

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOLUME XXIV NO. 45

Mount Joy, Penna., Wednesday, April 8, 1925

$1.50 a Year in Advance

You Can't Go Wrong by Patronizing Merchants Who Advertise in This Medium--They're Reliable

Landisville Has A Health Center

MRS. HARVEY MINNICK, CHAIRMAN OF HOSTESSES OF THE NEW CLINIC

A new Red Cross Health center is being organized in Landisville under the direction of the local chapter of Red Cross, according to an announcement today by Miss Elizabeth C. Taper, secretary.

The hostesses of the Landisville center are: Mrs. Harvey Minnick, chairman, Mrs. Paul Baker, Mrs. Esheleman, Mrs. Mumma, Mrs. Swarr and Miss Ruth Hoffman.

Meetings will be held on the first and third Thursday in each month in the Lutheran church, Landisville. Babies and children of pre-school age will receive attention and free diphtheria anti-toxin will be given.

School work in the county is growing to a close and the children have been weighed and measured. Health talks have been given in schools in Paradise, Strasburg, Mt. Joy, Lampeter and other towns.

Two standard classes in home hygiene and care of sick have been completed in the Lampeter Vocational school. A modified class in Christiana and in Paradise is completed.

In the near future the regular summer clinics will be opened in Mt. Joy, Elizabethtown, Strasburg, probably one in New Holland and one for the first time in Lampeter.

There is scheduled a conference of hostesses, nurses and workers of county health centers in the Lutheran church in Lititz on Thursday May 7.

During Health Week—first week in May—a special effort is being made to have speakers, moving pictures on health subjects and other instructive features on the programs in the health centers.

Met Thursday Evening
The Parent-Teacher's Association of the Neffsville Consolidated school held a meeting in the Neffsville school building, Thursday evening. Prof. H. K. Ober, of Elizabethtown college, gave an address on "The Rights of a Child."

Will Hold Rummage Sale
The Ladies Aid Society of Trinity Lutheran Church will hold a Rummage Sale in the Ricksecker building, on Saturday, May 2nd.

Lancaster County Farm Bureau Notes

THE APPENDED NEWS IS PREPARED FOR THE MOUNT JOY BULLETIN BY THE COUNTY SECRETARY

Following is very interesting news which concerns every rural resident. These items are prepared by the secretary of the Lancaster County Farm Bureau:

The Dairy Outlook
The prospects in the dairy field in Lancaster County and Southeastern Pennsylvania generally, if the long view of the situation is taken, is not altogether bright, especially for those farmers who are not considering ways and means of clearing their herds of tuberculosis.

County Agent F. S. Bucher is exerting every effort to bring this matter before the farmers of the county and with the assistance of (Turn to Page 4)

Had A Good Sale
The executors of the late H. C. Schock sold a large lot of household goods at public sale at the Schock homestead, Saturday afternoon. Over 500 sales were made by auctioneer C. S. Frank. The sale was very largely attended.

Installing Large Window
Mr. Jacob Boyer has the carpenters busy installing a large show window in his place of business on East Main street where he will open with a fine line of Gunzenhauser's baked products.

Gave Bail for Court
John C. Strickler, of town, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Danner, of Manheim, on a charge of driving his automobile while under the influence of liquor, and was held in bail for court.

He Used Good Judgment
Aldus Logan, aged 25, of near Quarryville, was cranking his car when it backfired and set his clothing on fire. With flames all over him, he plunged into water trough and escaped uninjured.

BIG DAIRY MEETING AT RHEEMS APRIL 13

All preliminary arrangements for the dairy meeting to be held in the school house at Rheems, have been completed says Mr. J. L. Heisey, of that village, and there is every indication that the attendance will tax the capacity of the building.

All who are interested in the promotion of better dairying, should attend, as that is the express purpose of the meeting.

A prominent speaker from the extension service, County Farm Agent Bucher, and several other good men will be present.

The meeting will be held Monday evening, April 13 at 8 P. M. No admission will be charged and everybody, including the ladies, invited.

Churches Observe Palm Sunday

SPECIAL PROGRAMS RENDERED BY SEVERAL CONGREGATIONS—THE SPECIAL MUSIC WAS A FEATURE

Palm Sunday was fittingly observed here Sunday by our local churches as follows:

Presbyterian Church
The Palm Sunday service in the local Presbyterian church was characterized by the establishing of a new custom. Instead of announcing a part from the platform, a printed program appeared giving each part as it was presented. This custom is new in this town for regular services. It is being used in the city churches with success and the local pastor is giving the plan a trial.

The Palm Sunday service was held Sunday evening. The program follows: organ prelude, "The Palms"; doxology; Invocation and Gloria; responsive reading; scripture lesson St. Luke 23:44-56; prayer; offertory and organ selection from Newell; sermon, entitled: "The Cross," by the pastor, Rev. James M. Fisher; benediction and silent prayer, organ postlude, "At Sunset," Sellars.

Trinity Lutheran
The local Trinity Lutheran church admitted seventeen new members (Turn to page four)

Churches Observe Palm Sunday

SPECIAL PROGRAMS RENDERED BY SEVERAL CONGREGATIONS—THE SPECIAL MUSIC WAS A FEATURE

Palm Sunday was fittingly observed here Sunday by our local churches as follows:

Presbyterian Church
The Palm Sunday service in the local Presbyterian church was characterized by the establishing of a new custom. Instead of announcing a part from the platform, a printed program appeared giving each part as it was presented. This custom is new in this town for regular services. It is being used in the city churches with success and the local pastor is giving the plan a trial.

The Palm Sunday service was held Sunday evening. The program follows: organ prelude, "The Palms"; doxology; Invocation and Gloria; responsive reading; scripture lesson St. Luke 23:44-56; prayer; offertory and organ selection from Newell; sermon, entitled: "The Cross," by the pastor, Rev. James M. Fisher; benediction and silent prayer, organ postlude, "At Sunset," Sellars.

Trinity Lutheran
The local Trinity Lutheran church admitted seventeen new members (Turn to page four)

Very Large Funeral
Over seven hundred people attended the funeral of Elmer C. Witmer, held in the local United Brethren church Sunday afternoon. The local American Legion appeared in a group at the funeral. H. S. Kiefer preached the sermon. Flowers were in abundance and the casket was draped by the American flag as the deceased was a veteran in the World War.

Day of Fasting and Prayer
The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will observe Good Friday as a day of fasting and prayer. All the members are urged to be present at the services on Friday evening in the church. Bring your Lenten offering. If you have not received an envelope ask the President for one.

Fell Off A Roof
I. N. Stormfeltz, aged 40 years, of East Petersburg, is in St. Joseph's Hospital at Lancaster suffering from injuries sustained by falling off a roof on which he was working.

Local Pastor Returned
The Methodist congregation and his many friends here will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. A. Swartz, was reappointed pastor of the local charge for another year.

Burgess Has Mishap
Burgess John A. Bachman is moving about with the assistance of two canes, caused by a badly sprained ankle sustained Sunday evening.

BIG DINNER IN HONOR OF MRS. FELKER SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Garber gave a dinner at their home on West Main street, Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Felker, who celebrated her seventy-second birthday anniversary on that day. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Felker and children, of Wernersville; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stout and children, of Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. John Sprout and children, Mrs. Monroe Frank, Alberta Sprout, Clair Wagner, John Grubengischer, Mrs. Emma Felker, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Garber, all of town. Mrs. Felker was the recipient of many gifts.

Very Large Funeral
Over seven hundred people attended the funeral of Elmer C. Witmer, held in the local United Brethren church Sunday afternoon. The local American Legion appeared in a group at the funeral. H. S. Kiefer preached the sermon. Flowers were in abundance and the casket was draped by the American flag as the deceased was a veteran in the World War.

Day of Fasting and Prayer
The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will observe Good Friday as a day of fasting and prayer. All the members are urged to be present at the services on Friday evening in the church. Bring your Lenten offering. If you have not received an envelope ask the President for one.

Fell Off A Roof
I. N. Stormfeltz, aged 40 years, of East Petersburg, is in St. Joseph's Hospital at Lancaster suffering from injuries sustained by falling off a roof on which he was working.

Local Pastor Returned
The Methodist congregation and his many friends here will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. A. Swartz, was reappointed pastor of the local charge for another year.

Burgess Has Mishap
Burgess John A. Bachman is moving about with the assistance of two canes, caused by a badly sprained ankle sustained Sunday evening.

Very Large Funeral
Over seven hundred people attended the funeral of Elmer C. Witmer, held in the local United Brethren church Sunday afternoon. The local American Legion appeared in a group at the funeral. H. S. Kiefer preached the sermon. Flowers were in abundance and the casket was draped by the American flag as the deceased was a veteran in the World War.

Day of Fasting and Prayer
The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will observe Good Friday as a day of fasting and prayer. All the members are urged to be present at the services on Friday evening in the church. Bring your Lenten offering. If you have not received an envelope ask the President for one.

Fell Off A Roof
I. N. Stormfeltz, aged 40 years, of East Petersburg, is in St. Joseph's Hospital at Lancaster suffering from injuries sustained by falling off a roof on which he was working.

Local Pastor Returned
The Methodist congregation and his many friends here will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. A. Swartz, was reappointed pastor of the local charge for another year.

Burgess Has Mishap
Burgess John A. Bachman is moving about with the assistance of two canes, caused by a badly sprained ankle sustained Sunday evening.

Very Large Funeral
Over seven hundred people attended the funeral of Elmer C. Witmer, held in the local United Brethren church Sunday afternoon. The local American Legion appeared in a group at the funeral. H. S. Kiefer preached the sermon. Flowers were in abundance and the casket was draped by the American flag as the deceased was a veteran in the World War.

Day of Fasting and Prayer
The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will observe Good Friday as a day of fasting and prayer. All the members are urged to be present at the services on Friday evening in the church. Bring your Lenten offering. If you have not received an envelope ask the President for one.

Fell Off A Roof
I. N. Stormfeltz, aged 40 years, of East Petersburg, is in St. Joseph's Hospital at Lancaster suffering from injuries sustained by falling off a roof on which he was working.

Local Pastor Returned
The Methodist congregation and his many friends here will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. A. Swartz, was reappointed pastor of the local charge for another year.

Burgess Has Mishap
Burgess John A. Bachman is moving about with the assistance of two canes, caused by a badly sprained ankle sustained Sunday evening.

Very Large Funeral
Over seven hundred people attended the funeral of Elmer C. Witmer, held in the local United Brethren church Sunday afternoon. The local American Legion appeared in a group at the funeral. H. S. Kiefer preached the sermon. Flowers were in abundance and the casket was draped by the American flag as the deceased was a veteran in the World War.

Day of Fasting and Prayer
The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will observe Good Friday as a day of fasting and prayer. All the members are urged to be present at the services on Friday evening in the church. Bring your Lenten offering. If you have not received an envelope ask the President for one.

Fell Off A Roof
I. N. Stormfeltz, aged 40 years, of East Petersburg, is in St. Joseph's Hospital at Lancaster suffering from injuries sustained by falling off a roof on which he was working.

Local Pastor Returned
The Methodist congregation and his many friends here will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. A. Swartz, was reappointed pastor of the local charge for another year.

Burgess Has Mishap
Burgess John A. Bachman is moving about with the assistance of two canes, caused by a badly sprained ankle sustained Sunday evening.

Road We Must All Travel Sometime

MANY WELL KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Edward S. Smeltz, aged 73, a former Mayor of Lancaster died Thursday.

E. A. Becker, a prominent business man of Columbia, died Sunday, aged 62 years.

John H. Dommel
John H. Dommel, of Lancaster, a candidate for County Commissioner last fall, died, aged 57 years. William Dommel, of Florin, is a brother.

Miss Mertie M. Kauffman
Mertie Musser Kauffman, a professional nurse and a former resident of Marietta, but recently employed at the Home for Friendless Children, Reading, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alonzo Filby, Marietta, Sunday. She was 34 years of age and a member of the Presbyterian church of Marietta.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller
Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Miller died at her home at 207 Mount Joy street on Monday evening at five o'clock. Death was due to a complication of diseases after an illness of ten weeks. Deceased was aged fifty-four years.

The funeral will be held from the late home Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment will be made in the Mount Joy cemetery.

Charles Andes
Funeral services for Charles Andes, of Steelton, who died Wednesday morning, were held at East Petersburg Reformed church, on Saturday morning. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. He is survived by two step-brothers, A. C. Sheetz, of East Petersburg, and Harry Sheetz, of Lancaster; and a step-sister, Mrs. A. E. Zerphy, of East Petersburg.

Miss Maria S. Ginder
Miss Maria S. Ginder died Sunday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Walter Brubaker, at Mastersonville, from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy. She was 61 years of age and a daughter of the late Jacob and Anna Shenk Ginder. She was a member of the Brethren church. (Turn to page five)

Successful Bee at Garfield School

WAS VERY LARGELY ATTENDED ON SATURDAY EVENING—MISS DORA SOUDERS IS THE TEACHER

The spelling bee held at the Garfield school, Rapho township, one mile and a half southeast of town, Saturday evening, was well attended. The school is taught by Miss Dora Souders, of Rohrerstown.

In the first spelling class Blanche Newcomer, Victor Engle, and Lloyd Vogle won first, second and third prizes respectively. In the spelling class open to all Harry Rohrer won first prize, Eli M. Engle second prize, and Helen Rohrer third prize. The general information class was taught by Mr. J. K. Mose, of Sporting Hill. In this class Harry Rohrer, Eli Musser, Phares Niesley and Eli M. Engle were the prize winners. The engine (Continued on page 5.)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

School Board in Regular Session

BOND ISSUE PASSED—TAX RATE '13 MILLS, SAME AS LAST YEAR—OTHER SCHOOL MATTERS.

The School Board met in regular monthly session on Monday evening with all the members except Mr. T. J. Brown present.

A resolution in reference to the bond issue as prepared by the solicitor was passed by a unanimous vote. The board discussed the tax rate and decided that the present rate of 13 mills would be sufficient. Upon motion the rate was then made same as last year, but will be divided, 8 1/2 mills for general purposes and 4 1/2 mills for the sinking fund.

The per capita tax was increased from one to three dollars per head, this being the only change in any of the taxes.

It was decided to open bids from contractors on Thursday, April 23rd at 7:30 P. M.

The schools will close for the Easter vacation on Thursday, April 9th at 4 P. M. and re-open on Tuesday, April 14th at 8 A. M.

Miss Esther Keady, present Art teacher, was re-elected for the next school term.

All the bills were then paid and the Board adjourned.

PERSONAL MENTION ABOUT THE MANY COMERS AND GOERS IN THIS LOCALITY

Miss Iva Shoop spent Sunday afternoon at Harrisburg.

Mr. Arthur Schock, of Beaver, Pa., spent several days in town.

Penrose Foreman, of Blain, visited with Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Miss Celia Cramer, of Ironville visited the family of Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hendrix and Miss Hilda Schneider spent the weekend with the former's sister, Mrs. Jos. Seibert, at Camden, N. J.

Clara Greenawalt, a nurse in the Lancaster General hospital spent Sunday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Greenawalt.

PERSONAL MENTION ABOUT THE MANY COMERS AND GOERS IN THIS LOCALITY

Miss Iva Shoop spent Sunday afternoon at Harrisburg.

Mr. Arthur Schock, of Beaver, Pa., spent several days in town.

Penrose Foreman, of Blain, visited with Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Miss Celia Cramer, of Ironville visited the family of Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hendrix and Miss Hilda Schneider spent the weekend with the former's sister, Mrs. Jos. Seibert, at Camden, N. J.

Clara Greenawalt, a nurse in the Lancaster General hospital spent Sunday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Greenawalt.

PERSONAL MENTION ABOUT THE MANY COMERS AND GOERS IN THIS LOCALITY

Miss Iva Shoop spent Sunday afternoon at Harrisburg.

Mr. Arthur Schock, of Beaver, Pa., spent several days in town.

Penrose Foreman, of Blain, visited with Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Miss Celia Cramer, of Ironville visited the family of Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hendrix and Miss Hilda Schneider spent the weekend with the former's sister, Mrs. Jos. Seibert, at Camden, N. J.

Clara Greenawalt, a nurse in the Lancaster General hospital spent Sunday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Greenawalt.

PERSONAL MENTION ABOUT THE MANY COMERS AND GOERS IN THIS LOCALITY

Miss Iva Shoop spent Sunday afternoon at Harrisburg.

Mr. Arthur Schock, of Beaver, Pa., spent several days in town.

Penrose Foreman, of Blain, visited with Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Miss Celia Cramer, of Ironville visited the family of Mrs. D. W. Kramer, on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hendrix and Miss Hilda Schneider spent the weekend with the former's sister, Mrs. Jos. Seibert, at Camden, N. J.

Clara Greenawalt, a nurse in the Lancaster General hospital spent Sunday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Greenawalt.

All Local Ministers Made Honorary Members

The regular monthly meeting of Friendship Fire Company was held Thursday evening. Messrs. Elmer Zerphy and Carl Krall were elected to membership. All the ministers in town were elected to honorary membership. Upon motion the Company will ask Council for an appropriation of $100. A resolution was passed extending a vote of thanks to all who assisted in making the recent memorial a success.

Successful Bee at Garfield School

WAS VERY LARGELY ATTENDED ON SATURDAY EVENING—MISS DORA SOUDERS IS THE TEACHER

The spelling bee held at the Garfield school, Rapho township, one mile and a half southeast of town, Saturday evening, was well attended. The school is taught by Miss Dora Souders, of Rohrerstown.

In the first spelling class Blanche Newcomer, Victor Engle, and Lloyd Vogle won first, second and third prizes respectively. In the spelling class open to all Harry Rohrer won first prize, Eli M. Engle second prize, and Helen Rohrer third prize. The general information class was taught by Mr. J. K. Mose, of Sporting Hill. In this class Harry Rohrer, Eli Musser, Phares Niesley and Eli M. Engle were the prize winners. The engine (Continued on page 5.)

Successful Bee at Garfield School

WAS VERY LARGELY ATTENDED ON SATURDAY EVENING—MISS DORA SOUDERS IS THE TEACHER

The spelling bee held at the Garfield school, Rapho township, one mile and a half southeast of town, Saturday evening, was well attended. The school is taught by Miss Dora Souders, of Rohrerstown.

In the first spelling class Blanche Newcomer, Victor Engle, and Lloyd Vogle won first, second and third prizes respectively. In the spelling class open to all Harry Rohrer won first prize, Eli M. Engle second prize, and Helen Rohrer third prize. The general information class was taught by Mr. J. K. Mose, of Sporting Hill. In this class Harry Rohrer, Eli Musser, Phares Niesley and Eli M. Engle were the prize winners. The engine (Continued on page 5.)

Successful Bee at Garfield School

WAS VERY LARGELY ATTENDED ON SATURDAY EVENING—MISS DORA SOUDERS IS THE TEACHER

The spelling bee held at the Garfield school, Rapho township, one mile and a half southeast of town, Saturday evening, was well attended. The school is taught by Miss Dora Souders, of Rohrerstown.

In the first spelling class Blanche Newcomer, Victor Engle, and Lloyd Vogle won first, second and third prizes respectively. In the spelling class open to all Harry Rohrer won first prize, Eli M. Engle second prize, and Helen Rohrer third prize. The general information class was taught by Mr. J. K. Mose, of Sporting Hill. In this class Harry Rohrer, Eli Musser, Phares Niesley and Eli M. Engle were the prize winners. The engine (Continued on page 5.)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

A Local Resident Fleeced by Crook

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME COST W. T. TAYLOR OF THIS PLACE, NEAT SUM OF MONEY

And still they fall for the oldest of confidence games!

W. T. Taylor, a local colored man, is the latest victim of the scheme in which the prospective "easy mark" is persuaded to buy an interest in a large sum of money which the swindlers have just "found" on the street. It cost him $150 to discover the inner workings of the game.

About 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Taylor encountered two well dressed negroes at North Queen streets, at Lancaster. Very secretly and excitedly these men asked Taylor to what fraternal organization he belonged. Remarkably, it was discovered that all three were members of the same colored order.

Very confidentially and excitedly the two strangers informed the Mount Joy man that, because he belonged to their lodge, they were (Turn to page 5)

Claim This Was A Love Affair

LEE BAKER, OF NEAR BLAIN, SHOT BY A MASKED MAN AS HE LEAVES HOME OF SWEETHEART

Investigation into the Blain love feud in which a young man was shot and seriously wounded as he was leaving his sweetheart's home early yesterday was begun by Perry County authorities and the State Police today.

Lee Baker, of near Blain, lies in the Harrisburg Hospital with a bullet wound in his chest as a result of an attack by a masked assailant in the early hours of the morning.

Miss Mary Wentz, 16, also of near Blain, at whose home the shooting occurred, is aiding the authorities in their search for the unknown man who fired twice at her (Turn to page 4)

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following:

Edwin Walters and wife have moved into the building adjoining the Clarence Weaver barber shop, on West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Keim moved from the former Trexler property into the John Givens property on Delta street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horstlick moved from the Miller property on South Barbara street into the Robert Kauffman property on East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breneman moved from the former Baker property, on New Haven street to Elizabethtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Divett moved from the P. R. R. property on West Donegal street to their own home on New Haven street.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sumpman and family are moving from the Schickley property on Mount Joy street to the Miller property on South Barbara street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schickley will move into their home on Mount Joy street from the E. F. Baker Estate property on East Main street.

MORE FLITTINGS HERE OVER MOVING DAY

In addition to our large list of flittings last week, we failed to mention the following: