

MT. JOY BULLETIN
MOUNT JOY, PA.
J. E. SCHROLL, Editor & Prop.

Subscription Price $1.50 Per Year
Sample Copies...FREE
Single Copies...3 Cents
Three Months...40 Cents
Six Months...75 Cents

EDITORIAL
DETOURS COSTLY
The high cost and inconvenience caused by road detours is an important matter in considering the economy of different paving materials.

SIGNS OF A GOOD TOWN
Show us a place in which the merchants advertise 100 per cent and we'll show you a good town.

RESTORING ROBERT E. LEE'S HOME
It would be a gracious act for the Congress of the United States to approve the request of the War Department for the restoration of Robert E. Lee's home.

ADVERTISING DID IT
Wrigley, the chewing gum man, has explained how he built up a business of millions of packages a day.

TEMPTING YOUNG GIRLS
The automobile, properly used, is one of the greatest of all instruments for pleasure as well as profit.

SAYING GOOD-BYE
Several Lancaster county families are making last preparations to leave for the new land of opportunity—Florida.

ERISMAN'S CHURCH
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and family visited Grandma Witmer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sander dined with Martin Ebersole's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and family, of Safe Harbor, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erb's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Snyder and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Nolt were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Brubaker on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Stauffer entertained Rev. and Mrs. Mark Kreiders, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kreider, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Elam Stauffer and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stauffer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay M. Reich announce the birth of a son, Elmer Walters is seriously ill at his home on the Rich farm, north of Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith announce the birth of a son at the Columbia hospital.

Mrs. George Naylor and Mrs. J. Shellenberger and daughter, Ruth, spent Friday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lewis L. Schock is confined to her home, East Market St., with a badly sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraybill and son, Harry, of Johnstown, visited relatives and friends here recently.

Mrs. William Harper, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Burd Cassel, of East Market street.

Miss Frances Gramm, of Philadelphia, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gramm, on West Market street.

John Baker, of Bryn Mawr, spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thumma, West Market street.

Miss Myra Druckenmiller returned home to Sayre, Pa., accompanied by her cousin, Miss Elsie R. Engle, West Market St., this place.

Charles H. Mueller is attending the convention of the Alpha Sigma Phi in Washington, D. C. He is a delegate of the Lambda Chapter of Columbia University.

Miss Margaret Barr and Dorothy Evans, Rev. Charles E. Berghaus and Robert T. Schellenberger motored to Carlisle, Labor Day.

Frederick Fryberger, Ralph Kline, Samuel Reynolds and Ray Brill have returned to Williamson Trade School, Philadelphia, after spending their summer vacation here.

The surviving members of Lieutenant William H. Child Post, No. 226, Grand Army, assembled in the Post room in the Miller Hardware building Sunday afternoon when, business of importance was transacted.

Miss Eva Peck recently entertained a number of friends at her home, West Market street, in honor of Miss Marion Franck, Torrie Warring and Richard Gross of Philadelphia. Dancing was one of the features of the evening.

Refreshments were served. Those present were: Janet Spangler, Harvella Goddard, Vivian Millmyer, Marriet Miller, Josephine Schock, Eva Peck, Marion Franck, Torrie Warring, Richard Gross, John Frey, Alfred Bucher, John Baker, Richard O'Brien, John Orth and James Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Enterline's business increased to such an extent they are compelled to annex additional buildings to their large structures. At present, Albert Walters, contractor of Florin, and force of men, are attaching a two story building to the house, in order to convert it into a double house, to be occupied by their employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brubaker, extensive growers of tomatoes, potatoes, sweet corn, cabbage and various vegetables, which they distribute to their many customers in Florin and Mount Joy, Wednesday and Saturday, each week, report a successful yield from their small farm, near Milton Grove, which J. Hefflinger, of Elizabethtown, purchased at private sale, to take possession about April 1, 1926.

Prof. S. B. Landis and pupils, of the Rheems school, failed to observe the rule "Wood man, spare the tree," while chopping down a large tree that was a menace to the school building on the north side, decaying the roof and spouting and barring out the light. The boys, mostly of the Rheems Boy Scouts, deserve credit for assisting the teacher, to reduce the large trunk and heavy branches into stove length size, placed in the cellar close to the furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and family visited Grandma Witmer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sander dined with Martin Ebersole's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and family, of Safe Harbor, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erb's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Snyder and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Nolt were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Brubaker on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay M. Reich announce the birth of a son, Elmer Walters is seriously ill at his home on the Rich farm, north of Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith announce the birth of a son at the Columbia hospital.

Mrs. George Naylor and Mrs. J. Shellenberger and daughter, Ruth, spent Friday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lewis L. Schock is confined to her home, East Market St., with a badly sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraybill and son, Harry, of Johnstown, visited relatives and friends here recently.

Mrs. William Harper, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Burd Cassel, of East Market street.

Miss Frances Gramm, of Philadelphia, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gramm, on West Market street.

John Baker, of Bryn Mawr, spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thumma, West Market street.

Miss Myra Druckenmiller returned home to Sayre, Pa., accompanied by her cousin, Miss Elsie R. Engle, West Market St., this place.

Charles H. Mueller is attending the convention of the Alpha Sigma Phi in Washington, D. C. He is a delegate of the Lambda Chapter of Columbia University.

Miss Margaret Barr and Dorothy Evans, Rev. Charles E. Berghaus and Robert T. Schellenberger motored to Carlisle, Labor Day.

Frederick Fryberger, Ralph Kline, Samuel Reynolds and Ray Brill have returned to Williamson Trade School, Philadelphia, after spending their summer vacation here.

The surviving members of Lieutenant William H. Child Post, No. 226, Grand Army, assembled in the Post room in the Miller Hardware building Sunday afternoon when, business of importance was transacted.

Miss Eva Peck recently entertained a number of friends at her home, West Market street, in honor of Miss Marion Franck, Torrie Warring and Richard Gross of Philadelphia. Dancing was one of the features of the evening.

Refreshments were served. Those present were: Janet Spangler, Harvella Goddard, Vivian Millmyer, Marriet Miller, Josephine Schock, Eva Peck, Marion Franck, Torrie Warring, Richard Gross, John Frey, Alfred Bucher, John Baker, Richard O'Brien, John Orth and James Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Enterline's business increased to such an extent they are compelled to annex additional buildings to their large structures. At present, Albert Walters, contractor of Florin, and force of men, are attaching a two story building to the house, in order to convert it into a double house, to be occupied by their employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brubaker, extensive growers of tomatoes, potatoes, sweet corn, cabbage and various vegetables, which they distribute to their many customers in Florin and Mount Joy, Wednesday and Saturday, each week, report a successful yield from their small farm, near Milton Grove, which J. Hefflinger, of Elizabethtown, purchased at private sale, to take possession about April 1, 1926.

Prof. S. B. Landis and pupils, of the Rheems school, failed to observe the rule "Wood man, spare the tree," while chopping down a large tree that was a menace to the school building on the north side, decaying the roof and spouting and barring out the light. The boys, mostly of the Rheems Boy Scouts, deserve credit for assisting the teacher, to reduce the large trunk and heavy branches into stove length size, placed in the cellar close to the furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and family visited Grandma Witmer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sander dined with Martin Ebersole's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and family, of Safe Harbor, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erb's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Snyder and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Nolt were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Brubaker on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Stauffer entertained Rev. and Mrs. Mark Kreiders, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kreider, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Elam Stauffer and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stauffer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay M. Reich announce the birth of a son, Elmer Walters is seriously ill at his home on the Rich farm, north of Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith announce the birth of a son at the Columbia hospital.

Mrs. George Naylor and Mrs. J. Shellenberger and daughter, Ruth, spent Friday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lewis L. Schock is confined to her home, East Market St., with a badly sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraybill and son, Harry, of Johnstown, visited relatives and friends here recently.

Mrs. William Harper, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Burd Cassel, of East Market street.

Miss Frances Gramm, of Philadelphia, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gramm, on West Market street.

John Baker, of Bryn Mawr, spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thumma, West Market street.

Miss Myra Druckenmiller returned home to Sayre, Pa., accompanied by her cousin, Miss Elsie R. Engle, West Market St., this place.

Charles H. Mueller is attending the convention of the Alpha Sigma Phi in Washington, D. C. He is a delegate of the Lambda Chapter of Columbia University.

Miss Margaret Barr and Dorothy Evans, Rev. Charles E. Berghaus and Robert T. Schellenberger motored to Carlisle, Labor Day.

Frederick Fryberger, Ralph Kline, Samuel Reynolds and Ray Brill have returned to Williamson Trade School, Philadelphia, after spending their summer vacation here.

The surviving members of Lieutenant William H. Child Post, No. 226, Grand Army, assembled in the Post room in the Miller Hardware building Sunday afternoon when, business of importance was transacted.

Miss Eva Peck recently entertained a number of friends at her home, West Market street, in honor of Miss Marion Franck, Torrie Warring and Richard Gross of Philadelphia. Dancing was one of the features of the evening.

Refreshments were served. Those present were: Janet Spangler, Harvella Goddard, Vivian Millmyer, Marriet Miller, Josephine Schock, Eva Peck, Marion Franck, Torrie Warring, Richard Gross, John Frey, Alfred Bucher, John Baker, Richard O'Brien, John Orth and James Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Enterline's business increased to such an extent they are compelled to annex additional buildings to their large structures. At present, Albert Walters, contractor of Florin, and force of men, are attaching a two story building to the house, in order to convert it into a double house, to be occupied by their employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brubaker, extensive growers of tomatoes, potatoes, sweet corn, cabbage and various vegetables, which they distribute to their many customers in Florin and Mount Joy, Wednesday and Saturday, each week, report a successful yield from their small farm, near Milton Grove, which J. Hefflinger, of Elizabethtown, purchased at private sale, to take possession about April 1, 1926.

Prof. S. B. Landis and pupils, of the Rheems school, failed to observe the rule "Wood man, spare the tree," while chopping down a large tree that was a menace to the school building on the north side, decaying the roof and spouting and barring out the light. The boys, mostly of the Rheems Boy Scouts, deserve credit for assisting the teacher, to reduce the large trunk and heavy branches into stove length size, placed in the cellar close to the furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and family visited Grandma Witmer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sander dined with Martin Ebersole's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and family, of Safe Harbor, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erb's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Snyder and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Nolt were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Brubaker on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Stauffer entertained Rev. and Mrs. Mark Kreiders, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kreider, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Elam Stauffer and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stauffer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay M. Reich announce the birth of a son, Elmer Walters is seriously ill at his home on the Rich farm, north of Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith announce the birth of a son at the Columbia hospital.

Mrs. George Naylor and Mrs. J. Shellenberger and daughter, Ruth, spent Friday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lewis L. Schock is confined to her home, East Market St., with a badly sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraybill and son, Harry, of Johnstown, visited relatives and friends here recently.

Mrs. William Harper, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Burd Cassel, of East Market street.

Miss Frances Gramm, of Philadelphia, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gramm, on West Market street.

John Baker, of Bryn Mawr, spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thumma, West Market street.

Miss Myra Druckenmiller returned home to Sayre, Pa., accompanied by her cousin, Miss Elsie R. Engle, West Market St., this place.

Charles H. Mueller is attending the convention of the Alpha Sigma Phi in Washington, D. C. He is a delegate of the Lambda Chapter of Columbia University.

Miss Margaret Barr and Dorothy Evans, Rev. Charles E. Berghaus and Robert T. Schellenberger motored to Carlisle, Labor Day.

Frederick Fryberger, Ralph Kline, Samuel Reynolds and Ray Brill have returned to Williamson Trade School, Philadelphia, after spending their summer vacation here.

The surviving members of Lieutenant William H. Child Post, No. 226, Grand Army, assembled in the Post room in the Miller Hardware building Sunday afternoon when, business of importance was transacted.

Miss Eva Peck recently entertained a number of friends at her home, West Market street, in honor of Miss Marion Franck, Torrie Warring and Richard Gross of Philadelphia. Dancing was one of the features of the evening.

Refreshments were served. Those present were: Janet Spangler, Harvella Goddard, Vivian Millmyer, Marriet Miller, Josephine Schock, Eva Peck, Marion Franck, Torrie Warring, Richard Gross, John Frey, Alfred Bucher, John Baker, Richard O'Brien, John Orth and James Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Enterline's business increased to such an extent they are compelled to annex additional buildings to their large structures. At present, Albert Walters, contractor of Florin, and force of men, are attaching a two story building to the house, in order to convert it into a double house, to be occupied by their employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brubaker, extensive growers of tomatoes, potatoes, sweet corn, cabbage and various vegetables, which they distribute to their many customers in Florin and Mount Joy, Wednesday and Saturday, each week, report a successful yield from their small farm, near Milton Grove, which J. Hefflinger, of Elizabethtown, purchased at private sale, to take possession about April 1, 1926.

Prof. S. B. Landis and pupils, of the Rheems school, failed to observe the rule "Wood man, spare the tree," while chopping down a large tree that was a menace to the school building on the north side, decaying the roof and spouting and barring out the light. The boys, mostly of the Rheems Boy Scouts, deserve credit for assisting the teacher, to reduce the large trunk and heavy branches into stove length size, placed in the cellar close to the furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and family visited Grandma Witmer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sander dined with Martin Ebersole's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and family, of Safe Harbor, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erb's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erb, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Snyder and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Nolt were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Isaac Brubaker on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Stauffer entertained Rev. and Mrs. Mark Kreiders, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kreider, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Elam Stauffer and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stauffer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay M. Reich announce the birth of a son, Elmer Walters is seriously ill at his home on the Rich farm, north of Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith announce the birth of a son at the Columbia hospital.

Mrs. George Naylor and Mrs. J. Shellenberger and daughter, Ruth, spent Friday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lewis L. Schock is confined to her home, East Market St., with a badly sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraybill and son, Harry, of Johnstown, visited relatives and friends here recently.

Mrs. William Harper, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Burd Cassel, of East Market street.

Miss Frances Gramm, of Philadelphia, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gramm, on West Market street.

John Baker, of Bryn Mawr, spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thumma, West Market street.

Miss Myra Druckenmiller returned home to Sayre, Pa., accompanied by her cousin, Miss Elsie R. Engle, West Market St., this place.

Charles H. Mueller is attending the convention of the Alpha Sigma Phi in Washington, D. C. He is a delegate of the Lambda Chapter of Columbia University.

Miss Margaret Barr and Dorothy Evans, Rev. Charles E. Berghaus and Robert T. Schellenberger motored to Carlisle, Labor Day.

Frederick Fryberger, Ralph Kline, Samuel Reynolds and Ray Brill have returned to Williamson Trade School, Philadelphia, after spending their summer vacation here.

The surviving members of Lieutenant William H. Child Post, No. 226, Grand Army, assembled in the Post room in the Miller Hardware building Sunday afternoon when, business of importance was transacted.

Miss Eva Peck recently entertained a number of friends at her home, West Market street, in honor of Miss Marion Franck, Torrie Warring and Richard Gross of Philadelphia. Dancing was one of the features of the evening.

Refreshments were served. Those present were: Janet Spangler, Harvella Goddard, Vivian Millmyer, Marriet Miller, Josephine Schock, Eva Peck, Marion Franck, Torrie Warring, Richard Gross, John Frey, Alfred Bucher, John Baker, Richard O'Brien, John Orth and James Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Enterline's business increased to such an extent they are compelled to annex additional buildings to their large structures. At present, Albert Walters, contractor of Florin, and force of men, are attaching a two story building to the house, in order to convert it into a double house, to be occupied by their employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brubaker, extensive growers of tomatoes, potatoes, sweet corn, cabbage and various vegetables, which they distribute to their many customers in Florin and Mount Joy, Wednesday and Saturday, each week, report a successful yield from their small farm, near Milton Grove, which J. Hefflinger, of Elizabethtown, purchased at private sale, to take possession about April 1, 1926.

Prof. S. B. Landis and pupils, of the Rheems school, failed to observe the rule "Wood man, spare the tree," while chopping down a large tree that was a menace to the school building on the north side, decaying the roof and spouting and barring out the light. The boys, mostly of the Rheems Boy Scouts, deserve credit for assisting the teacher, to reduce the large trunk and heavy branches into stove length size, placed in the cellar close to the furnace.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and family visited Grandma Witmer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sander dined with Martin Ebersole's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and family, of Safe Harbor, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erb's on Sunday.

Own Your Home
BELOW YOU WILL FIND LISTED ANYTHING FROM A BUILDING LOT TO A $25,000 MANSION, FARM OR BUSINESS. IF YOU DON'T SEE LISTED JUST WHAT YOU WANT, CALL OR PHONE, AS I HAVE OTHERS. HERE ARE SOME OF THE BEST BARGAINS IN SMALL FARMS I HAVE EVER OFFERED.