

In addition to its superior working qualities the New Majestic gives a touch of beauty to any kitchen. It is not only the best range to WORK with, it is the best to LIVE with.

YOU CAN HAVE A MAJESTIC RANGE AT ONCE

A good stock. All sizes and styles. Plain Black Finish, White, Grey or Blue enamel. MAJESTIC RANGES burn Hard Coal, Soft Coal or Wood.

WE HAVE A MAJESTIC TO SUIT EVERY HOME

J. W. ZARFOSS

22 East High Street, ELIZABETHTOWN, PA.

On Country Roads or in City Traffic

BETHOLINE

"THE WONDER MOTOR FUEL"

When the snow packs tight; when the roads are rough; when the going is hard and hill— you need this extra power; the quick and sure "pick-up," the dependable flow of energy you get when your tank has BETHOLINE in it.

FOR SALE BY

J. W. ESHELMAN—MT. JOY, PA.

DISTRIBUTORS

MT. JOY PURE OIL CO.

Mount Joy, Penna.

SHERWOOD BROTHERS, Inc.
Originators and Manufacturers
BALTIMORE, MD.

"Buy BETHOLINE Motor Oil by the can"

MICHELIN Comfort Cord

You can now get "balloon-type" tires for your present car without changing rims.

Epoch-making improvements in riding comfort, plus yearly savings of hundreds of dollars in tire and repair bills—that is what the new Michelin Comfort Cord offers you. It is twice as big as ordinary cords, is inflated to only half the pressure and sells at about the same price.

E. B. ROHRER, Mount Joy, Pa.

Young Folks Are Joined in Wedlock

NUMBER OF VERY WELL KNOWN YOUNG FOLKS ARE JOINED IN THE HOLY BONDS OF MATRIMONY

Singer—Rhoades

Miss Mary R. Rhoades, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. F. Rhoades, and Walter Singer, of Ironville, were united in marriage Friday evening. They were attended by Miss Lillian Mable, of Columbia, and Geo. Campbell, of Ironville.

Hamaker—Boltz

George Hamaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hamaker, of Manheim, and Miss Mabel M. Boltz, of Elizabethtown, were married Friday evening, in the parsonage of the United Evangelical church, Manheim.

Hanon—McClair

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Jack Hanon, of Marietta, and Elizabeth McClair of Columbia. The ceremony was solemnized in Bel Air, Maryland, November 17 of last year. They are residing in Columbia. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McClair.

A double wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of the church of God, at Landisville, when the pastor, Rev. H. S. Hershey, united in marriage Miss Alta Dulabohn and Earl Stauffer, both of Landisville, and Miss Elizabeth Trayer and John Greider, both of Landisville. Both couples left for a wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer will reside with Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Meckley and Mr. and Mrs. Greider will reside in Salunga.

CELEBRATED HER EIGHTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY

(From page one.)

ing her many more such happy birthdays.

The following were in attendance: Mr. Harvey Hawthorne and daughter Miss Mae and sons Richard and Harvey; Miss Emma Shugars, Miss Anna Shugars, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bucher and sons John, George, Harry and Jack; Mrs. Mary Spickler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weidman and son, Harry Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Greenawald, Miss Minnie Graybill, Miss Emma Pennell, Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Swarr and son Howard, Mrs. William Morton, Henry and Ellen Smeltzer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shires, Mrs. Harry Leib, Mrs. Elsie Stark, Mrs. Harvey Dillman, Mrs. Christ Charles and children Margaret, Betty and John; Miss Elizabeth Shatto, Miss Hanna Shatto, Miss Rachael Hoffer, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Stauffer, Mr. William Hollowbush, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, Mrs. Roy Sumpman, Mrs. Frank Stark, Mrs. John Horstick, Mrs. Adam Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. George Althouse, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Shickley and children, Eleanor, Ruth and Nelson; Miss Malinda Greiner, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hoffer, Mrs. Robert Kauffman, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Detwiler and daughter Dorothy; Rev. and Mrs. I. A. MacDannald, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Smeltzer and daughter Evelyn, Mr. Elmer Bailey and son Charles, Mr. William Biedeseder and son Richard, Master Raymond Kessler, Master Ira Grove, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Mumma, Miss Bessie Shearer, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Samuel Hollowell, Mrs. Isabella Hollowell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tyson and son John, Miss Anna Bunde, Miss Elizabeth Fenstermacher, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fenstermacher, Mrs. Claud Hussler, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert MacDannald and daughter Miss Dorothy, Miss Wilhelmina Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Keller and daughter Miss Marguerite, Master Thomas Brown Jr., Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Harry Smeltzer, Miss Anna Pennell, Miss Francis Masterson, Mrs. Monroe Lindemuth and daughter Miss Catharine and Miss Mildred Lindemuth.

Miss Edith Myers, Mrs. John Mumma, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. L. Schroll, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Brown, Miss Esther Henry, Mrs. George Heiserman, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Geib and daughter Anna and Emma, Mrs. Ella Baer and daughters Sarah, Ruth, Earla and son Harry, Miss Mae Zeller, Mrs. Frank Shattow, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamaker, Mrs. James Walters, Mrs. Harriet Shelly.

THREE MILLIONS PAID BY P. R. R. YEARLY IN PENSIONS

Retired employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad System received a total of $3,698,636, in pensions during 1923.

The pension plan of the Pennsylvania Railroad System was inaugurated January 1, 1900. In the twenty-four years which elapsed between that date and December 31, last, the company paid out a total of $32,187,868 in pension allowances, and retired under the plan a total of 16,406 employes.

There are at present thirty-one retired workers on the "Roll of Honor" who are ninety years or more old. There are 772 pensioners who are eighty years old or over. An analysis of the service records of the entire group of "Roll of Honor" men shows that the typical Pennsylvania Railroad employe renders about forty years of active service prior to retirement.

Local Doings Around Florin

ALL THE UP-TO-DATE HAPPENINGS FROM THAT THRIVING AND BUSY VILLAGE THE PAST WEEK

Mrs. H. S. Stoll visited relatives at Lancaster on Thursday. Miss Pearl Myers visited relatives at Harrisburg on Saturday.

Rev. L. O. Musser made a business trip to Harrisburg on Friday. Mr. Albert Booth spent Monday at Lancaster the guest of Miss—?

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kauffman announce the birth of a daughter. Miss Gertrude Haldeman is confined to the house with an attack of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Roy Moose and children visited relatives at Harrisburg on Sunday.

Mr. Leo Smith of Red Lion, York county, was a Sunday visitor to Mr. Albert Fike and family. Mr. John Miller of Reading was a Sunday visitor to his parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Miller.

Mr. A. W. Mumma shipped two carloads of fine fat cattle from the local station on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Gible spent Sunday at Rheems as guests of Mr. Elmer Hoover and family.

Mr. George Shetter, son Paul and James Rutherford spent Monday at Lancaster visiting relatives.

A force of carpenters of Middletown are erecting an office in the Florin Stove Foundry building.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schadt and son John visited the family of Frank Browning at Chester on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rider spent the week-end at Harrisburg, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz.

Mrs. Noah Dupler and daughter, Mrs. Enos Wachstetter called on relatives at the County Seat on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Geyer of Harrisburg, spent Sunday here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Geyer.

Don't forget the New York excursion will stop at the local station on Sunday, March 30. Round trip $3.75.

Mr. Harry Grosh in the employ of the State Police at Butler, Pa., was a Sunday visitor to friends in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and family of near Erisman's church were Sunday guests to Mr. Ezra Hess and family.

Mr. Walter B. Nissly a teacher at State College, spent several days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Nissly.

The many friends of Mr. William Reheard will be glad to learn he is improving from a severe attack of blood poisoning.

Mrs. John C. Dyer returned home from Pottstown on Monday where she attended the wedding of Miss Hollenbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Hollenbeck, formerly residents of this place.

Mr. E. Jay Nissly of the firm of E. L. Nissly & Sons, will sail from New York on Saturday on the New Amsterdam, for the foreign countries where he will spend several months in the interest of the firm.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

ROWENNA

D. E. Shank spent the week-end at Chambersburg.

William Green, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with A. M. Shank. Misses Mildred and Grade Kinsley spent the week-end at Wrightsville.

Mrs. Lee Snyder was removed to the hospital suffering with a broken leg.

Mrs. Arthur Conner and son, Gene, of Columbia, spent some time in Rowenna.

Mrs. Tom Manning is spending some time with Daniel Albright and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lea Good, Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan, of Middletown; Mrs. Rhoda Grove, of Maysport, spent the day at A. M. Shanks.

Miss Lila Sauder, of Bowmansville, stopped to visit her uncle, D. A. Albright, enroute to Philadelphia and New Jersey to visit her sisters, Miss Esther Sauder and Mrs. Tom Stuart.

Will Hold a Bee.

A spelling bee will be held in the Garfield school house, south of this place, on Saturday evening, March 22. An excellent program is being prepared.

Sale Was Postponed

The William Habecker stock and implement sale of March 11 was postponed until Tuesday, March 18, on account of inclement weather.

FOR SALE—Late model Ford Touring cord tires, shock absorbers, etc. P. Franck Schock, Mt. Joy, Dodge Brothers Motor Cars, mar. 12-17

LEARN TO DANCE

at the ASTER Dancing Studio
113 WEST KING STREET
(Entrance on Water)
LANCASTER, PENNA.

Prof. Morris guarantees to teach you to dance in a Ten Lesson Course. Be an educated dancer. Don't be a wall flower. Dance and keep young. Prof. Morris teaches the fundamental steps of fox trot, waltz, and ball room tango.

Do you know:
The correct dancing position?
How to lead and follow successfully?
The art of making your position look attractive?
How to gain confidence?
How to avoid embarrassing mistakes?

The correct walk in the Fox Trot? How to waltz smoothly?
If not, visit the Aster Dancing Studio and we guarantee to teach you in ten lessons.

Male and female instructors at all times.
All lessons strictly private.
Visit the studio or call Bell 3946-J.
Open from 1 to 10 P. M.
mar. 12-17

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.

Miss Elsie Kise, daughter of John O. Kise, of Washington borough and Joseph Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haines of this place, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harvey Bradley, No. 826 Blunston street, Columbia, by Rev. C. F. Kulp, pastor of Cookman Methodist church. They were attended by Miss Ruth Kise, of Washington borough, and John Torbert, of Columbia. A reception and dinner followed. After a wedding trip to eastern cities they will reside in this place.