Remarkable Echo
If the famous Mena suspension bridge is taken down, as is possible to be replaced by something more substantial, not only will a bridge be destroyed, but also a famous echo. The sound of a hammer is repeated from each supporting crossbeam in the bridge, and finally from the opposite pier 576 feet away.—London Mail.

Census of Sheep
The sheep census gives us about 37,000,000, compared with 79,000,000 for the Australasian district, and a figure slightly in excess of our own for Argentina, says Nature Magazine. The world total is estimated at about 573,000,000 and the annual production of wool averages about 3,000,000,000 pounds.

Turn Out Many Marbles
Marbles of stone are made in mills in Saxony for shipment to the United States, India and China, a mill producing an average of 3,500 of the boys' delights a day.

prior to that was a resident of Lancaster. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and the Foresters of America. His wife survives and two children, Paul and Mary. Also his mother, Mrs. Mary Livingood and a sister, Ruth, of Myerstown. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Myerstown and burial was made at the same place.

Mrs. Malinda Peck, widow of Nicholas L. Peck, one of the oldest residents of this section, died at her home Monday evening, from a complication of diseases, after a lingering illness, in her seventy-sixth year.

She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church and is survived by the following children: Anna L. Williams, Ventnor, N. J.; Mrs. George L. Shilow, Columbia; Mrs. H. P. Frank, Maytown; N. L. Peck, Columbia; and Miss Verna Peck, Maytown. Five grandchildren, four great grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Anna Gilbert, of Hallam and Mrs. Mary Gilbert, of York.

The funeral was held from her late home on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with services in charge of Rev. Charles Baker, D. D.; of the Maytown Lutheran Church. Burial was made in the family plot in the Maytown Union cemetery.

Mrs. Annie E. Wright

Mrs. Annie E. Wright 59 years old, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph O'Connor, Bainbridge, Sunday evening from a complication of diseases. Mrs. Wright was born at Morgansville West Virginia. She lived in West Virginia all her life until three months ago when she came to Bainbridge. She is survived by her husband, in Ridgeway, West Virginia; a brother, Owen S. Clagepp of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Joseph O'Connor, her daughter, with whom she was living at the time of her death. Funeral services were held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock from the home of her daughter in Bainbridge and this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Winchester, Va. Interment will be made in the Mt. Hebron Cemetery at Winchester.

Mrs. H. C. Shelly
Annie Morton Shelly, wife of Harry Shelly, died at her home, 411 South 19th Street, Harrisburg, at 12.25 P. M. yesterday of a complication of diseases, aged 56 years. She was a member of the Epworth Methodist church, of Harrisburg, and is survived by her husband, her aged mother, Mrs. Catherine Morton, of Columbia, and the following brothers and sisters: Harry, of this place; Mrs. Samuel Seifert, of Columbia; Walter, of Millersburg; Mrs. Harry Shoemaker, of Florin; Ephraim, of Columbia; and Mrs. Ammond Fry, of Palmyra. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the Evangelical church in this place. Rev. Homer Knox will officiate. Interment will be made in the Henry Eberle cemetery.

Friends and relatives will consider this their notice to attend the funeral.

Her Own Hair

George's wife found a blonde hair on the lapel of his coat. In a fit of jealousy she demanded explanations. "You see, my dear, that is last year's coat," said George, "and if you remember correctly your hair was blonde then instead of brown. I didn't change the color of your hair, did I?" Wife was so taken back she forgot George had worn that same coat four times since her curls resumed their natural shade.—Better Busses.

Queer Villages

Tucked away in odd corners of Great Britain are some villages with peculiar names. In Kent we find Painter's Forest, Dripping Gore, and Old Wives Lees. The last place derived its strange name from the fact that old women of the district used to run an annual race there for prizes offered by the local lord of the manor. Dripping Gore was so called because the Danes and Saxons are believed to have fought a battle at this spot.
