The purpose of this open season is to remove 800 surplus deer from Adams county, 800 from Cumberland county; 750 from Franklin county; 500 from Huntingdon county; 300 from Mifflin county; and 400 from Perry county or a total of 3,550 deer from six sections of the State where they are causing material damage to farm crops and orchards.

Hunting during the Special Season declared by the Board will be confined strictly to portions of the Counties most seriously affected, and the Board is requesting licenses to confine their hunting to (Turn to page 6)

BOYS SEE MOOSE ON MANHEIM FARM

A large moose, believed to be the Michigan variety, was discovered about Thursday afternoon, on the farm of John Stehman, near Manheim. Three boys, Paul Entlerine, of Lancaster Junction; Abram Root of Mechanicsville; and Nissley Stehman, of near Manheim, attempted to catch the animal, which was very tame.

The hair of the animal was gray, with dark brown spots, giving a very beautiful appearance. The horns measured, according to the boys, about 30 inches in length.

Tumble Inn Raided Again

"ITSKY" MILLER AND HIS SON, ARRESTED BY TROOPERS. LIQUOR CACHE FOUND

A detail of State Police from the Manheim barracks, consisting of Sergeant Kaufman and Privates Davis and Buckbee, together with Constable Rodgers, of Manheim, late Friday night raided "Itsky" Miller's "Tumble Inn," on the Har risburg pike, east of Landisville, and seized eight pint bottles and several beer bottles full of alleged synthetic whiskey.

It was the second descent on "Tumble Inn" within two weeks by State Police, the first raid resulting in the arrest of Miller as the proprietor of the establishment and the operator of gambling devices.

Friday night, however, Miller and his son, Harry, were arrested on charges of possessing and illegally selling intoxicating liquor, after arraignment before Squire Danner, at Manheim, they were taken to the county jail in default of $1,000 bail each, for a hearing next Saturday. It was stated by Squire Danner, since that bail had been procured and that the men would be released.

The liquor, according to State Police, was secreted inside concrete blocks along the foundation of the building. The police also say that within two days after his release on bail, nearly two weeks ago, Miller was again selling liquor. He is still under $1,200 bail for that offense.

Held Halloween Party

The Young Men's Bible Class of the Kinderhook United Evangelical church, held a Halloween party Friday evening in the building known as the old Brick Tavern, on the Lancaster and Marietta turnpike just east of Marietta, which was a success in every way. An interesting program was rendered, and prizes were given. The costumes were a feature. The decorations were of corn shocks, pumpkins, and fall foliage.

Held for Court

A. S. Weitman, Elizabethtown, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace C. C. Hicks, Maytown, on charges of assault and battery preferred by A. Harris. The case was returned to court and Weitman was released under $500 bond.

New Kind of Perfume

While making his last trip Saturday night the 12:15 trolley here ran over a skunk at Beger's Mill. There was a lady in the car who was able to smell her own perfume after that.

MELLON SUGGESTS CUT IN INCOME TAXES

A new schedule of normal tax rates sent to the Ways and Means Committee by Secretary Mellon Thursday would cut taxes on incomes between $6,000 and $12,000 materially below those submitted by the Treasury at the opening hearing on Monday.

These new normal rates, which the Secretary stated would be "more satisfactory" but which, he added, he furnished only as a base and not as any definite proposal, would place a 1 per cent. tax on the first $3,000 of income, 2 per cent. on the next $1,000, 3 per cent. on the next $4,000 and 5 per cent. on the remainder.

The schedule presented Monday taxed the first $3,000 of income, the second $4,000 3 per cent. and the rest 5 per cent. Under the present law, the first $4,000 is taxed 2 per cent., the next $4,000 4 per cent. and the remaining sum 6 per cent.

Under this new schedule, as under the first, the 25 per cent. exemption permitted to taxpayers on the first $10,000 of income is stricken out of the law. Through the law as it stands, $5,000 of any one's income is considered earned, but it must be proved that the remainder is actually earned.

Florin Men Fight Duel--One Is Shot

CHARLES SWEGER AND GEO. "BOOTS" HENDERSON CLASH AT HOME OF FORMER'S FATHER-IN-LAW

Two well known Florin, Lancaster county men, Thursday night fought a duel for the love of a young matron, mother of eight children.

The duelists were Geo. "Boots" Henderson, 45, and Charles Sweger, 46, both of Florin.

The duel was fought in an isolated country home in the beautiful Juniata Valley. There Henderson had gone to pay court to Mrs. Charles Sweger, a comely woman, much younger than her husband, and to which Sweger went when he heard that Henderson had slipped away from Florin and was headed for the home of Rosa Leonard, Father of Sweger's wife, at which place she and some of her children were staying.

Sweger reached the home when Henderson and the others, including the children, were in the parlor. He made no mention of his mission. Walking to Henderson, he eyed him intently for a moment asked what he was doing there, and added emphasis to his query by wiping out a revolver of .32 calibre.

Henderson jumped to his feet in the center of the room. With a sneer, he inquired why it was any of Sweger's business that he was there. His hand slipped back to his hip pocket as he spoke.

Cuddled with their mother in a corner of the room, Sweger's three children, all under 12 years of age. (Turn to page 2)

Made a Second Raid

Last week the Federal authorities made a raid on three hotels at Marietta but they must have had "advance information" as no booze was found at any of them. Four days later the authorities again called at the same places, this time finding all kinds of booze. At one place, they found 15 gallons of alcohol and 15 gallons of whiskey.

Tobacco Shed Blown Down

On the George S. Heistand farm along the Marietta and Lancaster turnpike, a large tobacco shed and other buildings were blown to pieces by the high wind, Sunday, particles of wood being carried nearly a half mile away.

Church 100 Years Old This Week

Trinity Lutheran congregation of Rohrerstown, this county, is one hundred years old. The congregation was organized in 1825 by the Rev. John J. Strein. For the first 7 years, services were held in the public school house. In 1832, in conjunction with the German Reformed congregation "Zion's church edifice" was built; and was used jointly by the two congregations for sixty-nine years. In 1901, an amicable agreement of separation was effected, and the Lutheran people sold their interest in the building to the Reformed people for the sum of $1500.00. In the same year, and during the pastorate of the late Rev. J. Darmstadt, of Lancaster, the present brick (Turn to page 5)

Rally Day

The Annual Rally Day service of the Evangelical church was very successful. At the afternoon session 182 were present and the total offering amounted to $462. The Gospel Crew, of Harrisburg, served as the speakers of the day. At the morning service, four new members were received into church fellowship: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seaman, Miss Kathryn Seaman, and Mrs. Calvin Kramer.

Smith Waives Hearing

Charged with manufacturing, possessing and selling intoxicating liquors, Daniel Smith, whose farm near Elizabethtown, the State police raided last week, has waived a hearing before Justice of the Peace Danner, of Manheim, and furnished $1,000 bail for trial at court. The troopers say they seized 60 gallons of moonshine and 300 gallons of mash.

A Birthday Dinner

A birthday dinner was held on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hockenberry, in honor of their son, James, who celebrated his fifth birthday. Duck and all its fixings were served. All had an enjoyable time. A large birthday cake decorated the table.

Henry Weaver was appointed inspector of elections in the North-western or 58th District, West Hempfield township, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Victor Wolpert.

AN AUTOIST MADE A MIGHTY NARROW ESSAGE

Two men riding in a touring car can thank the State Highway Department for saving their lives. They were traveling toward Mount Joy, Thursday afternoon in the rain. They were about to pass another car on the curve at the former Bacon quarry, west of Chickies. As they did they noticed a car approaching from the opposite direction, so the driver suddenly applied his brakes. The road, being wet and slippery, the car skidded off the concrete road against a heavy post which carries the cable or guard. The post was demolished and the car suspended in the two cables, was hanging over the edge of the quarry. Had the cable broken, the car would have fallen into the stone quarry, a depth of at least 50 feet. No one was injured but the car was slightly damaged.
