. Joy township and principal of the Mount Joy twp. high school. Mr. Bernard is a school director. Other friends of the family were also in attendance. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Strickler, Miss Mary Strickler, Elmer Strickler, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Risser, Miss Edith Risser, Harold and Mrs. Abram Young, Greiner Mr. and Mrs. Abram Young, Miss Gertrude Young, Master Lester Young, Mr. and Mrs. Farat, Abram Bernard and Miss Eva Bernard.

A New York City magistrate permitted two wives whose husbands were arrested on charges of drunkenness to pronounce the sentences. One released her husband with a severe reprimand while the other imposed a thirty-day jail sentence.

Christmas Seals have been an important factor in this life saving record.

Giving Health

The slogan of the 1923 Christmas Seal sale is "Give Health." Using all the Christmas Seals you can will be helping to save lives all through next year and will be a practical demonstration of the Yuletide spirit.

Health Insurance

Christmas Seal funds are used mainly in preventing tuberculosis and this work has helped to lower the death rate materially in Pennsylvania. Every person having the disease is a menace to those about and no person is safe while the White Plague exists. Buying Christmas Seals is providing more insurance.
