

PENN STATE THESPIAN SHOW TO GO ON ROAD

For the first time in its twenty-eight years the Penn State Thespian Club is likely to stage their annual musical comedy show in New York City. This year's show has been written by two students at the Pennsylvania State College and has been named "Wooden Shoes." It is a show in which men students impersonate female roles. The college show will go on the road during the Christmas vacation period, appearing in Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Harrisburg, Lancaster, Philadelphia and possibly New York. The same show will be staged during the Easter recess in Johnstown, Greensburg, Uniontown, Indiana, Pittsburgh and Morgantown, W. Va. The student authors are R. B. Voskamp of Pittsburgh and J. D. McLean, of New York.

Calendar day at Garber's Drug Store, Saturday, Dec. 20th. Dec. 3-3t.

Dec. Meeting of Borough Council

Mr. S. H. Miller, of Friendship Fire Company, reported several fires during the month and the apparatus is in good condition.

Burgess J. A. Bachman asked permission to place a permanent Christmas tree in the Boro park. Same was granted. It is Mr. Bachman's intention to plant a beautiful tree which can then be used over the Christmas season from year to year.

The report of Mr. Geo. B. Zeller, treasurer, showed balances in the three accounts as follows: Boro, $401.67; Water, $145.16; Interest, $90.00.

At the November meeting Council instructed a committee to get prices on a 2-ton truck for use thruout the boro. Mr. Thompson, representing the International truck sold by Mr. G. Moyer; Mr. M. S. Potter, representing the Ford truck sold by H. S. Newcomer & Son, and Mr. P. Frank Schock, local agent for the Dodge-Graham trucks, appeared before Council. The matter was then held over until the next meeting.

The Boro has a purchaser for the hitching posts and pipe recently removed from the Main street side of the park. The matter was left in the hands of the Property Committee with power to dispose of same.

President Garber suggested that we do not receive enough rental for post office building, claiming that $250.00 per annum was too low. The matter was then discussed but no action taken.

Mr. E. M. Barto reported that a boro ordinance requires a plank walk on the ties of the old P. R. R. siding on East Donegal street, along cotton mill No. 2. The matter was placed in the hands of the Burgess.

The chair instructed the Burgess and Ordinance Committee to meet and decide upon the license fees for shows, etc. in the boro so that action can be taken on an ordinance prepared for that purpose.

Chairman Garber then presented the blue prints of New street from Longenecker road west to South Market street. The plans were discussed and then held over for future consideration.

Mr. Geo. Zeller reported two dead hogs and a dead calf on farms near the boro's source of its water supply. The matter was referred to the Board of Health.

The boro's note for $1,500 was ordered renewed for sixty days and after the payment of bills amounting to $263.10 Council adjourned.

7 PENNA PIGS EQUAL WORLD'S WEIGHT RECORD

A litter of seven pigs was grown to weigh 2037 pounds, over a ton, at the age of six months, by T. B. Byers, of Vanderbilt, Fayette county, Pa., thereby tying a world's record for economical pork production in the state-wide swine breeders' contest for membership in the Keystone Ton Litter Club. Two Pennsylvania litters of eight pigs have gone over the ton mark in the contest, a record equaled by only four other swine growers in the United States. Most of the ton litter winners are made up of nine and ten pigs. A Texas breeder last year is said to have grown a seven pig litter to over a ton weight in 180 days, thought to be the only other record of the kind ever made.

The feat of the Fayette countian is regarded as a feather in the cap of Pennsylvania swine breeders. More than thirty have won the right to Ton Litter Club medals to date, and altogether State College extension swine specialists feel that Pennsylvania growers are showing the mid-western corn belt growers a thing or two in raising hogs.

MOUNT JOY LOST THE OPENING GAME OF THE SEASON—RESERVES EASILY DEFEAT ROTHSVILLE P. O. S. OF A.

The Mount Joy Basketball team went down to defeat here Monday night at the hands of the Rothsville quintet by a count of 22 to 20. The game marked the inauguration of the County League season and was featured by flashy playing on both sides.

An early spurt on the part of the visitors accounted for the victory, they getting away to a 15-8 advantage at half time. The local athletes staged a remarkable comeback in the second half, however, and steadily cut down the lead. The Rothsville tossers were equal to the occasion, however, and were still maintaining a two-point lead when the game ended.

Conrad and Irwin were the leading players for the winners while the brilliant performing of Hendrix featured for the Mount Joy combination.

In the preliminary engagement the Mount Joy reserves defeated the Rothsville P. O. S. of A. by a 39 to 10 count.

The score:

Young Folks Are Joined in Wedlock

Eshleman—Manley
A pretty wedding was celebrated in the Church of God Saturday afternoon, when Miss Mae Elizabeth Manley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Manley, 33 North Sixth street, Columbia, was united in marriage with Omar L. Eshleman, of this boro. The attendants were Russel Kauffman and Miss Hilda Buchanan. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. D. Rishel, pastor of the church. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served and a reception held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple left on a trip to Philadelphia, New York, Niagara Falls and other points and on their return will reside in Mount Joy.

Forney—Young
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Z. Young, of Florin, entertained on Thanksgiving Day in honor of their daughter, Maria, whose marriage to Roy S. Forney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Forney, took place in the morning. The bride was attired in a white satin dress and was attended by Miss Mary Martin, of York, who was attired in a changeable taffeta dress. The groom was attended by Claude Breneman, of York. The bridal couple left for an extended wedding trip to Washington, D. C. A dinner was served and those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Forney and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs. John Eshleman and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Longenecker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Phares Young, of Lancaster.
