THE OLD WEST IN ACTION

All highways and byways this year lead enticingly to the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo, which is to be held for nine days, beginning August 15. By cut rate train, boat or automobile, with parties of friends made up to share the trip, thousands of tourists are expected to be transplanted into the atmosphere of the real West.

Chicago's new $5,000,000 stadium on Lake Michigan is to become the capitol of American sport through the efforts of the domestic and foreign commerce committee of the Association of Commerce.

The story of the roundup and the rodeo is the story of romance of the real West. Into the nine days of the Chicago event will be packed more daring feats and dynamic action than is the privilege of many to witness in a lifetime. Tex Austin, producer of the most successful cowboy contests, will organize and manage the Chicago spectacle. Cowboys, cowgirls and bulldozers, champions all, and bronchos and longhorn steers which have scorned mastery, will fight out the battle royal for supremacy.

From the "brush" of the Southwest to the ranges of Canada, the challenge has passed among the buckaroos who have fought out old rivalries at the famous cowboy events in Cheyenne and Pendleton. Not only seeking the glory of victory, they also will compete for more than $30,000 in cash prizes put up by the Chicago association. This is the largest amount given anywhere this year for cowboy contests. "Outlaw" horses, called the worst on the ranges, already are under contract with Tex Austin. They can't be ridden, is the promise of their owners. Carloads of steers, conditioned through the summer into their greatest strength, will defy the wits of the "bulldozers."

The stadium itself is the world's wonder work of architecture. Its massive colonnades look down upon a huge arena and tiers of seats for 75,000 persons. It is set in the ring of boulevards and parks and on the lake front, which have won for Chicago the title of the "vacation city."

The roundup and rodeo will solve your vacation problems, so tell Mother and Sister and the Kid Brother to quit fretting over the summer's plans and get ready for the thrills of their lives.

THREE REAL CHAMPIONS

"Expert and daring" leaders in the great sport to which they have brought fame, are the cowgirls from the western ranges who will compete in the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo, to be held for nine days beginning August 15. Champions past and present, as well as new seekers-after fame, will add thrills to the cowboy contests which will be presented in the new $5,000,000 stadium under the auspices of the Chicago Association of Commerce. A group of these cowgirls startled the staid Brits when they appeared in the international Championship held by Tex Austin at Wembley, England, recently, and the same champions will compete in the Chicago spectacle. Austin is organizing the Chicago roundup and will manage it, and the $30,000 in prizes is the largest amount offered for any contest this year.

NO DAYLIGHT SAVING HERE

Many are the tricks resorted to by the "outlaw" horse to throw his rider. Pitching, bucking every second of the time he is in the arena, the broncho struggles fiercely to wriggle the decision. No buckaroo must "show daylight" between himself and his saddle, or he is disqualified.

The sport of sports is the real cowboy contest, and titles for the leadership in riding, "bulldozing" and roping will go to the buckaroos and cowgirls who compete in the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo, which will bring nine days of frontier life to the metropolis beginning August 15. Tex Austin, famous for successful rodeos he has held, will direct the While every one should use the knowledge that has been gained by experience regarding what is and what is not wholesome food, I believe there are many people that suffer more from a morbid fear of the various things set before them than from the food itself. If you cheerfully eat and masticate fully a reasonable quantity of clean, wholesome food well prepared and then dismiss fear and worry, your general health is quite likely to improve and even if it is good it will probably be better.

He did it. Friends called him an old fool and thought he should be sent to an asylum, but now at 80 years he is strong, well and hearty and talks of converting his home into a health resort. He says that he fully expects to be quite able to do a full day's work on his 100th birthday.

OWL-LAFFS

BY O. W. L. (On With Laughter)

Well, how's the New Year treating you? To tell the truth it has treated me better than some of the people.

Here's one that I really can't let go unnoticed. A family living less than a thousand miles from Mount Joy are laughing about it yet.

A certain woman cuts all her patterns out of tissue paper and when the paper is too small she pins it together. Recently she discarded a lot of old patterns, putting them in an out-house.

Next day her husband inquired as to who put the tissue paper at that particular place and the wife said she did. The husband then said: "Well for heavens sake, next time you do that take the pins out of it."

Jack Miller claims he has a few fellows working for him that use their heads for nothing but a hat rack.

For full information and details as to how you can miss a deer setting see Jim Berrier, Mount Joy township's supervisor.

Henry Garber says he never heard of such a thing but I did. I remember one time that Phares Heisey, of Rheems, missed a fish setting—at least that's what he said.

A man near town claims that if your children develop dishonesty it's the hardest thing in the world to convince people that they didn't inherit it.

A man on East Main street claims that if you marry a blonde, you will never notice hair in the soup and if you marry a brunette you won't notice it on the steak.

Ere long John Bachman contemplates proving to the public that he can do more than manufacture good chocolate. He is about to market a preparation that will grow hair. They say he rubbed some on a fox terrier and next day the dog looked like a Collie.

You may take my order for three bottles, John.

For His Benefit Her bathing suit is pretty. That's true, without a doubt; But when she gets inside the thing, The most of her stays out.

The poet writes: A little tonic Here and there, Will raise the hopes But not the hair.

I've just learned that men with wooden legs have it all over us. They needn't buy garters. They use carpet tacks.

By all appearances, says one of our autoists, these fellows have been losing their garters as he is picking up a great many of late.

A man at Florin told me he had a taste of repl life. He and his wife had a scrap and he darn near bit off her thumb.

A fellow near Landisville was out stealing pea coal recently and got several bags full. Next day he discovered that he stole crushed stone that had been given a coat of oil which were to be used for patching roads.

Arthur Hendrix tells me that Ralph Eshleman got a dandy wrist watch for a Christmas present and that he looks at it so often that he's thinking of wearing sleeveless coats.

Several of us were talking about a certain golf bug recently when one man said he knew him ever since he wore knee pants. I said that must only be since last summer as that's when he started playing golf.

Back at school the other day one of the grade teachers asked a pupil what you call a man who runs an automobile. The boy replied: "It all depends how near he comes to running over me."

An agent called at a certain place in town and said: "Who's the head of this house?" The man replied: "I am, sir. My wife is at Lancaster."

St. Marks must be a rich old cuss," said "Ducky" Snyder recently. I asked him why and he said because his name is on so many churches and hospitals.

A little fellow in a nearby country school says its a shame Adam didn't swallow that apple. He thinks men look so funny with it sticking in their throats.

Recently there was a wedding dinner prepared in a Maytown home and darned if the family dog didn't eat a roast chicken and a quart of ice cream. You can't beat that.

Though many hard-of-hearing persons think they hear better on a train than in a quiet place, recent experiments indicate that they do not, but the speakers talk louder.

Prairie dogs and prairie owls are good neighbors, but both hate the rattlesnakes which infest their burrows.
