Mount Joy High Second at Penn

COACH FLAHERTY'S RELAY RUNNERS GAVE GOOD AC- COUNT OF THEMSELVES AT BIG ATHLETIC MEET

Three cheers for Coach Flaherty and his relay team of the Mount Joy High School.

ALBERT BOOTH
MERL HOFFER
HENRY NISSLEY
JOHN ESHELMAN

Of course we may not forget the subs, Ralph Byers and Elmer Herman. They went to Philadelphia Saturday and competing with many of the best school teams in the state, won second place in event No. 53, the one mile relay race at the big athletic meet of the University of Pennsylvania field. Our young men could not have run a better race. They were only nosed out by Lehigh. They competed with such schools as Lehigh, Oxford, West Grove, Slatersville, and others, there being ten teams in the competition.

One year ago Lehigh won first place in the same event and Mount Joy High second. Strange as it may seem the same teams finished in the same order again this year. The time for the mile was 3:43-5.

Each of the winners received a handsome silver medal as an award for their victory.

Last year after being defeated at Philadelphia, there was an athletic meet at F. and M. Lancaster and Mt. Joy High defeated the same Lehigh team in the mile relay. That's some consolation at least, but our boys will begin training at once with a double slogan in view for next year: First, beat Lehigh. Second, win the one mile relay.

Those from town who witnessed the athletic meet were: Dr. A. F. Snyder, Clyde Gerberich, Fred Bucher, Joseph Moore, Fred Dittender, Robert Heilig, John Brandt, and Joseph Sheaffer.

FARM WOMEN SOCIETY NO. 8 HOLDS MEETING

The Farm Women of Society No. 8 met at the home of Mrs. Harry Hershey, near this place. A very interesting program was rendered. Mr. Charles Nissley, from State College, gave a very fine and instructive talk on the "Home Garden." Refreshments were served by the hosts.

The Society will meet the third Saturday in May, the 16th, at the home of Miss Anna Keller, when Mrs. Rohrer, the famous cook, will talk on "Health."

Rice—Mawson

Miss Ruth Mae Rice, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Harold Mawson, of North Philadelphia, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rice, at Florin, at 4:30 P. M. Easter Monday. Rev. Miller, of the United Brethren church at Florin, tied the nuptial knot. A dinner was served to a number of guests after which the newly wedded couple left on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in the City of Brotherly Love.

Third Annual Meet

The third annual public school athletic meet will be held on the Recreation Grounds here, on Friday afternoon, May 15. Applications are already being received and there is great interest in this meet ever since its inauguration here. There is every indication that competition will be keener than ever this year.

Sure Pigs Can Swim

Recently a good sized pig disappeared from the pen of Bernard Ortman, at Washingtonboro. A few days later it was found on Shad Island, in the Susquehanna river, which was a good distance. When pursued it jumped into the river and swam toward shore.

Both Found Guilty

Charles Renter, aged 17, and George Rapp, 20 years old, of Marietta, were found guilty of arson and the jury recommended mercy. They were accused of causing the recent fire at Hiestand's lumber yards there.

MOTORIST FALLS ASLEEP DRIVING HIS AUTO

While traveling east Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Lewis of Danville, met with an accident west of town early on Saturday morning. Mr. Lewis actually fell asleep while driving and his car ran off the road west of town. Mrs. Lewis escaped uninjured but Mr. Lewis was less fortunate. He was taken to the office of Dr. W. M. Thome here and treated for a broken arm. He sustained a gash in his arm that required eighteen stitches. Three of his teeth were also knocked out.

After receiving medical attention by Dr. Thome he was removed to the hospital at Lancaster.

Two Autos Collided

Wednesday afternoon two automobiles collided on Chickies Hill, near the Reading Railroad crossing. The smaller car was upset and badly damaged. The driver escaped injury and his name could not be learned. The large car was owned by Wm. McCowin, of Billmyer. He escaped injury.

Bainbridge High Baccalaureate

REGULAR CHURCH SERVICES DISPENSED WITH ON EVE OF GRADUATING CLASS SERMON

St. Luke's Lutheran church, at Bainbridge, was well filled Sunday evening as the other churches dispensed services to attend the annual baccalaureate festivities. Rev. I. P. Zimmerman, pastor, preached a very eloquent sermon, taking as his text, "Getting Something For Nothing." The choir augmented for the occasion, furnished special music. The colors of the class—brown and gold—prevailed among the decorations. The teachers, directors, and graduates occupied front seats. Miss Verna F. Peck, principal, has arranged good programs for class day, which will be held on Thursday, April 30, and for commencement, Friday, May 1.

Prof. J. H. Gaige, of Millersville, will be the orator at the commencement exercises. All events will be held in the Lutheran church. Following the commencement, a banquet will be held at the Central restaurant and members of the alumni as far back as 1897, are expected to be present. Hinkle's Orchestra will furnish music. Prof. Maurice Demmy, of Litz, will deliver the address of the evening.

EXECUTION AGAINST FLORIN MAN FOR $350,000.00

S. R. Zimmerman, B. J. Myers, B. Frank Keady and O. S. Scheaffer, attorneys for the Lancaster Trust Company and Eli Nissley, trustee have issued an execution against Christian L. Nissley, of Florin, for $350,000. The execution is issued on a judgment bond which Nissley confessed in favor of the Lancaster Trust Company and Eli Nissley for the benefit of his creditors. It is said he endorsed a number of notes for his son, John Nissley.

Win A Scholarship

Examinations for a state scholarship will be held in the High school here on Friday, May 1, from 9 A. M. to 1:30 P. M. The examinations are taken under the direction of the Department of Public Instruction. One person in each county in the state of Penna., will be awarded a scholarship in the college of his choice, free. This is an annual event and from general rumors, there will be a number of local applicants.

CONEWAGO INN PROPRIETOR IS HELD FOR COURT

State Troopers Arthur B. Snyder, John Franks and Robert O'Rourke Wednesday night testified before Alderman Burkhardt that when they raided the Conewago Inn, operated on the Harrisburg pike near Elizabethtown by Christian Herr, they discovered 18 pint bottles of liquor of more than legal alcoholic content.

Consequently Herr was held for the September term of court under $500 bail, which he furnished. Mary Bolash and Bessie R. Hevel, arrested for the same offense, also were given a hearing but the alderman held their cases under advisement.

FINED FOR BREAKING MUMPS QUARANTINE

Christian H. Nissley, East Petersburg, prosecuted by County Health Officer Frank Deen, before Alderman Doebler for violating the State health laws by leaving premises quarantined for mumps, was sentenced to pay the State fine of $50 and costs.

Orders of the Court

Terms at the Huntingdon reformatory for setting fire to lumber sheds on the B. F. Hiestand and Sons company property at Marietta Saturday were meted out to George Rapp and Charles Reuter, Marietta youths, by Judge Landis. C. V. Fite, of this place, convicted of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated was fined $200 and costs.

FEDERAL AGENTS RAIDED HOTEL HERE ON SATURDAY

About three o'clock Saturday afternoon Federal agents from Philadelphia raided the hotel conducted by Messrs. Samuel Mateer and James Baughman, in this place. Very little evidence was seized as only a pint of alleged "moonshine" could be found on the premises. The place was closed and is still closed.

This was the second time within a year that this place was raided.

Here's A Real Bargain

To any one who buys it within the next few days it will be a corn in Florin with all modern conveniences, large garage, everything in A1 shape. Will be sold at a great sacrifice for a snappy sale. Possession at once. Phone 41R2, Mount Joy.

MAYTOWN MAN JAILED FOR A TRIAL AT COURT

David K. Hinkle, of Maytown, arrested several days ago by the Columbia police on complaint of William Findley, who charges that Hinkle gave him a worthless check for $2,100 in payment for the Tremont House at Columbia, sold to him by Findley, was brought from the county jail Wednesday evening and given a hearing before Justice Smetzer. The case was made out and in default of bail Hinkle was remanded to jail for trial at court.

Our Big Memorial Day Demonstration

SEVERAL GOOD BANDS HAVE ALREADY BEEN ENGAGED THE PARADE WILL AGAIN BE QUITE A FEATURE

The committee in charge of Memorial Day affairs are making rapid progress in their endeavor to make this year's demonstration one of the biggest ever held here.

The Emigsville Band of York, has been engaged to play in the parade, at the services in the park, and will play in the forenoon and at the service in the park in the afternoon. At least one other band will be engaged. They just closed a contract with the Premier Male Quartette of Harrisburg, to sing at the services in the afternoon and also intersperse with the band concert in the evening.

No speaker has been definitely settled upon as yet, but no efforts are being spared to get an able one.

All patriotic, fraternal, educational and civic organizations are requested to lend a hand in trying to make Memorial Day as big an affair as it was prior to the World War.

Recent Local Real Estate Matters

Realtor Jno. E. Schroll reports the sale of the J. B. Touey property, on Marietta street, in this town, to Mr. Engle, of the realty firm of Engle and Hambricht at Lancaster.
